THE FIRST AMERICAN CORPORATION

Acquisition Consideration

- o This prospectus covers up to 3,000,000 of our common shares.
- o We may offer these shares from time to time as full or partial consideration for our acquisition of the assets or ownership interests of businesses which primarily provide financial and information services.
- o We will negotiate the terms of each acquisition transaction with the owners of the assets or ownership interests being acquired at the time the particular acquisition transaction is undertaken.

Share Price

- o We will value the shares issued in a particular acquisition transaction at a price reasonably related to the market value of the shares at one of the following times:
 - o When the terms of the particular acquisition transaction are our shares on the New York Stock agreed upon.
 - o When the particular acquisition transaction closes.
 - o During the period or periods prior to the delivery of the shares.

An Investment in Our Company Entails Risk

- o Before making an investment in our shares, you should consider carefully the "Risk Factors" set forth beginning on page 1.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of this prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The date of this prospectus is May 7, 2001.

- o the description of our common shares, $1.00 par value, contained in our registration statement on form 8-A, dated November 19, 1993, which registers the shares under Section 12(b) of the Exchange Act;
- o the description of Rights to Purchase Series A Junior Participating Preferred Shares, which may be transferred with our common shares, contained in our registration statement on form 8-A, dated November 7, 1997, which registers the rights under Section 12(b) of the Exchange Act; and
- o any additional documents that we file with the SEC between the date of this prospectus and the earlier of the following dates:
 - o the date on which all of the shares offered by this prospectus are resold by the persons or entities who or which acquire them from us; and
 - o the date that is one year after the last date on which shares offered by this prospectus are issued by us.

This prospectus is part of a registration statement on Form S-4 which we have filed with the SEC. As permitted by SEC rules, this prospectus does not contain all of the information contained in the registration statement, any amendments, and accompanying exhibits and schedules filed with the SEC. You may refer to the registration statement, any amendments, and the exhibits and schedules for more information about us and our common shares. The registration statement, exhibits and schedules are also available at the SEC's public reference rooms or through its EDGAR database on the Internet.

You may obtain a copy of these filings at no cost by writing to us at The First American Corporation, 1 First American Way, Santa Ana, California 92707-5913, Attention: Mark R Arnesen, or by telephoning us at (714) 800-3000. In order to obtain timely delivery, you must submit your request no later than five days prior to the date you make your investment decision.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in this prospectus, any supplement to this prospectus and the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, you should carefully consider the following risk factors before investing in our company.

Revenues may decline during periods when the demand for our products decreases

Our revenues decrease as the number of real estate transactions in which our products are purchased decreases. We have found that the number of real estate transactions in which our products are purchased decreases in the following situations:

- o when mortgage rates are high;
- o when the mortgage fund supply is limited; and

Edgar Filing: FIRST AMERICAN FINANCIAL CORP - Form 424B3

- o when the United States economy is weak.

We believe that this trend will recur.

Earnings may be reduced if acquisition projections are inaccurate

Our earnings have improved since 1991 in large part because of our acquisition and integration of non-title insurance businesses. These businesses generally have higher margins than our title insurance businesses. The success or failure of each of these acquisitions has depended in large measure upon the accuracy of our projections. Our projections are not always accurate. Inaccurate projections have historically led to lower than expected earnings.

Changes in government regulation could prohibit or limit our operations

Our title insurance, property and casualty insurance, home warranty, thrift, trust and investment businesses are regulated by various governmental agencies. Many of our other businesses operate within statutory guidelines. Changes in the applicable regulatory environment or statutory guidelines could prohibit or restrict our existing or future operations. Such restrictions may adversely affect our financial performance.

Current legal proceedings may have a material adverse affect on our financial condition or results of operations

On May 19, 1999, the State of California and the controller and insurance commissioner of the State of California filed a class action suit in the state court in Sacramento. Initially, the action sought to certify as a class of defendants all title and escrow companies doing business in California from 1970 to the present, including certain of our subsidiaries. The plaintiffs allege that the defendants:

- o failed to give unclaimed property to the State of California on a timely basis;
- o charged California home buyers and other escrow customers fees for services that were never performed or which cost less than the amount charged; and

-1-

- o devised and carried out schemes, known as earnings credits, with financial institutions to receive interest on escrow funds deposited by defendants with financial institutions in demand deposits.

Since the initial filing of the suit, the California Attorney General's Office, on behalf of the State, the controller and the insurance commissioner, indicated that it would not seek to certify a class of defendants, but would instead amend its suit to name an unspecified number of title underwriters and underwritten title companies. To date, the attorney general has neither amended the suit, nor to our knowledge taken steps to progress with it, including the service of process on any party. The attorney general, however, has entered into settlement discussions with various title insurance underwriters, including certain of our subsidiaries. Additionally, the attorney general indicated that it will address issues pertaining to escheat obligations through routine audits conducted by the controller's office, rather than through litigation.

Edgar Filing: FIRST AMERICAN FINANCIAL CORP - Form 424B3

Subsequent to the filing of this lawsuit, the First American Title Insurance Company, a subsidiary of ours, was named and served as a defendant in two private class actions in California courts. The allegations in those actions include some, but not all, of the allegations contained in the lawsuit discussed above. The private class actions independently seek injunctive relief, attorneys' fees, damages and penalties in unspecified amounts. One of the private class actions has been dismissed. The remaining private class action has not progressed beyond limited document production.

An adverse decision in these lawsuits may have a material adverse effect on our financial condition or results of operations.

SPECIAL NOTE OF CAUTION REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements contained in this prospectus, any applicable supplement to this prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus, may constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the federal securities laws. The following or similar words are intended to identify forward-looking statements in our documents:

- | | |
|----------------|----------------|
| o "anticipate" | o "forecast" |
| o "believe" | o "goal" |
| o "estimate" | o "objective" |
| o "expect" | o "projection" |

Risks and uncertainties exist which may cause results to differ materially from those set forth in these forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause the anticipated results to differ from those described in the forward-looking statements include:

- o interest rate fluctuations;
- o changes in the performance of the real estate markets;
- o general volatility in the capital markets;

- o changes in applicable government regulations;
- o consolidation among our significant customers and competitors;
- o legal proceedings commenced by the California attorney general and related litigation;
- o our continued ability to identify businesses to be acquired;
- o changes in our ability to integrate businesses which we acquire; and
- o other factors described in our annual report on form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2000 filed with the SEC.

Edgar Filing: FIRST AMERICAN FINANCIAL CORP - Form 424B3

The forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made. We do not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.

All consolidated results reflect the 1999 acquisition of National Information Group accounted for under the pooling-of-interests method of accounting.

- (1) In December 1999, First American adopted Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 101 (SAB), "Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements." The SAB, which became effective January 1, 1999, applies to First American's tax service operations and requires the deferral of the tax service fee and the recognition of that fee as revenue ratably over the expected service period. The amortization rates applied to recognize the revenues assume a 10-year contract life and are adjusted to reflect prepayments. First American periodically reviews its tax service contract portfolio to determine if there have been changes in contract lives and/or changes in the number and/or timing of prepayments. Accordingly, First American may adjust the rates to reflect current trends. The SAB finalizes a series of changes instituted by the Securities and Exchange Commission concerning revenue recognition policies. As a result of adopting the SAB, in 1999, First American reported a charge of $55.6 million, net of income taxes and minority interests, as a cumulative change in accounting principle, reduced net income by $10.9 million, or $0.16 per diluted share and restated its quarterly information. During the year ended December 31, 2000, First American recognized $38.6 million in revenues that were included in the cumulative effect adjustment. Revenues earned by the other products in the real estate information segment are recognized at the time of delivery, as First American has no significant ongoing obligation after delivery.

- (2) Return on average stockholders' equity for 1999 excludes the cumulative effect of a change in accounting for tax service contracts from both net income and stockholders' equity.
- (3) Per share information relating to net income is based on weighted-average number of shares outstanding for the years presented. Per share information relating to stockholders' equity is based on shares outstanding at the end of each year.
- (4) Title order volumes are those processed by the direct title operations of First American and do not include orders processed by agents.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The shares covered by this prospectus may be offered and sold from time to time during the effectiveness of the registration statement by the selling shareholders. The selling shareholders will act independently of us in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner and price of each sale. The selling shareholders may sell the shares being offered hereby on the New York Stock

Edgar Filing: FIRST AMERICAN FINANCIAL CORP - Form 424B3

Exchange, or otherwise. The sale price may be the then prevailing market price or a price related thereto, a price set by formula, which may be subject to change, or a negotiated price. The shares may be sold, without limitation, by one or more of the following means of distribution:

- o a block trade in which the broker-dealer so engaged will attempt to sell shares as agent, but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- o purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by such broker-dealer for its own account pursuant to this prospectus;
- o a distribution in accordance with the rules of the New York Stock Exchange;
- o ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers; and
- o in privately negotiated transactions.

To the extent required, this prospectus may be amended and supplemented from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution.

In connection with distributions of the shares or otherwise, the selling shareholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions. In connection with a hedging transaction, broker-dealers or other financial institutions may engage in short sales of the shares in the course of hedging the positions they assume with selling shareholders. The selling shareholders may also sell the shares short and deliver the shares offered hereby to close out such short positions. The selling shareholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of shares offered hereby, which shares such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus, as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction. The selling shareholders may also pledge shares to a broker-dealer or other financial institution, and, upon a default, such broker-dealer or other financial institution may effect sales of the pledged shares pursuant to this prospectus, as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction. In addition, any shares that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act may, at the option of the holder thereof, be sold under Rule 144 of the Securities Act rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

Any broker-dealer participating in such transactions as agent may receive commissions from the selling shareholders and/or purchasers of the shares offered hereby. Usual and customary brokerage fees will be paid by the selling shareholders. Broker-dealers may agree with the selling shareholders to sell a specified number of shares at a stipulated price per share, and, to the extent such a broker-dealer is unable to do so acting as agent for the selling shareholders, to purchase as principal any unsold shares at the price required to fulfill the broker-dealer commitment to the selling shareholders. Broker-dealers who acquire shares as principal may thereafter resell the shares from time to time in transactions, which may involve cross and block transactions and which may involve sales to and through other broker-dealers, including transactions of the nature described above, in the market, in negotiated transactions or otherwise at market prices prevailing at the time of sale or at negotiated prices, and in connection with such resales may pay to, or receive from, the purchasers of such shares, commissions computed as described above.

In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, if applicable, the shares will be sold in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain states the shares may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.

We have advised the selling shareholders that the anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of shares in the market and to the activities of the selling shareholders and their affiliates. In addition, we will make copies of this prospectus and any supplement available to the selling shareholders and have informed them of the need for delivery of copies of this prospectus and any supplement to purchasers at or prior to the time of any sale of the shares offered hereby. The selling shareholders may indemnify any broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving the sale of the shares against liabilities resulting therefrom. Among these liabilities for which indemnification may be provided are those arising under the Securities Act.

At the time a particular offer of shares offered pursuant to this prospectus is made, if required, a supplement to this prospectus will be distributed that will set forth the number of shares being offered and the terms of the offering, including the name of any underwriter, dealer or agent, the purchase price paid by any underwriter, any discount, commission and other item constituting compensation, any discount, commission or concession allowed or re-allowed or paid to any dealer, and the proposed selling price to the public.

We have agreed to keep the registration statement of which this prospectus constitutes a part effective in respect of shares issued pursuant thereto until the first to occur of the following dates:

- o the date one year from the date of issuance of such shares; and
- o such date as all of the shares offered by the selling shareholders listed above have been sold.

We intend to de-register any of the shares not sold by the selling shareholders after such time.

LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of the shares offered by this prospectus will be passed upon for us by White & Case LLP, Los Angeles, California.
