Certain statements contained in the attached documents are forward-looking statements and relate to the plans, projections or future performance of AAM and Holdings. Such statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and are based on our current expectations, are inherently uncertain, are subject to risks and should be viewed with caution. Actual results and experience may differ materially from the forward-looking statements as a result of many factors, including but not limited to: adverse changes in the economic conditions or political stability of our principal markets (particularly North America, Europe and South America); reduced demand of customers' products, particularly light trucks and SUVs produced by GM and DaimlerChrysler's heavy-duty Dodge Ram full-size pickup trucks, or the Dodge Ram program; reduced purchases of products by GM, DaimlerChrysler or other customers; the ability to respond to changes in technology or increased competition; supply shortages or price fluctuations in raw materials, utilities or other operating supplies; the ability to attract and retain key associates; the ability to maintain satisfactory labor relations and avoid work stoppages; risks of noncompliance with environmental regulations; liabilities arising from legal proceedings to which AAM and Holdings are or may become a party or claims against AAM and Holdings or their products; availability of financing for working capital, capital expenditures, research and development or other general corporate purposes; adverse changes in laws, government regulations or market conditions affecting AAM and Holdings' products or their customers' products (including the Corporate Average Fuel Economy regulations); and other unanticipated events and conditions that may hinder AAM and Holdings ability to compete.
