ITEM 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On April 25, 2006, BB&T's shareholders approved two amendments to BB&T Corporation's bylaws. A copy of the amended and restated bylaws is filed herein as exhibit 3(ii) and incorporated by reference. These amendments are both in reference to Article III, Section 2.

The first amendment eliminates the requirement that divides the Board of Directors into three classes and provides for the class election of directors to three-year terms in office. The amendment, which was approved by shareholders, declassifies the Board of Directors and provides for the future election of all directors on an annual basis beginning at the 2007 Annual Meeting of shareholders.

The second amendment, which was approved by shareholders, eliminates the requirement that BB&T Corporation's Board of Directors possess the qualifications required for national bank directors under federal law and regulation.

ITEM 8.01 Other Events
