PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS TO BE HELD JUNE 1, 2010

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE PROXY MATERIALS AND THE ANNUAL MEETING

Although we encourage you to read this proxy statement in its entirety, we include this question and answer section to provide some background information and brief answers to several questions you might have about the annual meeting.

Why am I receiving these materials?

The board of directors of Hawthorn Bancshares, Inc. is providing these materials to you in connection with our annual meeting of shareholders on June 1, 2010. The information included in this proxy statement relates to the proposals to be voted on at the annual meeting, the voting process, and certain other required information. This proxy statement, the notice of annual meeting of shareholders and the accompanying proxy card or voting instruction form were first sent to our shareholders on or about April 16, 2010. As a shareholder of our company, you are entitled and encouraged to vote on the items of business described in these proxy materials. Your vote is very important. For this reason, our board is requesting that you allow your shares to be represented at the annual meeting by the persons named as proxies on the enclosed proxy card or voting instruction form.

When and where will the annual meeting be held?

The annual meeting of shareholders will be held on Tuesday, June 1, 2010, commencing at 9:00 a.m., local time, at Hawthorn Bank s facility located at 132 East High Street, Jefferson City, Missouri. You may obtain directions to the location of the annual meeting by calling us at (573) 761-6100. You do not have to attend the annual meeting to be able to vote.

What matters will be voted on at the annual meeting?

Shareholders will consider and vote upon the following business items at the annual meeting:

The election of two Class III directors to hold office for a term expiring at our 2013 annual meeting of shareholders and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified or until their respective earlier resignation or removal;

The ratification and approval of the selection of KPMG LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the current year;

The advisory approval of the compensation of our executives disclosed in this proxy statement; and

Any other matters that may properly come before the annual meeting.

How does our board of directors recommend that I vote?

Our board of directors recommends that you vote:

FOR the election of each nominee for director named in this proxy statement;

Table of Contents

FOR the ratification and approval of KPMG LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm; and

FOR the advisory approval of the compensation of our executives disclosed in this proxy statement.

What shares can I vote?

The only outstanding voting securities of our company are the shares of our common stock, $1.00 par value. Each issued and outstanding share of our common stock as of the close of business on the March 29, 2010 record date for the annual meeting is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at the annual meeting. As of the record date, 4,301,955 shares of our common stock were issued and outstanding.

You may vote all shares of our common stock that you held as of the record date. This includes (i) shares held directly in your name as the shareholder of record, (ii) shares held for you as the beneficial owner through a broker, trustee or other nominee, sometimes referred to as shares held in street name, and (iii) shares held for you in our company benefit plans.

How do I submit my vote?

Generally, you may vote your shares by Internet, by telephone, by completing, signing and returning the proxy card or voting instruction form provided to you, or by attending the annual meeting and voting in person. If you vote by Internet or by telephone, you do not need to return the proxy card. You will need to have your proxy card in hand if you vote by Internet or by telephone. Specific voting instructions are found on the proxy card or voting instruction form provided to you.

Shares held by the shareholder of record. If your shares are registered directly in your name with our transfer agent, you are considered the shareholder of record, and these proxy materials were sent to you directly. As the shareholder of record, you have the right to grant your proxy vote directly or to vote in person at the annual meeting. We have enclosed a proxy card for you to use.

Shares held in street name. If you hold shares in a brokerage account or through some other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in street name, and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by your broker, trustee or other nominee, together with a voting instruction form. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker, trustee or nominee how to vote your shares by following the instructions on the voting instruction form. Although you may attend the annual meeting, you may not vote these shares in person at the meeting unless you obtain a legal proxy from your broker, trustee or nominee. We may require a recent brokerage statement or other proof of ownership for admission to the meeting. You may vote your shares by any of the options listed on the voting instruction form.

Shares held in our company benefit plans. If your shares are held for you in our company benefit plans, you are receiving a voting instruction form from the plan trustee or administrator. To vote these shares, you will need to follow the specific voting instructions appearing on the voting instruction form. We must receive your completed voting instruction form by the deadline specified in such form. You may attend the annual meeting, however, you may not vote these shares in person at the meeting unless you obtain a legal proxy from the plan trustee.

Can I change my proxy vote?

If you are a shareholder of record, you may change your vote or revoke your proxy any time before your vote is used at the annual meeting by:

submitting a valid later-dated proxy;

submitting a valid, subsequent vote by telephone or the Internet;

notifying our corporate secretary in writing that you have revoked your proxy; or completing a written ballot at the annual meeting.

Attendance at the annual meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation of your proxy.

If you hold shares as the beneficial owner in street name, you may change your vote by submitting new voting instructions to your broker, trustee or other nominee or, if you have obtained a legal proxy from your broker, trustee or nominee, by voting in person at the annual meeting.

You may revoke your voting instructions with respect to any shares of common stock you hold in our benefit plans by delivering a valid, later-dated voting instruction form by the deadline specified in the voting instructions furnished by the plan trustee or administrator.

How many votes are needed to conduct business at the annual meeting?

A majority of all outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the annual meeting must be present or represented by proxy in order to satisfy the quorum requirement for the transaction of business at the annual meeting. Both abstentions and broker non-votes (described below under What is the effect of a broker non-vote?) are counted as present for purposes of determining a quorum. If a quorum should not be present, the annual meeting may be adjourned from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

How are votes counted?

If you are a shareholder of record and you give your proxy, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted in accordance with your instructions. However, if you are a shareholder of record and you give your proxy without providing voting instructions on one or more proposals, your proxy will be voted for those unmarked proposals in accordance with the recommendation of our board of directors (which recommendation is identified above under How does our board of directors recommend that I vote?).

If your shares are held in street name through a broker or other nominee, they will be voted in accordance with the voting instructions that you provide. If you do not provide voting instructions, your broker or other nominee is only permitted to vote your shares on proposals that are considered routine under rules of the New York Stock Exchange. It is anticipated that the proposal to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm would be considered to be routine.

If your shares are held in our company benefit plans, they will be voted in accordance with your voting instructions. If the plan trustee or administrator does not receive voting instructions for shares held in our company benefit plans by the deadline specified in the voting instruction form, the shares credited to your account will not be voted.

What vote is required to approve the proposals at the annual meeting?

Election of Directors. Directors are elected by a majority of the votes cast, in person or by proxy, by shareholders entitled to vote at the annual meeting for that purpose. Shareholders can withhold authority to vote for one or more nominees for director. Shares represented at the annual meeting that are not voted for a particular nominee, whether by specifically withholding authority to vote on your proxy card or voting instruction form or otherwise, will have the same effect as a vote against the nominee. Shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

Other Matters. Approval of the proposal to ratify and approve the selection of KPMG LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm, the proposal for advisory approval of the compensation of our executives disclosed in this proxy statement and all other proposals that properly may come before the annual meeting require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the particular proposal. Shareholders may abstain from voting on any proposal at the meeting. If you abstain from voting on any proposal, it has the same effect as a vote against the proposal.

What is the effect of a broker non-vote?

A broker non-vote occurs when a broker or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the broker or other nominee does not have discretionary voting power with respect to that item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner. Broker non-votes are counted as present or represented for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the annual meeting, if such shares are otherwise properly represented at the meeting in person or by proxy. Broker non-votes are not counted for purposes of determining the number of shares entitled to vote on any proposal for which the broker or other nominee lacks discretionary authority, and therefore may reduce the number of affirmative votes that are necessary to approve that proposal.

Are there any other matters that will be considered at the annual meeting?

The only items of business that may be properly brought before the annual meeting are the matters set forth in this proxy statement or those brought before the meeting by or at the direction of our board of directors. We are not aware of any business to be acted upon at the annual meeting other than the items described in this proxy statement. Your signed proxy, however, will entitle the persons named as proxy holders to vote in their discretion for any other matter that is properly presented at the meeting.

Who pays the cost of soliciting votes at the annual meeting?

This proxy solicitation is being made by our board of directors. All costs of this solicitation will be borne by our company. In addition to the use of the mails, proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone by some of the regular employees of our company and of our subsidiary bank, at no additional compensation. Our company may reimburse brokers, banks and other persons holding stock in their names, or in the names of nominees, for their expenses incurred in sending proxy materials to their principals and obtaining their proxies. Our company requests that brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries forward the soliciting materials to the beneficial owners of the shares of common stock held of record by such persons. If you choose to access proxy materials or vote by Internet, you are responsible for any Internet access charges you may incur.

Where can I find the voting results of the annual meeting?

We will announce preliminary voting results at the annual meeting and publish those results in a report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission or SEC within four business days after the day on which the annual meeting ends. If the voting results included in such Form 8-K are not final, we will publish the final results in an amended report on Form 8-K within four business days after the final voting results are known.

What should I do if I receive more than one set of proxy materials?

Each shareholder at a given address will receive a separate proxy card or voting instruction form. You may receive multiple sets of proxy materials if you hold shares in more than one brokerage account or if you are a shareholder of record and have shares registered in more than one name. Please vote the shares on each proxy card or voting instruction form you receive.

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries (including brokers) to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements, annual reports and notices of internet availability of proxy materials with respect to two or more shareholders sharing the same address by delivering a single package of these materials addressed to those shareholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as householding, potentially means extra convenience for shareholders and cost savings for companies.

We have adopted a householding procedure that you may wish to follow. If you are receiving multiple sets of proxy materials and wish to have your accounts householded, contact our corporate secretary, Kathleen L. Bruegenhemke, at (573) 761-6179, or send written instructions to our corporate secretary at Hawthorn Bancshares, Inc., 132 East High Street, Jefferson City, MO 65101. If you no longer wish to participate in householding (and instead wish that each shareholder sharing the same address with you receives a complete set of proxy materials), you must contact our corporate secretary at the above telephone number or address to withhold your consent for householding. We will act in accordance with your wishes within 30 days after receiving such notification.

Many brokerage firms participate in householding as well. If you have a householding request for your brokerage account, please contact your broker.

Where may I obtain financial and other information about Hawthorn?

We filed our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 with the SEC on March 15, 2010. Our annual report to shareholders, containing our audited financial statements for 2009, accompanies this proxy statement. This proxy statement, our annual report to shareholders, our Form 10-K, and our other proxy materials are available at www.hawthornbancshares.com. Information on any website that we refer to does not constitute part of this proxy statement.

MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE ANNUAL MEETINGITEM 1: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS*What am I voting on?

One of the purposes of this annual meeting is to elect two directors in Class III to serve for a three-year term expiring at the annual meeting of shareholders in 2013 and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified or until their respective earlier resignation or removal.

What is the structure of our board and how often are directors elected?

Our board of directors consists of six directors. Our articles of incorporation divides the board into three classes of directors, with directors serving staggered terms of three years and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified or until their respective earlier resignation or removal. The present terms of Kevin L. Riley and David T. Turner, the two directors in Class III, expire at this annual meeting. Directors in Class I (Philip D. Freeman and James E. Smith) and Class II (Charles G. Dudenhoeffer, Jr. and Gus S. Wetzel, II) have terms expiring at the time of the annual meeting of shareholders in 2011 and 2012, respectively. Our board of directors has determined that Messrs. Dudenhoeffer, Freeman, Riley and Wetzel each satisfies the independence requirements of the NASDAQ Global Select Market or NASDAQ.

Who are this year's nominees?

The nominating and corporate governance committee of our board of directors has designated Kevin L. Riley and David T. Turner as the two nominees proposed for election at the annual meeting. Each of these nominees currently serves on our board. Unless authority to vote for the nominees or a particular nominee is withheld, it is intended that the shares represented by properly executed proxies in the form enclosed will be voted for the election as directors of Messrs. Riley and Turner. The following table sets forth certain information with respect to each person nominated for election as a Class III director at the annual meeting and each director whose term of office will continue after the annual meeting.

	Name	Age	Position With our Company	Director Since
NOMINEES
Class III: Term to expire in 2013
	Kevin L. Riley	54	Director	1995
	David T. Turner	53	President and Director	1997

Table of Contents

Name	Age	Position With our Company	Director Since
DIRECTORS CONTINUING IN OFFICE
Class I: Term to expire in 2011
Philip D. Freeman	56	Director	1993
James E. Smith	65	Chairman, CEO and Director	1997
Class II: Term to expire in 2012
Charles G. Dudenhoeffer, Jr.	70	Director	1993
Gus S. Wetzel, II	69	Director	1999

There is no arrangement or understanding between any director and any other person pursuant to which such director was selected as a director.

What is the business experience of the nominees and of our continuing board members and the basis for the conclusion that each such person should serve on our board?

Described below is the business experience for at least the last five years of each person nominated for election as a director at the annual meeting and each director whose term of office will continue after the annual meeting, as well as the specific experience, qualifications, attributes and skills of each such person that led to the conclusion that such person should serve on our board.

Charles G. Dudenhoeffer, Jr. has served as a director of Hawthorn Bank (or one of its constituent predecessors) since 1978 and of our company since 1993. Mr. Dudenhoeffer served as vice president and trust officer of a predecessor to Hawthorn Bank from 1974 until June 1992, and as senior vice president and trust officer of that predecessor from June 1992 until June 2000. He served as senior vice president of our company from 1993 through June 2000. Mr. Dudenhoeffer also serves on our nominating and corporate governance, audit and compensation committees. Mr. Dudenhoeffer's experience in the banking industry, his familiarity with Hawthorn Bank and many of its customers resulting from his decades of service, and his accounting training and experience led to the conclusion that he should serve on our board. His long tenure in our executive and board leadership helps to link our board to the mission and values that have served our company so well over the years.

Philip D. Freeman has served as a director of Hawthorn Bank (or one of its constituent predecessors) since 1990 and of our company since 1993. He has been the owner/manager of Freeman Mortuary, Jefferson City, Missouri since 1974. Mr. Freeman also serves on our nominating and corporate governance, audit and compensation committees. The conclusion that Mr. Freeman should serve on our board is founded on his over 35 years of experience in managing a successful business with compassion, which experience has given him an appreciation for the needs of people in our market and earned him the respect of many in the Jefferson City business community. His leadership on various committees of the board has been accompanied by his development of a high level of competency and expertise in areas of focus for our board, including executive compensation, financial reporting and investor relations.

Kevin L. Riley has served as a director of Hawthorn Bank (or one of its constituent predecessors) and of our company since 1995. He has been co-owner of Riley Chevrolet, Toyota, Scion, Inc. and Riley Oldsmobile, Cadillac, Inc., each a Jefferson City, Missouri automobile dealership, since 1986 and 1992, respectively. Mr. Riley also serves on our nominating and corporate governance, audit and compensation committees. Mr. Riley's years of experience in managing a successful automobile dealership (for which customer financing is an important part) and in regularly coming in contact with people in our market are of value to our company and led to the conclusion that he should serve on our board. Board discussions and decisions benefit from his knowledge of customer relationship management.

James E. Smith has served as a director of Hawthorn Bank (or of its constituent predecessors) since 1975 and of our company since 1997. He served as vice chairman of our company from 1998 through March 2002 when he assumed the responsibilities of chairman and chief executive officer, as president and secretary of Hawthorn Bank from 1975 through May 2000 when he was promoted to chairman and chief executive officer, as president of a predecessor to Hawthorn Bank from January 2000 through October 2002, and as vice chairman of another predecessor to Hawthorn Bank from October 2002 through March 2007. Mr. Smith's leadership and experience in the banking industry and tireless determination in promoting the interests of Hawthorn Bank led to the conclusion that he should serve on our board. This conclusion is further supported by his years of service as our chief executive officer, which have provided the board with information gained from hands-on management of our operations including the identification of our near-term and long-term challenges and opportunities.

David T. Turner has served as a director of Hawthorn Bank (or of its constituent predecessors) and of our company since January 1997. Mr. Turner served as vice chairman of our company from June 1998 through March 2002 when he assumed the position of president. From 1993 until June 1998, he served as senior vice president of our company. Mr. Turner served as president of a predecessor to Hawthorn Bank from January 1997 through March 2002 when he assumed the position of chairman, chief executive officer and president. He served as senior vice president of that same predecessor from June 1992 through December 1996 and as its vice president from 1985 until June 1992. The conclusion that Mr. Turner should serve on our board is founded on his experience in the banking industry and familiarity with Hawthorn Bank and many of its customers. He brings valuable insights gained from his career at Hawthorn Bank in developing and promoting lasting customer relationships, sound ethical practices and a dedicated, service-oriented staff.

Gus S. Wetzel, II has served as a director of Hawthorn Bank (or one of its constituent predecessors) since 1974, and of our company since 1999. He served as chairman of Hawthorn Bank from 1974 until May 2000. Dr. Wetzel has served as a physician/surgeon with the Wetzel Clinic, Clinton, Missouri since 1972. He also serves on our nominating and corporate governance, audit and compensation committees. Dr. Wetzel's operation of a successful health care practice has given him an appreciation for the needs of others and earned him the trust of many in the Clinton area. These factors and his familiarity with Hawthorn Bank and many of its customers led to the conclusion that he should serve on our board.

What if a nominee is unwilling or unable to serve?

Each of the nominees listed in this proxy statement has indicated his willingness to serve as a director if elected, and the board of directors has no reason to believe that any nominee will be unavailable for election. If, for some unforeseen reason, a nominee becomes unwilling or unable to serve, it is intended that shares represented by the proxies will be voted for the election of such substitute nominee as may be designated by our nominating and corporate governance committee, unless the authority to vote for all nominees or for the particular nominee who has ceased to be a candidate has been withheld.

How does our board of directors recommend that I vote?

Our board of directors recommends that you vote FOR the election of Kevin L. Riley and David T. Turner as Class III directors.

ITEM 2: SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

What am I voting on?

Shareholders are being asked to ratify and approve the selection of KPMG LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2010. The selection of KPMG LLP was made by the audit committee of our board of directors. KPMG LLP has served as our independent auditors since 1993. In connection with the audit of our 2010 financial statements, our company entered into an engagement agreement with KPMG LLP which sets forth the terms by which KPMG LLP will perform audit services for our company. That agreement may be subject to alternative dispute resolution procedures. The ratification and approval by shareholders of the selection of KPMG LLP effectively would also be a ratification of that agreement.

What services do the independent registered public accountants provide?

Audit services provided by KPMG LLP for 2009 included the examination of the consolidated financial statements of our company and services related to our periodic filings with the SEC. Audit services also included an assessment of our company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009 for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of our company's internal control over financial reporting. The services provided by KPMG LLP are more fully described in this proxy statement under the captions "Audit Committee Report and Independent Auditor Fees and Services."

Will a representative of KPMG LLP be present at the meeting?

One or more representatives of KPMG LLP are expected to be present at the annual meeting. Any such representative will have an opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires to do so and is expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions from shareholders.

What if this proposal is not approved?

Shareholder ratification and approval of the audit committee's selection of KPMG LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm is not required by any statute or regulation or by our bylaws. Nevertheless, if the shareholders do not ratify and approve the selection of KPMG LLP at the annual meeting, the audit committee will reconsider the appointment. Submission of our selection of KPMG LLP to the shareholders for ratification and approval will not limit the authority of the audit committee to appoint another independent certified public accounting firm to serve as independent auditors if the present auditors resign or their engagement otherwise is terminated.

How does our board of directors recommend that I vote?

Our board of directors recommends that you vote FOR approval of the selection of KPMG LLP.

ITEM 3: NON-BINDING ADVISORY VOTE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

What am I voting on?

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009, enacted in February 2009, requires all participants in the Troubled Asset Relief Program or "TARP" to permit a non-binding shareholder vote to approve the compensation of the participant's executives, as disclosed pursuant to the compensation disclosure rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. As a result of our participation in TARP, shareholders are being given the opportunity to cast an advisory vote on the compensation of our company's executives at the annual meeting.

This proposal, commonly known as a "say-on-pay" proposal, gives you as a shareholder the opportunity to endorse or not endorse our executive pay program and policies through the following resolution:

Resolved, that the shareholders approve the compensation paid to our company's executives pursuant to the policies and procedures employed by our company, as described in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis and tabular and accompanying narrative disclosure regarding named executive officer compensation in the proxy statement for the 2010 annual meeting of shareholders.

Because your vote is advisory, it will not be binding upon our board of directors. However, our compensation committee may take into account the outcome of the vote when considering future executive compensation arrangements.

How does our board of directors recommend that I vote?

Our board of directors recommends that you vote FOR approval of the above resolution concerning the compensation paid to our company's executives.

Table of ContentsCORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND BOARD MATTERS*Board Leadership Structure

Our company is led by James E. Smith, who has served as chief executive officer and chairman of the board of directors since March 2002. Our board of directors is comprised of Mr. Smith and five other directors, including four directors who satisfy NASDAQ's independence requirements. Our corporate governance guidelines provide that our independent directors will meet regularly in executive session. Our company does not have a member of our board who is formally identified as the lead independent director. However, Philip D. Freeman fulfills the function of a lead independent director through his service as chairman of each of our board's three standing committees—the audit committee, the compensation committee, and the nominating and corporate governance committee. Each of the board committees is comprised solely of our four independent directors. In meetings of the three board committees, as well as separate meetings in executive session, our four independent directors are led by Mr. Freeman.

Our board leadership structure has been effective for our company. We believe that having a combined chief executive officer and chairman of the board and an independent chair for each of our board committees currently provides the right form of leadership for our company. A combined chairman and chief executive officer role allows for more productive meetings. The chief executive officer is the individual selected by the board of directors to manage our company on a day to day basis, and his direct involvement in our business operations makes him best positioned to lead productive board strategic planning sessions and determine the time allocated to each agenda item in discussions of our company's short- and long-term objectives. In addition to the leadership provided by our chairman and chief executive officer, we have oversight of company operations by experienced independent directors who are led by a single independent director.

Risk Oversight

Although it is management's job to assess and manage our company's exposure to risk, our board of directors oversees our company's risk management and establishes policies that govern the process. Our board strives to ensure that risk management is incorporated into our company's culture, and to foster risk-aware and risk-adjusted decision-making throughout the organization. Our board also establishes standards for risk management by approving policies and directives that address and mitigate our company's most material risks. These include policies and directives addressing credit risk, interest rate risk, capital risk, and liquidity risk, as well as regulatory compliance. Our risk management processes are designed to bring to our board's attention our most material risks through various reports presented by management, including our chief risk officer, internal and external auditors, and regulatory examiners, and to enable our board to understand the risks and how they are addressed.

In overseeing our company's risk management, our board conducts much of its risk oversight activities through our audit committee, which works closely with our chief risk officer. Our audit committee meets at least six times each year with our chief risk officer and other members of management and receives a comprehensive report on enterprise risk management, including management's assessment of risk exposures (including risks related to liquidity, credit, operations and regulatory compliance, among others), and the processes in place to monitor and control such exposures. From time to time our audit committee also receives updates between meetings from our chief risk officer, our chief executive officer, our chief financial officer and other members of management relating to risk oversight matters. Our audit committee reports to the full board of directors after each meeting of the committee. Beginning in 2010 our chief risk officer also will make a presentation on enterprise risk management to the full board at least once each year.

In addition to our audit committee, our board relies on our compensation committee for risk oversight activities within its area of responsibility. Our compensation committee most closely monitors the risks to which our compensation policies and practices could subject us. In performing these functions, the committee considers input from our chief risk officer and other members of management. In 2009, the committee reviewed our compensation programs and determined that they do not subject our company to unnecessary or excessive risk or motivate staff members to manipulate our earnings and therefore are not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on our company.

Communication with the Board

Our board of directors has not established a formal process for shareholders to follow in sending communications to our board or its members, as our policy has been to forward to the directors any shareholder correspondence we receive that is addressed to them. Shareholders who wish to communicate with our board or any of our directors may do so. Such communications must be addressed to our board or any such director in care of our corporate secretary at Hawthorn Bancshares, Inc., 132 East High Street, Jefferson City, MO 65101. Alternatively, such communications may be sent by e-mail to kbruegenhemke@hawthornbank.com. All such communications will be compiled by our corporate secretary and submitted to our board or the individual director, as applicable, on a periodic basis.

Neither our board of directors nor a specific director is required to respond to a shareholder communication. To avoid selective disclosure, our board or the individual director may respond to a shareholder's communication only if the communication involves information which is not material or which is already public. In such case, our board of directors, as a whole, or the individual director may respond, if at all:

Directly, following consultation with our corporate secretary or other advisors or without additional consultation, as our board determines appropriate;

Indirectly through our corporate secretary or other designated officer, following consultation with our corporate secretary or other advisors or without additional consultation, as our board determines appropriate;
or

Pursuant to such other means as our board determines appropriate from time to time.

If the communication involves material non-public information, our board of directors or the individual director will not provide a response to the shareholder concerning such information. Our company may, however, publicly provide information responsive to such communication if (following consultation with our advisors, as our board determines appropriate) our board determines disclosure is appropriate. In that case, the responsive information will be provided in compliance with SEC Regulation FD and other applicable laws and regulations.

Consideration of Director Nominees

In identifying and evaluating director nominees, the nominating and corporate governance committee of our board of directors may receive recommendations from management, from other directors and from shareholders. The committee reviews and considers information on each candidate and evaluates it in light of the needs and requirements of our company. The committee believes that our board and its committees should be comprised of persons who are of high character and integrity, who have a personal and professional reputation that is consistent with the image and reputation of our company, and who have expertise that may be useful to our company. The committee also considers various factors, including the independence of the candidate, as well as his or her education or special skills, areas of expertise, experience, business associations, reputation and other characteristics and qualities that the committee believes are likely to enhance the effectiveness of our board and its committees. Although the committee may consider diversity of age, gender, race, background, perspective and experience in identifying director nominees, it did not do so with respect to the selection of the nominees for this annual meeting. In determining whether a director should be retained and stand for re-election, the committee also considers the director's past attendance at meetings and participation in and contributions to the activities of our board and each committee on which such director serves. The committee does not assign specific weights to particular factors and no particular factor is necessarily applicable to all prospective nominees. No person will be eligible to stand for election as a director if he or she has been convicted of a felony without right of further appeal. In addition, no person may serve as a director after the end of the term in which his or her 75th birthday occurred, nor may any person be eligible to stand for election as a director after his or her 75th birthday.

Shareholders who wish the nominating and corporate governance committee to consider their recommendations for nominees for the position of director should submit their recommendations in writing to the nominating and corporate governance committee in care of our corporate secretary at Hawthorn Bancshares, Inc., 132 East High Street, Jefferson City, MO 65101. All nominees, including those submitted by shareholders in accordance with these procedures, will be evaluated using generally the same methods and criteria described above, although those methods and criteria are not standardized and may vary from time to time. Shareholders also may submit director nominations to our company in accordance with the procedures described below under Shareholder Proposals.

Committees of the Board

Our board of directors has established an audit committee, a compensation committee and a nominating and corporate governance committee. There currently are no other committees of our board of directors. Members of the committees serve at the pleasure of our board of directors.

Audit Committee. The audit committee of our board of directors currently is comprised of Mr. Freeman, its chairman, and Messrs. Dudenhoeffer, Riley and Wetzel. Our board of directors has determined that each member of the audit committee is independent as defined by NASDAQ's independence standards. In addition, our board of directors has determined that Charles G. Dudenhoeffer, Jr. meets the SEC's definition of an audit committee financial expert. The audit committee assists our board in fulfilling its responsibilities with respect to accounting and financial reporting practices and the scope and expense of audit and related services provided by external auditors, among others. The audit committee is responsible for apprising our board of management's compliance with board mandated policies, internal procedures and applicable laws and regulations. The committee works with the internal audit department and external auditors and supervises the internal audit function directly, reviews and approves the hiring of audit personnel and evaluates the performance of the internal audit function and the external auditors. The committee also has the duty to make, or cause to be made, a suitable examination and audit of the financial affairs of our company and its subsidiaries at least annually, and to report its findings to our board of directors. A more complete description of the audit committee's functions is provided in its charter, a copy of which is available on our internet website (www.hawthornbancshares.com) under Governance Documents. The audit committee met 7 times during 2009.

Compensation Committee. The compensation committee of our board of directors currently is comprised of Mr. Freeman, its chairman, and Messrs. Dudenhoeffer, Riley and Wetzel. Our board of directors has determined that each member of the compensation committee is independent as defined by NASDAQ's independence standards. The committee is responsible for reviewing and making recommendations to our board of directors regarding the compensation and benefits of our executive officers and directors and for establishing and administering our executive compensation program. The responsibilities of the compensation committee also include the construction, interpretation and administration of our incentive stock option plan and our 2007 omnibus incentive plan, and the exercise of exclusive authority over the grant of options and other awards under those plans. Our chief executive officer assists the committee from time to time on a variety of compensation matters, including making recommendations for the appropriate salaries and bonuses of our executive officers (other than our chief executive officer). The committee has the authority to consult with management and to engage the services of outside advisors, experts and others to assist it in its efforts. A more complete description of the committee's functions is provided in its charter, a copy of which is available on our internet website (www.hawthornbancshares.com) under Governance Documents. The compensation committee met 3 times during 2009.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The members of our nominating and corporate governance committee currently are Mr. Freeman, its chairman, and Messrs. Dudenhoeffer, Riley and Wetzel, each of whom is independent, as defined by NASDAQ's independence standards. This committee is responsible for the director nomination process, including evaluating and recommending director nominees and committee appointments. It also is responsible for various other governance related matters, including an annual board assessment. A more complete description of the committee's functions is provided in its charter, a copy of which is available on our internet website (www.hawthornbancshares.com) under Governance Documents. The nominating and corporate governance committee met 1 time during 2009.

Meetings of the Board

During 2009 our board of directors held 9 meetings. Each director attended at least 75% of the total meetings of our board of directors and of the committees of our board on which he served during that year. Our directors discharge their responsibilities throughout the year, not only at such board of directors and committee meetings, but through personal meetings and other communications with members of management and others regarding matters of interest and concern to our company.

Directors are encouraged by our company to attend our annual meeting of shareholders if their schedules permit, but our company does not otherwise have a policy regarding such attendance. All directors were present at the annual meeting of the shareholders held in June 2009. The board of directors typically meets immediately following the annual meeting of shareholders, which facilitates the directors' attendance at the annual meeting of shareholders.

Code of Ethics

Our board of directors has adopted a code of business conduct and ethics applicable to all employees, officers and directors. A copy of the code of business conduct and ethics is available to any shareholder who requests it by writing to our corporate secretary at Hawthorn Bancshares, Inc., 132 East High Street, Jefferson City, MO 65101. It also is available on our internet website (www.hawthornbancshares.com) under Governance Documents. Any substantive amendment to, or waiver from, a provision of this code that applies to our principal executive officer or principal financial officer will be disclosed on our internet website and, if required by rules of the SEC or NASDAQ, in reports we file with the SEC.

Director Compensation

Only outside (non-employee) members of our board of directors receive compensation for their service to our company as a director. Each of these outside (non-employee) directors receive a monthly retainer of $1,500 and $500 for each board and committee meeting attended, respectively.

All directors of our company are also directors of Hawthorn Bank, and in that capacity may receive compensation from Hawthorn Bank. For their service to Hawthorn Bank as a director, each of Hawthorn Bank's outside (non-employee) directors is paid $500 for each meeting of the board attended.

Compensation earned in 2009 by our directors (other than those who are named executive officers in the summary compensation table under Executive Compensation and Related Matters) for service on the board and its committees is presented in the table below.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Members of our compensation committee are Mr. Freeman, its chairman, Mr. Dudenhoeffer, Jr., Mr. Riley and Dr. Wetzel. As discussed below under Executive Compensation and Related Matters Compensation Discussion and Analysis, in 2009 Mr. Smith, our chief executive officer, administered the executive compensation program with respect to non-equity compensation insofar as it pertained to executive officers other than the chief executive officer and president. All decisions relating to the compensation of executive officers are reviewed by, and subject to the approval of, our compensation committee. Among the members of our bank's board of directors, Mr. Smith and Mr. Turner are officers and employees of our company and its subsidiary bank.

None of the members of our compensation committee was an officer or employee of our company or any of its subsidiaries during 2009. Messrs. Dudenhoeffer, Freeman, Riley and Wetzel, and certain corporations and firms in which such persons have interests, have obtained loans from our affiliate bank. Each of such loans are believed to have been made to such persons, corporations or firms (i) in the ordinary course of business, (ii) on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable loans with persons not related to our company or any of its subsidiaries, and (iii) without involving more than the normal risk of collectibility or presenting other unfavorable features.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION AND RELATED MATTERS

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

This compensation discussion and analysis describes the material elements of compensation of our chief executive officer, our principal financial officer and our two other executive officers for 2009, collectively referred to as our named executive officers. It also provides information on our compensation philosophy and our compensation policies and programs designed to achieve our compensation objectives. In each case, this compensation discussion and analysis describes the compensation program that would apply to our senior executives absent the restrictions described below under the caption TARP Executive Benefit Plan Limitations. This discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the Summary Compensation Table, its accompanying footnotes and the additional tabular and narrative disclosure that follows the Summary Compensation Table.

Overview of Compensation Program.

The compensation committee of our board of directors has overall responsibility for the establishment, direction and administration of all aspects of the compensation policies and programs for the executive officers of our company and its subsidiary bank. The committee seeks to ensure that the total compensation paid to the executive officers, taking into account any compensation received from our subsidiary bank, is fair, reasonable and competitive. Our compensation program is reviewed annually to ensure that compensation levels and incentive opportunities are competitive and reflect the performance of our company and its subsidiary bank as well as performance of the individual executive officer. In this regard, from time to time our company may retain the services of human resources and executive compensation consulting firms to review and make recommendations concerning our executive compensation program, although this was not done for 2009.

Compensation Program Objectives.

The three basic goals or objectives of our executive compensation program are:

to attract and retain qualified individuals who provide the skills and leadership necessary to enable our company and its subsidiary bank to achieve earnings growth, capital compliance and return on investment objectives, while maintaining a commitment to equal employment opportunity and affirmative action guidelines and practices;

to create incentives to achieve company and individual performance objectives through the use of performance-based compensation programs; and to create a mutuality of interest between executive officers and shareholders through compensation structures that create a direct link between executive compensation and shareholder return.

Table of Contents

In determining the structure and levels of each of the components of executive compensation needed to achieve these objectives, all elements of the compensation package are considered in total, rather than any one component in isolation. As more fully described below, the determination of such levels of executive compensation is a subjective process in which many factors are considered, including our company's and/or affiliate bank's performance and the individual executive's specific responsibilities, historical and anticipated personal contribution to our business, and length of service with our company or affiliate bank.

Role of Executive Officers in Compensation Decisions.

Our executive compensation program, insofar as it pertains to our chief executive officer and president, is administered solely by the compensation committee of our board of directors. Our executive compensation program, insofar as it pertains to executive officers other than our chief executive officer and president, is administered by our chief executive officer and president with respect to non-equity compensation and by the compensation committee with respect to equity compensation. In approving equity compensation awards to our executive officers other than our chief executive officer, the compensation committee gives some deference to the recommendations of our chief executive officer. Mr. James Smith, our chief executive officer, and certain other executive officers of our company and affiliate bank, may attend meetings of the committee, but are not present during discussions or deliberations regarding their own compensation.

Compensation Components.

Historically, the principal components of compensation for our executive officers have been:

Base salary:	Designed to compensate employees competitively relative to the market;
Performance-based incentive compensation:	Designed to reward short-term performance, particularly the achievement of annual performance objectives;
Long-term equity incentive compensation:	Designed to encourage creation of long-term shareholder value and reward long-term performance; and
Retirement and other benefits:	Designed to provide competitive benefits.

It is our view that these compensation components collectively promote the achievement of our compensation program objectives identified above by advancing both the short- and long-term interests of our shareholders. Among other things, the long-term interests of our shareholders are advanced by designating a portion of executive compensation to be at risk: namely, incentive compensation (which permits individual performance to be recognized on an annual and long-term basis based, in part, on an evaluation of the executive's contribution to our company's and/or affiliate bank's performance) and the grant of stock options and other long-term equity incentive compensation (which directly ties a portion of the executive's long-term remuneration to stock price appreciation realized by shareholders). Not all components of the compensation program are currently available due to limitations described below under the caption "TARP Executive Benefit Plan Limitations." Each of the components of the compensation program is addressed separately below.

Base Salary. Our company provides our named executive officers and other employees with base salary to compensate them for services rendered during the year. We view base salary as a key element of our employee attraction and retention objective. Base salary ranges for executive officers are determined for each executive based on his or her position and responsibility and on management's recommendations and subjective assessments of each executive's growth and effectiveness in the performance of his or her duties. In this regard, there is a subjective analysis of the role played by each individual executive in generating our company's and/or bank's performance, including a consideration of the executive's specific responsibilities, contributions to our company's and/or bank's business, and length of service. The factors impacting base salary levels are not independently assigned specific weights. We believe that base salary levels must bear a reasonable relationship to those that we perceive to exist in our market for executive talent in order to protect our ability to retain our executives and attract new executives when necessary. Base salary levels typically are considered annually as part of our company's performance review process as well as upon a promotion or other change in job responsibility. During its review of base salaries for executives, the committee primarily considers:

internal review of the executive's compensation, both individually and relative to other officers;

a subjective assessment of the individual performance of the executive; and market data, to the extent available, that places the executive's compensation in context to that provided to similarly situated executives of other employers; however, we do not set base salary levels at a targeted percentile relative to compensation data for a particular peer, competitor or industry group. Our most recent external analysis was performed in 2005 by the Hay Group in which the Hay Group's general market and executive banking data bases were selected for peer comparison purposes.

From its review of base salaries for executives, the committee increased the base salaries of our named executive officers in 2009 as follows: Mr. Smith 0%; Mr. Turner 0%; Mr. Rose 4%; and Ms. Bruegenhemke 0%. The base salaries were determined subjectively by the committee after considering cost of living adjustments and each employee's perceived merit performance.

Incentive Compensation. In 1997 the committee recommended, and the full board of directors approved, the adoption of an incentive bonus program. This program has been an important part of our compensation program in that it provides incentives to achieve company and individual performance objectives. Under this program, our company's and affiliate bank's officers are eligible to receive annual incentive bonus awards. The officers participating in the program are identified by our chief executive officer, our president and our compensation committee. Performance objectives are established for each of these officers.

The performance objectives for participants may include corporate performance objectives, functional or operating unit performance objectives and personal targeted objectives for performance. In the case of our chief executive officer and other senior officers, the performance objectives for 2009 were focused primarily on the achievement of budgetary, credit quality and operational objectives, while those for the junior officers of our affiliate bank primarily concern their functional or operating unit performance and the achievement of personal performance objectives. The performance objectives are not independently assigned specific weightings, but instead are subjectively considered based upon their perceived relative importance to each individual officer's job category and responsibilities.

Each officer who is eligible to receive bonus awards is assigned to one of four bonus tiers, which assignment is made primarily according to job category. Tier one consists of our chief executive officer, Mr. Smith and our president, Mr. Turner. Tier two generally consists of our affiliate bank's regional presidents. Tier three consists of senior officers of our company and of our affiliate bank, including Mr. Rose and Ms. Bruegenhemke. Tier four consists of junior officers of our affiliate bank. Threshold, target and maximum award levels are established for each tier and are expressed as a percentage of base salary for the officers in the applicable tier. Target awards are established at levels that, when combined with base salary, will achieve the perceived market level of annual compensation for performance that exceeds expectations. Threshold awards are established at 50% of the targeted award opportunity and, when combined with base salary, are intended to provide the perceived market level of annual compensation for performance that is at expectations. No awards are paid if the threshold level is not achieved. The maximum awards are established at 150% of the targeted award opportunity to reward exceptional performance. The following table presents the threshold, target and maximum award levels (expressed as a percentage of base salary) for each tier of our incentive bonus program.

Tier	Threshold	Target	Maximum
Tier 1	15%	30%	45%
Tier 2	10%	20%	30%
Tier 3	6%	12%	18%
Tier 4	5%	10%	15%

Bonus awards are allocated among the participants after considering the individual participant's performance, responsibilities and contributions to our company and/or affiliate bank, and subjectively analyzing the basis of their aggregate impact on the success of our company and/or affiliate bank for the preceding year. The incentive bonus awards earned by each of our named executive officers for each of the last three years appear in the Summary Compensation Table below in the Non-Equity Incentive Plan Compensation column.

As described below under the caption TARP Executive Benefit Plan Limitations, we currently are prohibited from paying or accruing any bonus or incentive compensation to our five most highly compensated employees.

Equity Incentive Compensation. In order to enhance long-term shareholder value, our company seeks to provide incentives that motivate our executives to look beyond our company's short-term results. In February 2000, our board of directors adopted, and our shareholders subsequently approved, a stock option plan. An important objective of stock option grants is to advance the longer term interests of our company and its shareholders and complement incentives tied to annual performance by rewarding executives upon the creation of incremental shareholder value.

In February 2007, our board of directors adopted, and our shareholders subsequently approved, our 2007 omnibus incentive plan. This plan is available to provide additional long-term incentives to executive officers and other employees, as well as non-employee directors, through grants of stock options, restricted stock awards, restricted stock units, performance share awards, as well as awards such as stock appreciation rights, performance units, performance shares, bonus share and dividend share awards payable in the form of common stock or cash. Like our stock option plan grants, awards under our 2007 omnibus incentive plan would serve to advance the longer term interests of our company and its shareholders by rewarding executives upon the creation of incremental shareholder value.
