PROSPECTUS

For the Public Offering for Sale of 155,338 Shares of Common Stock
of
REGIS CORPORATION

The 155,338 shares of Common Stock are to be offered by present shareholders. Regis will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of shares by the selling shareholder.

The selling shareholders have advised us that sales of their shares may be made from time to time through the New York Stock Exchange, through negotiated transactions or otherwise, at fixed prices that may be changed, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices. The selling shareholders may sell their shares to or through broker-dealers, and such broker-dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling shareholders or the purchasers of the shares for whom such broker-dealers may act as agent or to whom they may sell as principal.

No period of time has been fixed within which the shares may be offered or sold. We will initially pay all expenses with respect to this offering, except for brokerage fees and commissions and transfer taxes for the selling shareholders, which will be borne by the selling shareholders.

Our stock is quoted on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol RGS. On June 2, 2004, the last sale price of our stock as reported by the New York Stock Exchange was $44.20 per share. The common stock is being offered on a delayed or continuous basis.

For risks in buying our stock, see Risks Related to the Business beginning on page 3 of this Prospectus.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or passed on the adequacy or accuracy of this Prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

Table of Contents

RISKS RELATED TO THE BUSINESS

Increased competition in the hair care industry could have a material adverse effect on our business. The hair care industry is highly competitive and has limited barriers to entry. In every locality in which we currently operate, there are competitors offering similar services and products. These competitors may be single salon operators or national chains. In many cases, we face one or more competitors within malls or shopping centers in which we operate, including companies operating salons as departments within department stores, salon chains, independently owned salons, and salons operating under franchises from other franchising companies. Any increased competition from these competitors could negatively affect sales volume of both our company-owned and franchised salons. In turn, this would reduce our company-owned salons' revenue and profits and reduce royalty revenue from our franchised locations and could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial position.

Increased competition for retail sites could have a material adverse effect on our business. Our ability to grow depends upon our ability to obtain attractive retail sites for new company-owned salons and the ability of our franchisees to obtain attractive retail sites for new franchised salons. A salon's success depends significantly on the quality of the site selected for a new salon. We and our franchisees face intense competition for retail sites from other companies operating in the hair care industry and from retailers operating in other industries. The failure to obtain adequate retail sites could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial position. Any increased competition for retail sites could result in higher occupancy and other costs for new salons. In turn, this could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial position.

Our inability to retain and hire qualified employees for our company-owned salons could have a material adverse effect on our business. Our growth is dependent in part upon our ability to retain and hire qualified employees to work in our company-owned salons. There is no assurance that potential future employees will have the qualifications and skills necessary or desirable for our business to grow. In addition, there is no assurance that our existing employees will remain with us. The inability to retain or hire qualified employees could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial position.

Changes in our relationship with our suppliers could have a material adverse effect on our business. We are dependent upon our relationships with our suppliers who supply us with hair care and other beauty products that we, in turn, sell to our customers through company-owned salons and sell to our franchisees for resale to such franchisee's customers. Although we presently have no reason to believe that any of our major beauty product suppliers will cancel their distribution agreements with us, if these suppliers did cancel their distribution agreements, this could cause a reduction in the sale of beauty products and the loss of those corresponding margins. Any such cancellation of distribution could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial position.

Changes in the economic environment could have a material adverse effect on our business. Changes to the United States, Canadian, United Kingdom and other European economies may have an impact on our business. However, we believe that the replenishment nature of our business, as well as the fact that our various concepts span across several levels of consumer objectives, mitigates the impact that changes in economic conditions may have on our business.

Changes to Interest Rates and Foreign Currency Exchange Rates could have a material adverse effect on our business. Changes in interest rates may have an impact on our expected results from operations. Currently, we manage the risk related to fluctuations in interest rates through the use of floating rate debt instruments and other financial instruments. Additionally, changes in foreign currency exchange rates may have an impact on our reported results from operations. The majority of the revenue and costs associated with the performance of our foreign operations are denominated in local currencies such as the Canadian dollar, Euro and British pound. Therefore, we do not have significant foreign currency transaction risk; however, the translation at different exchange rates from period to period may impact the amount of reported income from the our international operations.

Table of Contents

Changes in Manufacturers Choice of Distribution Channels could have a material adverse effect on our business. The retail products that we sell are carried exclusively by professional salons. Should the various product manufacturers decide to utilize other distribution channels, such as large discount retailers, it could negatively impact the revenue and margin earned from product sales. However, additional emphasis on the Company's private label products would help to mitigate this effect.

Changes in Securities Laws and Regulations could have a material adverse effect on our business. The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 that became law in July 2002 requires changes in some of our corporate governance and securities disclosure or compliance practices. We are presently preparing for our required compliance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, and management's assertions concerning financial reporting controls. While we believe that we can ultimately comply with the new legislated requirements associated with being a registrant with the Securities and Exchange Commission, this process is costly and presents both challenge and risk.

The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 also requires the SEC to promulgate new rules on a variety of subjects, in addition to rule proposals already made, and the New York Stock Exchange has approved revisions to its requirements for listed companies. We expect these developments to increase our compliance costs. These developments could possibly make it more difficult and more expensive to obtain director and officer liability insurance, and we may be required to accept reduced coverage or incur substantially higher costs to obtain coverage. These developments could make it more difficult for us to attract and retain qualified members for our board of directors, or qualified executive officers. We are presently evaluating and monitoring regulatory developments and cannot estimate the timing or magnitude of additional costs which may be incurred as a result.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling shareholders have advised us that they may sell their shares from time to time in transactions through the New York Stock Exchange, through negotiated transactions or otherwise, at fixed prices that may be changed, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices.

Sales may be made under this Prospectus to or through broker-dealers who may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling shareholder or the purchasers of its stock for whom such broker-dealer may act as agent or to whom they may sell as principal, or both (which compensation as to a particular broker-dealer may be in excess of customary commissions). Any broker-dealers or other persons acting on the selling shareholders' behalf for the sale of their stock may be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, and any commissions received by them and any profit realized by them on the resale of the stock as principals may be underwriting commissions under that Act. No period of time has been fixed within which the stock may be offered or sold.

LEGAL OPINIONS

We are being advised on the legality of the issuance of the common stock offered by this Prospectus by Eric A. Bakken, our Vice President and General Counsel.

INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The consolidated financial statements incorporated in this Prospectus by reference to the 2003 Annual Report on Form 10-K of Regis Corporation for the year ended June 30, 2003, have been so incorporated in reliance on the report of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, independent registered public accounting firm, given on the authority of said firm as experts in auditing and accounting.

With respect to the unaudited condensed consolidated financial information of Regis Corporation for the three-month periods ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, for the three-and six-month periods ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, and for the three-and nine-month periods ended March 31, 2004, incorporated by reference in this Prospectus, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP reported that they have applied limited procedures in accordance with professional standards for a review of such information. However, their separate reports dated October 28, 2003, January 21, 2004 and April 20, 2004, incorporated by reference herein, state that they did not audit and they do not express an opinion on that unaudited condensed consolidated financial information. Accordingly, the degree of reliance on their report on such information should be restricted in light of the limited nature of the review procedures applied. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is not subject to the liability provisions of Section 11 of the Securities Act of 1933 for their reports on the unaudited condensed consolidated financial information because those reports are not a report or a part of the registration statement prepared or certified by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP within the meaning of Sections 7 and 11 of the Act.

Item 17. Undertakings

The undersigned Registrant further hereby undertakes:

(a)(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commissioner by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

Table of Contents

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in such Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in such Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(d) For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this Registration Statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in the form of prospectus filed by the Registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(1) or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of this registration statement as of the time it was declared effective, and

(e) for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
