PRESS RELEASE

Amsterdam, 8 December 2010

ING sells its stake in Fubon Financial Holding

ING announced today that it has sold its 5% stake in Fubon Financial Holding to institutional investors for a total amount equal to EUR 395 million. This sale is in line with ING's stated objective to reduce complexity and divest non-core assets.

ING obtained its stake in Fubon as part of the transaction to sell its Taiwanese life insurance business to Fubon, which was announced in October 2008 and closed in February 2009.

The sale of the Fubon stake was executed in a block trade to institutional investors after the close of the Taiwan Stock Exchange today. The transaction will result in a pre-tax profit of approximately EUR 170 million, to be booked in the fourth quarter of 2010.

IMPORTANT LEGAL INFORMATION

Certain of the statements contained herein are not historical facts, including, without limitation, certain statements made of future expectations and other forward-looking statements that are based on management's current views and assumptions and involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results, performance or events to differ materially from those expressed or implied in such statements. Actual results, performance or events may differ materially from those in such statements due to, without limitation: (1) changes in general economic conditions, in particular economic conditions in ING's core markets, (2) changes in performance of financial markets, including developing markets, (3) the implementation of ING's restructuring plan to separate banking and insurance operations, (4) changes in the availability of, and costs associated with, sources of liquidity such as interbank funding, as well as conditions in the credit markets generally, including changes in borrower and counterparty creditworthiness, (5) the frequency and severity of insured loss events, (6) changes affecting mortality and morbidity levels and trends, (7) changes affecting persistency levels, (8) changes affecting interest rate levels, (9) changes affecting currency exchange rates, (10) changes in general competitive factors, (11) changes in laws and regulations, (12) changes in the policies of governments and/or regulatory authorities, (13) conclusions with regard to purchase accounting assumptions and methodologies, (14) changes in ownership that could affect the future availability to us of net operating loss, net capital and built-in loss carry forwards, (15) ING's ability to achieve projected operational synergies, (16) reporting the US Legacy VA business as a separate business line, and (17) implementation of fair value accounting for Guaranteed Minimum Withdrawal Benefits for the US insurance businesses. ING assumes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or for any other reason.
