ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS.

This Amended Current Report on Form 8-K amends and supercedes in its entirety the Current Report on Form 8-K, filed February 5, 2002 covering the same subject. The amendment corrects an inadvertent omission in the text of Item 5(d).

Edgar Filing: STEEL DYNAMICS INC - Form 8-K/A

On January 28, 2002, we and our subsidiary Iron Dynamics entered into an agreement (the "Settlement Agreement") with the lenders under the Iron Dynamics credit agreement to retire Iron Dynamics debt to these institutions. As of that date, the aggregate outstanding principal balance under that credit agreement was $58,986,841. The material terms of our Settlement Agreement may be summarized as follows:

(a) We agreed to pay the Iron Dynamics lenders the sum of $15 million in cash on February 1, 2002, which we have already done.

(b) We agreed to issue to the Iron Dynamics lenders an aggregate of $22 million of our common stock, in three separate installments on March 1, March 15 and March 29, 2002. We will determine the exact number of shares to be delivered on each of the three issuance dates by dividing $7,333,334 by the closing price of our stock on the Nasdaq National Market on the second business day prior to each of the three issuance dates. We also granted the lenders registration rights with respect to this common stock under a registration rights agreement, which requires us to have in place an effective registration statement covering the shares, as issued, and affords the lenders certain other resale rights.

(c) If we restart the Iron Dynamics facility before January 28, 2007, we agreed to make certain additional payments ("Additional Payments") to the Iron Dynamics lenders, if the operations at the re-started facility generate positive EBITDA (as defined in the Settlement Agreement). Within 30 days after the end of any fiscal year in which the facility generates positive EBITDA, we would pay Additional Payments in an amount equal to 50% of (i) such positive EBITDA, minus (ii) any income tax liability as a result of such positive EBITDA. We will not be required to pay more than $21,986,841 in Additional Payments in the aggregate. If we do not re-start the Iron Dynamics facility before January 28, 2007, our obligation to make these contingent Additional Payments will terminate.

(d) Pursuant to a Guaranty and Suretyship Agreement dated as of January 28, 2002, we guaranteed certain principal payments under the Iron Dynamics credit agreement totaling $9,934,210. Previously, we guaranteed certain other principal payments under the Iron Dynamics credit agreement now totaling $13,217,105. The $15,000,000 cash payment by us on February 1, 2002, however, constituted a direct credit against the earliest due of these payments, and compliance with the payment obligations described in paragraphs (a) and (b) above will fully satisfy all of our obligations under all of these guarantees.

(e) Compliance with the payment obligations described in paragraphs (a) and (b) above will constitute full and final settlement of (i) all of Iron Dynamics' obligations under the Iron Dynamics credit agreement and (ii) all of our obligations under our guarantees of Iron Dynamics' obligations under the Iron Dynamics credit agreement, including the guarantee described in paragraph (d) above, and the Iron Dynamics credit agreement will terminate.

In addition, we entered into an amendment and limited waiver to our existing Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of June 30, 1997 (the "Secured Credit Agreement"), and an amendment and limited waiver to our Unsecured Credit Agreement dated as of May 5, 2000 (the "Unsecured Credit Agreement"), pursuant to which our lenders agreed, among other things, to waive our compliance with the leverage ratio covenant contained in those credit agreements from December 31, 2001 through but not including March 31, 2002, which may be extended through April 30, 2002, upon the satisfaction of certain conditions. Without such waivers, we would have been in default under our Secured Credit Agreement and our Unsecured Credit Agreement. In connection with the amendments and waivers we have agreed to pay an aggregate waiver fee of $2,125,000.

The Settlement Agreement, the Registration Rights Agreement, the Guaranty and Suretyship Agreement, the Fifth Amendment to our (Secured) Credit Agreement and the Third Amendment to our (Unsecured) Credit Agreement are annexed as Exhibits 2.1, 4.1, 10.1b(9), 10.1a(5) and 10.1c(3), respectively, to this amended Form 8-K, and the foregoing description of the terms, conditions, qualifications, rights and obligations described by these agreements is qualified in its entirety by reference to such exhibits.
