PFIZER AND PHARMACIA REPORT PROGRESS IN MERGER
REGULATORY APPROVAL PROCESS

New York, December 5 -- Pfizer Inc and Pharmacia Corporation reported today encouraging progress in continuing discussions with the European Commission's Merger Task Force (MTF) and the U.S. Federal Trade Commission (FTC) on the proposed merger between the two companies.

The companies noted that they have substantially narrowed the remaining open matters with both the MTF and the FTC to a relatively small number of issues.

"Our discussions with U.S. and European regulatory authorities continue to be productive, and we are confident that the transaction will close in the first quarter of 2003," said Hank McKinnell, chairman and chief executive officer of Pfizer.

Pfizer has scheduled a shareholder meeting on December 6 to vote to increase the number of authorized shares and to issue Pfizer common stock in connection with the proposed acquisition. Pharmacia's shareholder meeting will take place on December 9. Both meetings will take place in Wilmington, Delaware.

Pfizer Inc discovers, develops, manufactures, and markets leading prescription medicines for humans and animals and many of the world's best-known consumer brands.

Pharmacia Corporation (NYSE:PHA) is a top-tier global pharmaceutical company whose innovative medicines and other products save lives and enhance health and wellness. Pharmacia's 43,000 people work together with many diverse stakeholders to bring these benefits to people around the world, and to create new health solutions for the future
