PROXY STATEMENT

Annual Meeting of Shareholders

April 28, 2010

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the board of directors of Noble Roman's, Inc., an Indiana corporation ("Noble Roman's" or the "Company"), for use at the annual meeting of shareholders to be held on Wednesday, April 28, 2010 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Hampton Inn Downtown, 105 S. Meridian Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46225, and any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying notice of annual meeting of shareholders.

Unless otherwise directed by the giver of the proxy, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy, or the one of them who acts, will vote all shares subject to the proxy as follows:

FOR the election of Mr. Douglas Coape-Arnold as a Class I director of the Company, to serve until the 2011 annual meeting of shareholders or until his successor is elected and qualified;

FOR the election of Jeffrey Gaither and Paul W. Mobley as Class II directors of the Company, to serve until the 2012 annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors are elected and qualified;

FOR the election of James Basili and A. Scott Mobley as Class III directors of the Company, to serve until the 2013 annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors are elected and qualified;

FOR the ratification of the engagement of Somerset CPAs, P.C. as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2010; and

In their discretion on the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the annual meeting.

This proxy statement, the notice of annual meeting and the accompanying proxy form were first mailed to the holders of our common stock on or about April 5, 2010. We will bear the entire expense of soliciting proxies. Proxies will be solicited by mail initially. Our directors, executive officers and employees also may solicit proxies personally or by telephone or other means, but they will not be specially compensated for such services. Certain holders of record, such as brokers, custodians and nominees, may be requested to distribute proxy materials to beneficial owners and will be reimbursed by us for their reasonable expenses incurred in sending proxy materials to beneficial owners.

Edgar Filing: NOBLE ROMANS INC - Form DEF 14A

A shareholder who executes a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is exercised by delivering to us another proxy bearing a later date, by submitting written notice of the revocation to our corporate secretary or by personally appearing at the annual meeting and casting a contrary vote.

VOTING RIGHTS AND SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on March 11, 2010 are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the annual meeting. On such date, there were 19,412,499 shares of our common stock outstanding and approximately 300 holders of record. Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter to be voted upon at the annual meeting.

The Company's By-Laws provide that the holders of a majority of the Company's outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at the meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the meeting. Abstentions and "broker non-votes" will be counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

A "broker non-vote" occurs when a broker lacks discretionary voting power to vote on a "non-routine" proposal and a beneficial owner fails to give the broker voting instructions on that matter. As the result of a recent rule change, the election of directors is no longer considered a "routine" matter. Beneficial owners who hold their shares through stock brokerage accounts will have to give voting instructions to their brokers in order for the brokers to vote on the election of directors. If you are a beneficial owner, failure to provide instructions to your broker will result in your shares not being voted in connection with the election of directors. The ratification of the selection of Somerset CPAs, P.C. as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2010 is currently considered a "routine" matter, and a broker has the discretionary voting power to vote on this matter without any instructions from the beneficial owner. Broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining a quorum, but will have no effect on the election of directors or the ratification of the selection of Somerset CPAs, P.C. An abstention will count as a vote against the ratification of the selection of Somerset CPAs, P.C.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a plurality of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and eligible to vote on such matter is required for the election of each director nominee. A "plurality" in an election of directors means that the nominees of each class with the largest number of votes cast will be elected as directors of that class, up to the maximum number of directors of that class to be chosen at the meeting. At this year's meeting there are only as many nominees, one Class I, two Class II, and two Class III, as there are directors to be elected. Therefore, each nominee is assured of election provided he receives any votes "FOR" his election, regardless of how many votes to "WITHHOLD AUTHORITY" that nominee receives.

person or represented by proxy at the meeting and voting on such matter will be required for ratification of Somerset CPAs, P.C. as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2010 and for the approval of any other matter that might be properly raised and submitted to a vote at the meeting. However, consistent with our By-Laws, the agenda for this year's meeting is set and no additional matters, other than the proposals described in this proxy statement, may be submitted for consideration by our shareholders at the meeting, other than procedural issues such as adjournment, postponement or continuation. On procedural issues, all shares represented by proxy may be voted at the discretion of the attorneys-in-fact named in the proxies, to the extent permitted by law.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the 2010 annual meeting of shareholders, in accordance with the Company's By-Laws, the shareholders will elect one Class I director to serve until the 2011 annual meeting of shareholders or until his successor is elected and qualified, two Class II directors to serve until the 2012 annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors are elected and qualified, and two Class III directors to serve until the 2013 annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors are elected and qualified. The board of directors has nominated Douglas Coape-Arnold for election as a Class I director, Jeffrey Gaither and Paul W. Mobley for election as Class II directors, and James Basili and A. Scott Mobley for election as Class III directors. All five of the nominees are currently directors of the Company and have consented to being named in this proxy statement and to serve as a director if elected.

Should any nominee become unavailable or decline to serve for any reason, the Company expects that the persons named in the proxy will vote for the election of another person as may be designated by the board of directors. The board of directors is not aware of any circumstances likely to cause any nominee to be unavailable for election or to decline to serve.

The board of directors recommends a vote "FOR" the election of each of the director nominees.

Set forth below is certain information regarding the nominees and the executive officers of the Company:

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Paul W. Mobley serves both as the Chairman on the board of directors and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The Company does not have a designated lead independent director. For a number of years the Company has operated using the traditional U.S. board leadership structure under which the Chief Executive Officer also serves as Chairman of the board of directors. The board of directors believes that, given the Company's relatively small size and limited resources, the Company has been well-served by this leadership structure and that this structure continues to be the optimal structure for our Company and our shareholders. The board of directors believes that this structure demonstrates to our employees, customers and shareholders strong leadership, with a single person having primary responsibility for managing the Company's operations.

Our board of directors has responsibility for the oversight of risk management. Our board of directors from time to time discusses with management areas of material risk exposures, their potential impact on the Company, the steps we take to monitor risk exposure and controls to mitigate such exposures.

The Company has adopted a code of ethics for its senior executive and financial officers. The code of ethics can be obtained without charge by contacting the Company's executive office at One Virginia Ave., Suite 300, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204.

In 2009, the board of directors met six times. During 2009, each of the directors of the Company attended all six meetings of the board of directors, i.e., there was 100% attendance of meetings during 2009. All directors are encouraged to attend our annual meeting of shareholders. The Company did not hold an annual meeting of shareholders in 2009. The Company does not have standing audit, nominating and compensation committees.

Certain Relationships and Transactions

The Company has reviewed all transactions to which the Company and certain officers and directors of the Company are a party or have a financial interest. The board of directors of the Company has adopted a policy that all transactions between the Company and its officers, directors, principal shareholders and other affiliates must be approved by a majority of the Company's disinterested directors, and be conducted on terms no less favorable to the Company than could be obtained from unaffiliated third parties.

Jeffrey Gaither is a partner with the Bose McKinney & Evans, LLP, a law firm that performs various legal services for the Company. The Company paid Bose McKinney for services rendered approximately $370,000 and $171,000, respectively, during 2009 and 2008. Other than Jeffrey Gaither's relationship with Bose McKinney, the board of directors has determined that there were no related party transactions since January 1, 2009 that are required to be disclosed in this proxy statement. In making this determination the board of directors considered consulting fees paid to Mr. Coape-Arnold and determined that this item was not required to be disclosed due to the amount of the payments.

The Company's board of directors is currently comprised of Paul W. Mobley, our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, A. Scott Mobley, our President and Chief Operating Officer, James Basili, Douglas H. Coape-Arnold and Jeffrey Gaither. For the purpose of determining director independence, the Company has adopted the New York Stock Exchange definition of independence. The board of directors has determined that Messrs. Basili and Coape-Arnold are independent directors under that definition.

Board Role in Audit Process

The board of directors does not have a separately established audit committee. Because no separate audit committee has been established, the board of directors, as a whole, performs certain functions ordinarily delegated to an audit committee. The board of directors has determined that Mr. Coape-Arnold is qualified as an "Audit Committee Financial Expert."

The board of directors has reviewed and discussed with management and with Somerset CPAs, C.P., the Company's independent auditor, the Company's audited consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2009. The board of directors also has discussed with Somerset CPAs, C.P. the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, "Communication with Audit Committees," as amended. The board of directors has received the written disclosures and the letter from Somerset CPAs, P.C. required by applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board regarding the independent accountant's communications with the board of directors concerning independence, and has discussed with the independent accountant the independent accountant's independence. Based upon the board of directors' review and discussions noted above, the board of directors recommended that the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Board of Directors of Noble Roman's, Inc.
Paul W. Mobley, A. Scott Mobley and Douglas Coape-Arnold

Board Role in Nominations

The Company does not have a standing nominating committee. The board of directors does not believe that a nominating committee is necessary due to the Company's relatively small size, the relatively small size of its board of directors and historically limited need to add new directors. Over the recent past, the Company has rarely had a vacancy on the board of directors and when a vacancy has occurred the entire board has participated in the nomination process. The board expects all of the directors to participate in the nomination process and in the review of potential nominees. The board of directors does not have a formal policy regarding the consideration of shareholder nominees, however, the board will consider nominees on a case-by-case basis. There are no specific qualifications that a nominee must have in order to be considered. When a vacancy exists, the board generally relies on the personal knowledge and references of the directors and publicly available data to identify potential nominees.

Edgar Filing: NOBLE ROMANS INC - Form DEF 14A

The board of directors adopted amended and restated By-Laws effective December 18, 2009 that included changes to the procedures by which shareholders may nominate directors. Among other items, these provisions set forth the procedures that shareholders must follow in order for a shareholder nominee to be considered at a meeting, the information that a shareholder must provide to the Company with respect to itself and the nominee, and the deadlines within which a shareholder nomination must be received in order to be considered at a meeting.

Board Role in Compensation Determinations

The Company does not have a standing compensation committee. The compensation program is supervised by the entire board of directors. The board of directors does not believe that a compensation committee is necessary due to the Company's relatively small size and the relatively small size of its board of directors. All directors participate in compensation discussions. A director that is also an officer does not vote on his own compensation. The compensation of the Chairman/CEO and the President of the Company has been set by long-term contracts with those individuals. The compensation of other executive officers of the Company is determined by the Chairman/CEO and President and approved by the Company's board of directors. Other than the Chairman/CEO and President, no other executive officer participates in the compensation process.

Communication with the Board

Communications by shareholders or by other parties may be sent to the board of directors by U.S. mail or overnight delivery and should be addressed to the board of directors c/o Secretary, Noble Roman's, Inc., One Virginia Avenue, Suite 300, Indianapolis, Indiana, 46204. Communications directed to the board of directors, or one or more directors, will be reviewed by the Secretary and forwarded to the board of directors as appropriate and may be made anonymously.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Each of A. Scott Mobley, Troy Branson, Mitchell Grunat and Jim Bales failed to file a Form 4 to reflect the change in the exercise price of certain options they hold that occurred in January 2009. Based solely on a review of the copies of reports of ownership and changes in ownership of the Company's common stock, furnished to the Company, the Company believes that except as described above all filing requirements under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 were complied with.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

Edgar Filing: NOBLE ROMANS INC - Form DEF 14A

Because no separate Compensation Committee has been established, the board of directors, as a whole, performs certain functions ordinarily delegated to a Compensation Committee. Paul W. Mobley, A. Scott Mobley and Douglas H. Coape-Arnold participated in executive compensation decisions for the year ended December 31, 2009. The Company expects that James Basili and Jeffrey Gaither also will participate in such decisions on the same basis as the other directors for future periods.

Equity Incentive Awards

The Summary Compensation Table includes the grant date fair value for 2008 and 2009 for stock options granted to the named executive officers under the Company's employee stock option plan. The Company determines the grant date fair value of stock options calculated in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718. See Note 7 to the Notes to the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 for a discussion of the Company's determination of the grant date fair value of stock options.

The Company granted options on March 24, 2008 for 465,000 shares at an exercise price equal to the then-current market price of $1.35 per share. On January 8, 2009, the board of directors adjusted the exercise price of certain options granted on March 24, 2008 to executive officers other than Paul W. Mobley from the initial exercise price of $1.35 per share to the then-current market price of $.36 per share. These options included an option to purchase 175,000 shares granted to A. Scott Mobley and an option to purchase 50,000 shares granted to Troy Branson. The incremental fair value of these changes, calculated as of January 8, 2009 in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718, is included in the option awards column. The Company expects all stock options outstanding at December 31, 2009, to vest. No stock options were granted or exercised during 2009.

The Company maintains an employee stock option plan for our employees and officers that is designed to motivate them to increase shareholder value. Any employees or officers of the Company are eligible to be awarded options under the plan. The employee stock option plan provides that any options issued pursuant to the plan will have a three-year vesting period and will expire ten years after the date of grant. The vesting period is intended to provide incentive for longevity with the Company. Awards under the plan are periodically made at the recommendation of the Chairman/CEO and President and approved by the board of directors. The employee stock option plan does not have a limit on the number of shares that may be issued under the plan.

Employment Agreements

Paul Mobley has an employment agreement with the Company which fixes his base compensation at $492,484 per year for 2009 (although Mr. Mobley voluntarily reduced his base compensation to $400,000 for 2009), provides for reimbursement of travel and other expenses incurred in connection with his employment, including the furnishing of an automobile, health and accident insurance similar to that provided other employees, and life insurance in an amount related to his base salary. The initial term of the agreement is seven years and automatically renews each year for a seven-year period unless the board of directors takes specific action to not renew. The agreement is terminable by the Company for just cause as defined in the agreement. The agreement does not provide for any benefits payable as a result of a change of control of the Company.

A. Scott Mobley has an employment agreement with the Company which fixes his base compensation at $325,208 per year for 2009 (although Mr. Mobley voluntarily reduced his base compensation to $306,800 for 2009), provides for reimbursement of travel and other expenses incurred in connection with his employment, including the furnishing of an automobile, health and accident insurance similar to that provided other employees, and life insurance in an amount related to his base salary. The initial term of the agreement is five years and automatically renews each year for a five-year period unless the board of directors takes specific action to not renew. The agreement is terminable by the Company for just cause as defined in the agreement. The agreement does not provide for any benefits payable as a result of a change of control of the Company.

Non-Equity Incentive Arrangements

The Company currently has a non-equity incentive arrangement with our President under which he may earn additional compensation if the Company's net income increases for a given year as compared to the immediately prior year. For the purposes of this calculation we exclude any one-time gains or gains or losses from discontinued operations. For 2009 our net income increased from 2008, therefore, the President did earn additional compensation for 2009 in the amount of $26,999.

The Company also currently has a non-equity incentive arrangement with our Executive Vice President of Franchising under which he may earn additional compensation. His compensation is based on 2.5% of all royalty and fee revenue associated with franchising less the direct expenses of those activities excluding any administrative cost. The net revenue for this activity under this calculation in 2009 was $3.9 million, therefore, our Executive Vice President of Franchising earned $97,108 of compensation for 2009.

The Company does not pay any separate compensation for directors that are also employees of the Company.

RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The board of directors has appointed the firm of Somerset CPAs, C.P. ("Somerset") as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2010. Somerset has served as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm since 2006. Although action by the shareholders in this matter is not required, the board of directors believes that in light of the critical role played by the independent registered public accounting firm in maintaining the integrity of the Company's financial controls and reporting, it is a matter of good practice.

In the event our shareholders fail to approve the proposal to appoint Somerset as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, the board of directors will reconsider whether or not to retain the firm. Even if the selection is ratified, the board of directors in its discretion may direct the appointment of a different independent registered public accounting firm at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interest of the Company and our shareholders.

The board of directors recommends a vote "FOR" the proposal to ratify the selection of Somerset CPAs, P.C. as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ended December 31, 2010.
