items, will be in the range of $1.93 to $2.03, above previous guidance of $1.80 to $1.90. Sabre confirmed that its projections for 2002 revenues and travel booking levels remain unchanged.

ITEM 7. EXHIBIT

Attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 is Sabre's press release, dated March 19, 2002, which is filed as a part of this report.

CAUTIONARY NOTICE ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Statements in this report and the exhibit attached hereto which are not purely historical facts, including statements about forecasted revenue or earnings growth, cost estimates, expected operating margins or cash flow, and future bookings outlook, or other statements about anticipations, beliefs, expectations, hopes, intentions or strategies for the future, may be forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements are based upon information available to Sabre on the date of this report. Sabre undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Any forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from the events or results described in the forward-looking statements, including risks or uncertainties related to: airlines limiting their participation in travel marketing and distribution services; and Sabre's revenues being highly dependent on the travel and transportation industries. Sabre may not succeed in addressing these and other risks. Further information regarding factors that could affect Sabre's financial and other results can be found in the risk factors section of Sabre's most recent filing on Form 10-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
