subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Gillette, with Gillette continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Procter & Gamble (the "Merger").

The Merger Agreement

At the effective time and as a result of the Merger, each share of Gillette common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will be converted automatically into and become exchangeable for 0.975 shares of Procter & Gamble common stock.

Following the effective time of the Merger, James M. Kilts, the Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of Gillette, will become a member of Procter & Gamble's board of directors.

Procter & Gamble and Gillette have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, covenants (i) to conduct their respective businesses in the ordinary course consistent with past practice during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger, (ii) not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during such period, (iii) subject to certain exceptions, to cause stockholder meetings to be held to consider approval of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and (iv) subject to certain exceptions, for their respective boards of directors to recommend adoption and approval by its stockholders of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. In addition, Gillette made certain additional customary covenants, including among others, covenants not to: (i) solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or (ii) subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions concerning or provide confidential information in connection with alternative business combination transactions.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including (i) approval of the holders of Procter & Gamble common stock, (ii) approval of the holders of Gillette common stock, (iii) absence of any law or order prohibiting the closing, (iv) expiration or termination of the applicable Hart-Scott-Rodino waiting period and certain other regulatory approvals, (v) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of representations and warranties, (vi) the absence of any material adverse effect with respect to each party's business and (vii) the delivery of customary opinions from counsel to Procter & Gamble and counsel to Gillette that the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Procter & Gamble and Gillette, and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, Gillette may be required to pay Procter & Gamble a termination fee of $1.92 billion.
