Dear Sirs

We have acted as solicitors in Scotland for Lloyds Banking Group plc (the Company) in connection with the offering by Lloyds TSB Bank plc (the Issuer) of US$2,000,000,000 Floating Rate Senior Notes due 2014 (the Notes) in an underwritten public offering pursuant to an underwriting agreement dated as of 13 January 2011 between the Issuer, the Company and Barclays Capital Inc., Goldman, Sachs & Co. and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, as representatives of the several underwriters listed in Schedule I of the Pricing Agreement annexed thereto. The Notes are guaranteed by the Company (the Guarantee). The Notes are to be issued pursuant to a Senior Debt Securities Indenture dated as of 21 January 2011 (the Indenture) between the Issuer, the Company and The Bank of New York Mellon, acting through its London branch, as trustee.

We, as your solicitors, have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such documents, corporate records, certificates of public officials and other instruments as we have deemed necessary for the purposes of rendering this opinion.

On the basis of the foregoing, we advise you that, in our opinion, the Guarantee has been duly authorized in accordance with the Indenture, and, when the Notes have been (a) executed and authenticated, and the Guarantee executed and endorsed thereon, in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture, and (b) delivered and duly paid for by the purchasers thereof, the Guarantee will constitute valid and binding obligations of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with their respective terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally (including the Banking Act 2009 and any secondary legislation, instruments or orders made, or which may be made, under it) and equitable principles of general applicability.

The foregoing opinion is limited to the laws of Scotland. We have made no investigation of the laws of any jurisdiction other than Scotland and neither express nor imply any opinion as to any other laws and in particular the laws of the laws of the State of New York and the laws of the United States of America and our opinion is subject to such laws including the matters stated in the opinion of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP. The laws of the State of New York are the chosen governing law of the Guarantee, and we have assumed that the Guarantee constitutes valid, binding and enforceable obligations of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, under such laws.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to a report on Form 6-K to be filed by the Company on the date hereof. In giving this consent, we do not admit that we are in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

This opinion is rendered solely to you in connection with the above matter. This opinion may not be relied upon by you for any other purpose or relied upon by or furnished to any other person without our prior written consent.

Yours faithfully

Edgar Filing: Lloyds Banking Group plc - Form 6-K

Based on the documents referred to, and assumptions made, in paragraphs 3 and 4 above and subject to the qualifications in paragraph 7 below and to matters not disclosed to us, we are of the following opinion:

- 6.1 The Issuer is a company incorporated in England under the Companies Acts 1862 and 1985.
- 6.2 The Issuer has the corporate power to enter into and to perform its obligations under the Principal Agreements and the Notes and has taken all necessary corporate action to authorise its execution, delivery and performance of the Principal Agreements and the Notes.
- 6.3 No United Kingdom stamp duty (including that charged on the issue of bearer instruments) or stamp duty reserve tax is payable in connection with the execution and delivery of the Principal Agreements, the Guarantee, or the issue of the Notes. We have not been asked to, and we do not, express (i) any other opinion as to such duties or taxes that will or may arise as a result of any other transaction effected in connection with the Notes or (ii) any opinion as to any other taxation (including Value Added Tax) which will or may arise as a result of any transaction effected in connection with the Notes.
- 6.4 The statements in the section of the Prospectus Supplement entitled “Certain U.K. and U.S. Federal Tax Consequences” (and in the section of the Issuer’s Form 6-K referred to therein), insofar as such statements constitute a general summary of both current United Kingdom tax law and United Kingdom H.M. Revenue & Customs practice relevant to the issue of the Notes, fairly and accurately summarise the matters referred to therein.
- 6.5 There are no consents, approvals, authorisations or orders required by the Issuer or the Guarantor from any governmental or other regulatory agencies in the United Kingdom in connection with the issue and offering of the Notes, the performance by the Issuer of its obligations under the Principal Agreements and the Notes or the performance by the Guarantor of its obligations under the Guarantee.
- 6.6 There are no registration, filing or similar formalities imposed in the United Kingdom upon the Issuer, the Guarantor or the Underwriters in relation to the issue or offering of the Notes or the performance by the Issuer or the Guarantor of their obligations under the Notes and the Guarantee, respectively, provided that no public offer by the Issuer, the Guarantor or the Underwriters (or any person acting on their behalf) is made in the United Kingdom, other than in the circumstances set out in Section 86 of the FSMA.
- 6.7 There will be no contravention of the provisions of Sections 118, 397(2) or 397(3) of the FSMA in respect of stabilisation transactions carried out in respect of the Notes (“Stabilisation Transactions”), or of the insider dealing provisions contained in Part V of the Criminal Justice Act 1993 by virtue of dealing in or encouraging another person to deal in the Notes for the purposes of Stabilisation Transactions provided that anything done for the purpose of Stabilisation Transactions is done in conformity with the price stabilising rules of the FSA and is done during such period before and after the issue of the Notes as is specified by those rules.
- 6.8 In any court proceedings taken in England for the enforcement of the provisions of the Principal Agreements or the Notes the choice of New York law as the governing law thereof will be recognised and upheld.
- 6.9 The submission to the jurisdiction of the New York Courts (as defined below) by the Issuer and appointment of an agent for the service of process contained in the Senior Indenture and the Underwriting Agreement are valid under English law as currently in force and under current practice of the English courts at the date hereof; and a final and conclusive judgment of any state or federal court in the City and State of New York (each a “New York Court” and together the “New York Courts”) in respect of any legal suit, action or proceeding brought to enforce any liability of the Issuer under the Principal Agreements or the Notes (a “United States Judgment”) would be capable of being enforced by fresh proceedings in an English court against the Issuer without the necessity for a re-trial or re-examination of the matters thereby adjudicated unless:

- (i) the English court is not satisfied, in accordance with its own conflict of law principles, that the New York Court had jurisdiction over the Issuer (the English court will normally be so satisfied if the Issuer has freely submitted to the jurisdiction of the New York Court);
 - (ii) the judgment is not for a specific sum of money;
 - (iii) the judgment was not final and conclusive;
 - (iv) the judgment was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation;
- (v) enforcement of the judgment would be contrary to English public policy or if the proceedings in which the judgment was obtained were contrary to natural justice; or
 - (vi) the proceedings were of a revenue or penal nature; and provided that:

- (i) execution of an English judgment based on a judgment of a New York Court may be stayed if the latter judgment is the subject of a pending appeal or the judgment debtor is entitled and intends to appeal against the judgment;
- (ii) in any proceedings to enforce in an English court a foreign judgment (including a United States Judgment) it is open to the defendant to raise any counterclaim that he could have brought if the action had originally been brought in England unless the subject of the counterclaim was in issue and decided in the proceedings before the New York Court; and
- (iii) (a) by virtue of the Protection of Trading Interests Act 1980, a judgment for multiple damages will not be enforceable and (b) under that Act, United Kingdom citizens and corporations and other persons carrying on business in the United Kingdom may recover sums paid under foreign judgments (including a United States Judgment) for multiple damages in excess of the compensation for the loss of the person in whose favour the foreign judgment was given.

6.10 There will have been no contravention of the provisions of Section 21 of the FSMA provided that the contents of any communication within the scope of that section, made or caused to be made in the United Kingdom (or, in the case of a communication originating outside the United Kingdom, capable of having an effect in the United Kingdom) (within the meaning of that Act) were first approved by an authorised person for the purposes of that Act or the communication fell within one of the exceptions contained in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005.

6.11 Neither the execution, delivery and performance by the Issuer of the Principal Agreements, nor the creation or issue of Notes, will of itself (a) result in any violation of the Memorandum or Articles of Association of the Issuer or (b) any violation in any material respect of any applicable mandatory provision of English law or regulation of general application binding on the Issuer.

7 This opinion is subject to the following:

Save as provided in paragraph 6.4, it should be understood that we have not been responsible for investigating or verifying the accuracy of the facts, including statements of foreign law, or the reasonableness of any statements of opinion, contained in the Prospectus, or that no material facts have been omitted from it.

- 7.2 To the extent it relates to United Kingdom stamp duties any undertaking or indemnity given by the Issuer may be void under Section 117 of the Stamp Act 1891.
- 7.3 This opinion is subject to the provisions of the Banking Act 2009 and any secondary legislation, instruments and orders made, or which may be made, under it.
- 7.4 The opinions contained in paragraphs 6.8 and 6.9 above shall not be construed as expressing or implying any opinion as to the enforceability of any provisions of the Notes or the Principal Agreements under English law or as to the availability of any remedy under English law.
- 8 This opinion is addressed to you solely for your benefit in connection with the issue of the Notes. It is not to be transmitted to anyone else nor is it to be relied upon by anyone else or for any other purpose or quoted or referred to in any public document or filed with anyone without our express consent. This opinion may, however, be disclosed by the addressees hereof to the extent required by law, regulation or any governmental or competent regulatory authority or in connection with legal proceedings relating to the issue of the Notes, provided that no such party to whom this opinion is disclosed may rely on this opinion without our express consent.

Yours faithfully
