Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On October 26, 2017, Washington Federal, Inc. released its capital stress test results as required by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act. These results cover Washington Federal, Inc. (the "Company") and its national bank subsidiary, Washington Federal, National Association.

These results are based on a forward-looking exercise using hypothetical severely adverse macroeconomic assumptions developed by the Federal Reserve Board and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, and do not represent management's expectations. The Company-run capital stress results are being furnished pursuant to item 7.01.

The information contained or incorporated by reference in this Current Report on Form 8-K contains certain forward-looking statements. Actual results could differ materially from these statements. Such forward-looking statements include statements regarding the Company's intentions, beliefs or current expectations as well as the assumptions on which such statements are based. Stockholders and potential stockholders are cautioned that any such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks and uncertainties, and that actual results may differ materially from those contemplated by such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause future results to vary from current management expectations include, but are not limited to: general economic conditions; legislative and regulatory changes, including without limitation the potential effect of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and regulations being promulgated thereunder; monetary fiscal policies of the federal government; changes in tax policies; rates and regulations of federal, state and local tax authorities; changes in interest rates; deposit flows; cost of funds; demand for loan products; demand for financial services; competition; changes in the quality or composition of the Company's loan and investment portfolios; changes in accounting principles; policies or guidelines and other economic, competitive, governmental and technological factors affecting the Company's operations, markets, products, services and fees. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect changed assumptions, the occurrence of unanticipated events or changes to future operating results over time.
