SUBJECT LINE: Important Communication to All Artio Global Employees

Dear Colleagues,

This morning it was announced that Aberdeen Asset Management PLC (“Aberdeen”), a global asset management firm based in the UK, agreed to acquire Artio Global Investors Inc. (“Artio Global” or “Artio”) for $2.75 in cash per share. While this e-mail is coming to most of you in the middle of the night, I wanted to be the first to inform you of the transaction and provide you with as much information as possible at this time.

With the decline in our assets under management over the last couple of years, we felt that there would be significant benefit in partnering with an organization like Aberdeen, which has vast financial strength and a global footprint of analytical resources. We are confident today that this transaction is in your best interests.

I realize this raises many questions for you as an Artio employee, most importantly, the future of your position. While I wish I had definitive answers for every question, the truth is that there are many decisions that have yet to be finalized. Over the coming weeks, every effort will be made to communicate details as soon as they become available.

Given the similar investment-centric cultures both firms follow, Aberdeen believes that Artio’s High Grade and High Yield strategies will complement its existing capabilities. At the closing of the transaction, it is anticipated that Aberdeen will add Artio’s High Grade (Total Return Bond) and High Yield teams to its core fixed income capabilities. Both these fixed income groups will benefit from the increased resources Aberdeen offers. Richard Pell and Riad Younes will continue to manage our International and Global Equity strategies through the closing of the transaction at which point Aberdeen will take over management responsibilities, subject to client consent. After the transaction closes, it is currently expected that they will not transfer to Aberdeen.

The transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, including US antitrust approval, the consent of a majority of Artio Global’s shareholders and the consent of certain Artio Global mutual fund shareholders. The transaction is currently expected to close by the end of the second quarter or early in the third quarter of 2013. During this time, I ask each of you to continue to exhibit the high level of professionalism that you have consistently demonstrated over the years.

It is important to note that both Artio and Aberdeen are publicly held companies and have strict policies and guidelines regarding communication with the press and investors, and are subject to the rules and regulations of the SEC regarding communications about the merger. Please be mindful of this and refrain from making any comments on the transaction, including on social media platforms.

The attached Q&A has been prepared to provide you with additional information. Over the next several weeks, we will be setting up a number of meetings to discuss the transaction and answer questions as best we can.

As always, thank you for your dedication to the firm.

Regards,
Tony
