Forward-looking statements:

This news release and oral statements regarding the subjects of this release contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. All statements other than statements of historical fact included in this press release are forward-looking statements and reflect the company's current expectations and are based on current available information and numerous assumptions. Important factors that could cause actual results to materially differ from the company's current expectations include, among others, the business outlook, the ability to complete the announced divestiture of the company's offshore assets and effect qualified like-kind exchange transactions to maximize tax efficiencies, the impact of onshore asset concentration, the risks associated with the consummation and successful integration of acquisitions, the impact of hurricanes, price volatility, the risk of future writedowns, the impact of hedging activities, the accuracy of estimates of reserves and production rates, production and spending requirements, the inability to meet substantial capital requirements, the market and other factors for stock repurchases, the constraints imposed by the company's outstanding indebtedness, the relatively short production life of the company's reserves, reserve replacement risks, drilling risks and results, the competitive nature of the industry, and other risks and factors inherent in the exploration for and production of natural gas and crude oil discussed in the company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005. The company assumes no responsibility to update any of the information referenced in this news release.
