Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On December 29, 2008, the Company entered into amendments to compensatory arrangements with its executive officers. The amendments provide for certain changes which the Company believes are required to comply with, or be exempt from, the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended ( Section 409A ), which governs nonqualified deferred compensation arrangements.

Amendments to the employment agreements of Louis J. Cappelli and John C. Millman provide that the payment of severance will be made in a lump sum promptly following a qualifying termination of employment, both prior to and following a change-in-control and in the event of death or disability. In addition, the ability for the executive officers to terminate employment for good reason during the thirteen months following a change-in-control was removed, and the definition of good reason was narrowed. Amendments to the change in control severance agreements of John W. Tietjen, Howard M. Applebaum and another executive officer remove the executive s ability to terminate employment for good reason during the thirteenth month following a change-in-control and narrow the definition of good reason. Amendments to the change in control severance and retention agreements of Eliot S. Robinson and five other executive officers provide that the payment of severance if the executive is terminated during the termination period will be paid in a lump sum and narrow the definition of good reason.

In addition, the Key Executive Incentive Bonus Plan, Stock Incentive Plan, Supplemental Pension Benefit Plan and the agreement dated December 14, 2004 with Mr. Cappelli regarding his split-dollar life insurance were amended to comply with, or be exempt from, Section 409A.

The foregoing summaries of certain provisions of these amendments to the agreements and plans listed below are qualified in their entirety by reference to the amendments and forms of amendment included as exhibits to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and such exhibits are incorporated by reference into this Item 5.02.
