Introduction

This Amendment No. 1 amends the Statement on Schedule 13D, originally filed on July 11, 2001 ( Schedule 13D ) by MCG Capital Corporation ( MCG Capital ) and MCG Finance I, LLC (in the case of MCG Finance I, LLC, by its predecessor entity) ( MCG Finance ) and together with MCG Capital, the Reporting Persons ) and, relates to shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Shares ), of NBG Radio Network, Inc., a Nevada corporation (the Issuer ). This Amendment No. 1 is being filed to reflect the fact that the Reporting Persons foreclosed on substantially all of the Issuer 's assets as well as substantially all of the assets of its wholly-owned subsidiary.

Capitalized terms used without definitions in this Amendment No. 1 shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in the Schedule 13D.

Item 2. Identity and Background.

Item 2 of the Schedule 13D is hereby replaced in its entirety as follows:

This Amendment No. 1 is being filed jointly by MCG Capital, and its wholly-owned subsidiary, MCG Finance. Each of the Reporting Persons is a solutions-focused financial services company providing financing and advisory services to companies throughout the United States in the communications, information services, media and technology industry sectors.

The principal business address and the address of the principal office of each of the Reporting Persons is 1100 Wilson Boulevard, Suite 3000, Arlington, Virginia 22209. The name, business address and present principal occupation of the directors and executive officers of each of the Reporting Persons are set forth on Schedule I attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

All of the Shares of the Issuer beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons are held of record by MCG Finance. All of the issued and outstanding equity interests of MCG Finance are beneficially owned by MCG Capital. The following private equity and equity-related funds affiliated with Goldman, Sachs & Co. (an investment banking firm and member of the principal national securities exchanges) together beneficially own, as of April 25, 2002, approximately 21.3% of the issued and outstanding common stock of MCG Capital: (i) GS Capital Partners, II, L.P., (ii) GS Capital Partners II Offshore, L.P., (iii) GS Capital Partners II (Germany) Civil Law Partnership, (iv) Stone Street Fund 1998, L.P., and (v) Bridge Street Fund, 1998, L.P. (together, the Funds ). Therefore, each of MCG Capital, MCG Finance and the Funds may be deemed to be beneficial owners of the Shares. However, the Funds (and their respective general partners, investment committee, and managing general partner) and Goldman, Sachs & Co. disclaim possession of the power, directly or indirectly, to direct or to cause the direction of the management and policies of MCG Capital, whether through the ownership of common stock of MCG Capital, by contract or otherwise, and disclaim beneficial ownership of any securities of the Issuer held or to be held (beneficially or otherwise) by the Reporting Persons.

The names, business address, and present principal occupation of the directors and executive officers the Funds and Goldman, Sachs & Co. (and certain other information) are set forth in Schedule II hereto.

During the last five years, neither the Reporting Persons, the Funds nor Goldman, Sachs & Co. and, to the best of their knowledge, none of their respective executive officers or directors (i) has been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or (ii) except as set forth on Schedule III hereto, was a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations or prohibiting activities subject to federal or state securities laws or finding any violation of such laws.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended by deleting paragraphs 5 and 7 thereof, and inserting the following immediately after paragraph 6 thereof:

Pursuant to the Loan Agreement, the Reporting Persons exercised their right to foreclose on substantially all of the Issuer's assets as well as substantially all of the assets of its wholly-owned subsidiary. The Reporting Persons' decision to take such action may cause the Issuer to seek the protection of the federal bankruptcy laws and/or to liquidate its business in whole or in part.

Except to the extent described above, the Reporting Persons have no present plans or proposals with respect to any of the events or matters identified in paragraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

Item 5 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended by replacing paragraph (a) thereof with the following paragraph:

(a) The Option to acquire in the aggregate 4,850,235 Warrants to purchase Shares was issued to the Reporting Persons by the Issuer, pursuant to the Agreements. The Reporting Persons may, under SEC rules, be deemed to beneficially own Warrants to purchase in the aggregate 4,850,235 Shares. Based on the number of Shares outstanding as of October 12, 2002, as disclosed in the Issuer's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended August 31, 2002, the Shares underlying the Warrants represent approximately 25.0% of the Issuer's outstanding shares, as calculated pursuant to Rule 13d-3. Although the Reporting Persons have reported beneficial ownership of all Shares underlying the Warrants they are entitled to acquire if they exercise the Option, unless and until the Reporting Persons exercise such Option and the Warrants have been issued to them, the Reporting Persons cannot convert the Warrants into Shares. Accordingly, the Reporting Persons disclaim beneficial ownership of the Warrants and the underlying Shares.

SCHEDULE III

On April 6, 2000, in connection with an industry-wide investigation by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) relating to the pricing of government securities in advance refunding transactions, Goldman, Sachs & Co. (Goldman Sachs) joined in a global settlement resolving the SEC investigation as well as a related qui tam lawsuit purportedly brought on behalf of the United States entitled United States ex rel. Lissack v. Goldman, Sachs & Co., et al., 95 Civ. 1363 (S.D.N.Y.)(BSJ). Pursuant to the settlement, without admitting or denying the findings, Goldman Sachs consented to the issuance of an SEC administrative order (SEA Rel. No. 42640) which, among other things, found that Goldman Sachs had violated Sections 17(a)(2) and (3) of the Securities Act of 1933 in connection with such pricing of government securities, required Goldman Sachs to cease and desist from violating such provisions, and ordered Goldman Sachs to make payments totaling approximately $5.1 Million to the U.S. Treasury and $104,000 to two municipalities. Under the global settlement, the qui tam lawsuit was dismissed with prejudice, and the Internal Revenue Service agreed not to challenge the tax-free nature of the refundings by virtue of the pricing of such securities.

In November 2002, the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD) and the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (NYSE) alleged that five broker dealers, including Goldman Sachs, violated Section 17(a) of the Exchange Act and Rule 17a-4 hereunder, NYSE Rules 440 and 342 and NASD Rules 3010 and 3110 by allegedly failing to preserve electronic mail communications for three years and/or to preserve electronic mail communications for the first two years in an accessible place, and by allegedly having inadequate supervisory systems and procedures in relation to the retention of electronic mail communications. Without admitting or denying the allegations, the five broker dealers, including Goldman Sachs, consented to censure by the SEC, NASD and NYSE and to the imposition of a cease-and-desist order by the SEC and Goldman Sachs paid a total fine of $1,650,000 ($550,000 each to the SEC, NASD and NYSE). Goldman Sachs also undertook to review its procedures regarding the preservation of electronic mail communications for compliance with the federal securities laws and regulations and the rules of the NASD and NYSE, and to confirm within a specified period of time that it has established systems and procedures reasonably designed to achieve compliance with those laws, regulations and rules.
