The following constitutes Amendment No. 6 to the Schedule 13D filed by the undersigned (the "Amendment No. 6"). This Amendment No. 6 amends the Schedule 13D as specifically set forth herein.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 is hereby amended to add the following:

On April 2, 2013, Baker Street Capital Management, Vadim Perelman and Kenneth Traub (together with Mr. Perelman, the "Investor Directors") entered into an investor agreement with the Issuer (the "Investor Agreement"). The following description of the Investor Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Investor Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

Pursuant to the Investor Agreement, the Issuer agreed, among other things: (1) to appoint Mr. Perelman to the Board of Directors of the Issuer (the "Board") effective immediately and to solicit proxies from the Issuer's stockholders for his election as a director in Class I at the 2013 annual general meeting of stockholders (the "2013 Annual Meeting") and (2) to appoint Mr. Traub promptly following the 2013 Annual Meeting to serve as a director on the Board in Class III, with a term expiring at the 2014 annual general meeting of stockholders (the "2014 Annual Meeting"), and to serve as a Board observer until the time of his appointment. To the extent that an Investor Director resigns for any reason (except as required under the Investor Agreement), is unable to serve or is otherwise deemed ineligible to serve as an Investor Director during the Standstill Period (as defined below), Baker Street Capital Management is entitled to designate substitute director(s) who are "independent" under NASDAQ corporate governance standards and qualified to serve as a director under the laws of Bermuda, for approval by the Nominations and Corporate Governance Committee, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, and appointment by the Board within five (5) business days following such approval. If no such approval is granted, Baker Street Capital Management has the right to propose one or more replacement designees.

In addition, the Issuer agreed (1) to promptly form a Strategic Committee to explore strategic alternatives and to offer Mr. Perelman membership on such committee and (2) to offer membership to each other committee of the Board to at least one Investor Director during their initial terms on the Board. The Issuer further agreed during the Standstill Period not to increase the size of the Board above seven (7) directors or implement any antitakeover provisions other than the continuation of its shareholder rights plan in its current form.

Pursuant to the terms of the Investor Agreement, Baker Street Capital Management agreed: (1) to vote all shares of Common Stock it beneficially owns in favor of the election of the director nominees, including Mr. Perelman, recommended by the Board; (2) to vote in favor of all other matters recommended for stockholder approval at the 2013 Annual Meeting, which matters shall be limited to the election of Class I directors and the ratification of the Issuer's independent registered public accounting firm; and (3) not to directly or indirectly seek to elect more than two (2) directors to the Board at the Issuer's 2014 Annual Meeting or otherwise prior to the date that is 30 days in advance of the deadline for stockholder nominations for the Issuer's 2015 annual general meeting of stockholders;

In addition, Baker Street Capital Management agreed, from the date of the Investor Agreement until thirty (30) calendar days before the deadline for submission of stockholder nominations for the 2014 Annual Meeting (the "Standstill Period"), not to, among other things: (1) acquire, propose or offer to acquire additional Shares, except that it can participate on equal terms with other stockholders in certain transactions that will not result in a percentage increase of its ownership; (2) except with respect to an Opposition Matter (as defined in the Investor Agreement), seek, propose or endorse certain material transactions; (3) except as provided in the Investor Agreement, seek, propose or endorse a change in the structure, size or composition of the Board or change in the executive officers of the Issuer; (4) submit any stockholder proposal or notice of nomination or other business, except as permitted by the Investor

Agreement; (5) except in connection with an Opposition Matter, engage in any solicitation in opposition to a recommendation or proposal of the Board; (6) except in connection with an Opposition Matter, form a group or partnership with respect to the voting of securities of the Issuer; (7) except in connection with an Opposition Matter, seek publicly, or through discussions with anyone other than the Company or the Board, any control or influence over the Company's policies or in opposition to any recommendation of the Board or the divestiture, break-up or spin-off of the Company's businesses or assets; (8) except in connection with an Opposition Matter, seek to call a special meeting of the Issuer's stockholders; (9) enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding or disclose any intention, plan, position or arrangement inconsistent with the foregoing. Opposition Matter generally refers to certain material transactions that have been approved by the Board but voted against by Mr. Perelman.

CUSIP NO. G98268108

On April 2, 2013, the Issuer and Baker Street Capital Management jointly issued a mutually agreeable press release to announce they have reached a settlement and entered into the Investor Agreement.

Baker Street further agreed to provide Mr. Traub with indemnification with respect to certain matters related to the entry into the Investor Agreement.

Other than as described herein, there are no contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships among the Reporting Persons, or between the Reporting Persons and any other person, with respect to the securities of the Issuer.
