Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) In order primarily to comply with the requirements of Section 409A (Section 409A) of the Internal Revenue Code, U.S. Bancorp (the Company) has made certain amendments to various compensatory plans and agreements and adopted new forms of stock incentive award agreements. Effective as of January 1, 2009, the Company:

amended several Company sponsored non-qualified deferred compensation plans; and amended the Company s 2007 Stock Incentive Plan (the 2007 Incentive Plan).

Effective as of December 31, 2008, the Company:

entered into amendments to restricted stock unit award agreements issued to certain non-employee directors of the Company pursuant to the Company s 2001 Stock Incentive Plan;

entered into amendments to executive severance agreements with certain executive officers of the Company;

entered into an amendment to the Employment Agreement dated May 7, 2001, with Pamela A. Joseph;

adopted new forms of non-qualified stock option agreements, restricted stock award agreements and restricted stock unit award agreements to be issued to executive officers of the Company pursuant to the 2007 Incentive Plan; and adopted a new form of restricted stock award agreement to be issued to non-employee directors of the Company pursuant to the 2007 Incentive Plan.

A brief summary of these amendments and the changes contained in the new forms of agreements listed above is set forth below. Copies of each of the amendments and the new forms of the agreements are attached as exhibits to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and are incorporated herein by reference. The descriptions in this report of the amendments and new forms of agreements are qualified in their entirety by reference to such exhibits.

Amendments to Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plans

In October 2004, the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 amended the Internal Revenue Code to add Section 409A, which imposes significant restrictions on non-qualified deferred compensation. Section 409A generally applies to non-qualified plans that provide for payment of compensation in a taxable year later than the taxable year in which the participant becomes vested in such compensation. Among other things, Section 409A imposed new requirements with respect to the timing of distributions, deferral elections and payment elections.

In order to achieve compliance with Section 409A, the Company has amended the Company s Non-Qualified Executive Retirement Plan, the Company s 2005 Executive Employees Deferred Compensation Plan and the Company s 2005 Outside Directors Deferred Compensation Plan (collectively, the Deferred Compensation Plans). These amendments were generally technical in nature, and the amount of benefits a participant will be entitled to receive under any of the Deferred Compensation Plans will be actuarially equivalent to the amount of such benefits prior to the amendments.

The Deferred Compensation Plans were also amended to update administrative procedures and conform such procedures among the different Deferred Compensation Plans. In addition, the Company s Non-Qualified Retirement Plan was amended to provide benefits to domestic partners in order to comply with state and local law requirements, and to allow for the division of a participant s benefits under a domestic relations order in certain circumstances.

Amendment to 2007 Incentive Plan

In accordance with the final regulations issued under Section 409A, a technical amendment to the 2007 Incentive Plan was made so that the defined term "Specified Employees" incorporates the definition of such term contained in the Company's Specified Employee Policy.

Amendment to Stock Unit Award Agreements for Non-Employee Directors

The Company has entered into amendments to the restricted stock unit award agreements issued to non-employee directors under the Company's 2001 Stock Incentive Plan. The amendments modified the definition of "Change in Control" and made other technical changes to comply with Section 409A requirements.

Amendments to Executive Severance Agreements

The Company entered into amendments to the executive severance agreements with certain of the Company's executive officers, including Richard K. Davis, Andrew Cecere, William L. Chenevich, Pamela A. Joseph and Lee R. Mitau. The amendments changed the definition of "Good Reason" to conform to Section 409A. In addition, the amendments clarified certain provisions of the agreements and made other technical changes to achieve compliance with Section 409A.

Amendment to Employment Agreement

The Company entered into an amendment to the Employment Agreement dated May 7, 2001, with Pamela A. Joseph. In order to achieve compliance with Section 409A, the amendment changed the definitions of "Change in Control" and "Good Reason" and provided for a six-month delay in the date on which termination payments will be made. The amendment also made other technical changes to the Employment Agreement in order to comply with Section 409A and clarify certain provisions of the agreement.

New Forms of Stock Incentive Award Agreements for Executive Officers

The Company adopted a new form of non-qualified stock option agreement to be used for the issuance after December 31, 2008, of non-qualified stock options to executive officers under the 2007 Incentive Plan. The new form of agreement clarifies the definition of "Retirement" and the provisions of the agreement relating to the ability to exercise options following death, disability or retirement of the optionee.

The Company also adopted a new form of restricted stock award agreement to be used for the issuance after December 31, 2008, of restricted stock awards to executive officers under the 2007 Incentive Plan. The new form of agreement provides that the option will become fully vested upon the disability of the awardee, and does not permit continued vesting after the awardee's retirement.

In addition, the Company adopted a new form of restricted stock unit agreement for executive officers that incorporates certain technical rules related to the definition of "Separation from Service" in accordance with Section 409A. The new form of agreement will be used for restricted stock unit awards made after December 31, 2008.

New Form of Restricted Stock Award Agreement for Non-Employee Directors

The Company adopted a new form of restricted stock unit agreement for restricted stock unit awards made after December 31, 2008, to non-employee directors under the 2007 Incentive Plan. The new form of agreement modifies the definition of "Change in Control" and clarifies certain other provisions of the agreement to comply with Section 409A.
