State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K and Form 10-KSB, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q and Form 10-QSB, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed period.

The Registrant is unable to file Form 10-KSB within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense for the following reasons: (i) the recent retention of new accountants, Michael Johnson & Co. LLC and (ii) the need for consolidating for the first time, the financial statements of the Registrant with its wholly-owned subsidiary, Military Resale Group Inc., a Maryland corporation ("MRG"). As the Registrant only completed the acquisition of MRG in November 2001, the retention of a new accounting firm has caused an unavoidable delay in the preparation of consolidated financial statements.

2000. However, operating expenses increased to approximately $1,026,000 in fiscal 2001 from approximately $712,000 in fiscal 2000, due primarily to an increase of approximately $102,000 in professional fees resulting from the acquisition of MRG and the costs associated with the preparation and fling of a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended; an increase of approximately $75,000 in occupancy expenses resulting from the relocation of the Registrant's office and warehouse facilities to a larger facility; and increase salary and payroll expenses of approximately $55,000 resulting from the additional of additional warehouse support staff in fiscal 2001.

Primarily as a result of such increased operating expenses, the Registrant incurred a net loss of approximately (466,000) in fiscal 2001 as compared to a net loss of approximately (14,000) in fiscal 2000.
