PROXY STATEMENT
FOR 2009 ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS to be held on May 29, 2009 at 1:00 p.m. PDT

This proxy statement and the enclosed form of proxy are furnished in connection with solicitation of proxies by our board directors for use at an annual meeting of shareholders to be held on May 29, 2009, and any postponements or adjournments thereof.

On or about April 28, 2009, this proxy statement and the accompanying form of proxy are being mailed to each shareholder of record at the close of business on April 6, 2009.

The information provided in the question and answer format below is for your convenience only and is merely a summary of the information contained in this proxy statement. You should read this entire proxy statement carefully.

What matters am I voting on?

You will be voting on:

the election of seven directors to hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until their successors are elected and qualified;

a proposal to ratify the appointment of Moss Adams LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2009;

any other business that may properly come before the meeting.

Who is entitled to vote?

Holders of our common stock as of the close of business on April 6, 2009, the record date, may vote at the meeting. As of the record date, we had 16,948,063 shares of common stock. In deciding all matters at the meeting other than the election of directors, each shareholder will be entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held on the record date. For the election of directors, cumulative voting applies, so the number of votes each shareholder will have will be equal to the number of shares held on the record date multiplied by seven, the number of directors to be elected. Each shareholder may cast all such votes for a single nominee, distribute them among the seven nominees for directors equally, or distribute them among the seven nominees in any other way the shareholder deems fit. If a shareholder voting by proxy wishes to distribute votes among the nominees for director, the shareholder may do so on the enclosed proxy card in the space provided. If votes are not distributed on the proxy card, the persons named as proxies will use their discretion to distribute such votes FOR each of the seven individuals nominated to serve as director.

Where is the 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders being held?

The 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders will be held at the Portland, Oregon Brewery, 924 North Russell Street, Portland, Oregon 97227 at 1:00 p.m. Pacific Daylight Time.

What is the effect of giving a proxy?

Proxies in the form enclosed are solicited by and on behalf of our board. The persons named in the proxy have been designated as proxies by our board. If you sign and return the proxy in accordance with the procedures set forth in this proxy statement, the persons designated as proxies by the board will vote your shares at the meeting as specified in your proxy.

If you sign and return your proxy in accordance with the procedures set forth in this proxy statement but you do not provide any instructions as to how your shares should be voted, your shares will be voted as follows:

FOR the election as directors of the nominees listed below under Proposal No. 1;

FOR the approval of the proposal to ratify the appointment of Moss Adams LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2009.

If you give your proxy, your shares also will be voted in the discretion of the proxies named on the proxy card with respect to any other matters properly brought before the meeting.

Can I change my vote after I return my proxy card?

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is exercised by:

delivering written notification of your revocation to our secretary;

voting in person at the meeting; or delivering another proxy bearing a later date.

Please note that your attendance at the meeting will not alone serve to revoke your proxy.

What is a quorum?

A quorum is the minimum number of shares required to be present at the annual meeting for the meeting to be properly held under our bylaws and Washington state law. The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of all issued and outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the meeting will constitute a quorum at the meeting. A proxy submitted by a shareholder may indicate that all or a portion of the shares represented by the proxy are not being voted (shareholder withholding) with respect to a particular matter. Similarly, a broker may not be permitted to vote stock (broker non-vote) held in street name on a particular matter in the absence of instructions from the beneficial owner of the stock. The shares subject to a proxy which are not being voted on a particular matter because of either shareholder withholding or broker non-vote will count for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Abstentions are voted neither for nor against a matter but are also counted in the determination of a quorum.

How may I vote?

You may vote your shares by mail. Date, sign and return the accompanying proxy in the envelope enclosed for that purpose (to which no postage need be affixed if mailed in the United States). You may specify your choices by marking the appropriate boxes on the proxy card. If you attend the meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person or fill out and return a ballot that will be supplied to you.

How many votes are needed for approval of each matter?

The election of directors requires a plurality vote of the shares of common stock voted at the meeting. Plurality means that the individuals who receive the largest number of votes cast FOR are elected as directors. Consequently, any shares not voted FOR a particular nominee (whether as a result of shareholder withholding or a broker non-vote) will not be counted in such nominee's favor and will have no effect on the outcome of the election. See Who is entitled to vote? above for an explanation of cumulative voting in the election of directors.

Proposal No. 2 must be approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of shares represented in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote thereon. Shareholder withholding, broker non-votes, and abstentions from voting on this proposal will have no effect on the outcome of this proposal.

How may my brokerage firm or other intermediary vote my shares if I fail to provide timely directions?

Brokerage firms and other intermediaries holding shares of common stock in street name for customers are generally required to vote such shares in the manner directed by their customers. In the absence of timely directions, brokerage firms and other intermediaries generally will have discretion to vote their customers' shares in the election of directors and on the proposal to ratify the appointment of Moss Adams LLP.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The business of the Company is currently managed under the direction of the Board of Directors, which consists of the following seven directors: Kurt R. Widmer (Chair), Timothy P. Boyle, Andrew R. Goeler, Kevin R. Kelly, David R. Lord, John D. Rogers Jr. and Anthony J. Short.

The full Board of Directors met seven times, including three special meetings, during the Company's fiscal year ended December 31, 2008. No incumbent member attended fewer than 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and of any Board committees of which he was a member during 2008. Directors are encouraged to attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. At the 2008 Annual Meeting, three incumbent directors were in attendance. The term for the other four current directors began after the 2008 Annual Meeting as these individuals became directors as a result of the July 1, 2008 merger (the Merger) of the Company with Widmer Brothers Brewing Company (Widmer) and were not directors or director nominees when the 2008 Annual Meeting was held.

Director Independence

The Company's common stock is listed on The Nasdaq Stock Market and, accordingly, the Company is subject to the requirement in Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5605(b)(1) that a majority of its directors be independent as defined in Marketplace Rule 5605(a)(2). Current nominees Messrs. Boyle, Kelly, Lord and Rogers are non-employee directors of the Company, do not have any relationship that would disqualify them as independent directors under Marketplace Rule 5605(a)(2) and, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, do not have any other relationship that would interfere with their exercise of independent judgment in carrying out their responsibilities as directors. Therefore, the Board of Directors believes that Messrs. Boyle, Kelly, Lord and Rogers are independent directors as defined in Marketplace Rule 5605(a)(2). The Board of Directors believes that Messrs. Goeler and Short, who are non-employee directors, have a relationship as Anheuser-Busch, Inc. (A-B) designees to the Board of Directors that precludes them from meeting the definition of independent director in Marketplace Rule 5605(a)(2). Mr. Widmer, as an employee director of the Company, does not meet the definition of independent director in Marketplace Rule 5605(a)(2). All independent directors meet in executive session, at which only independent directors are present, at least twice a year, in conjunction with a regularly scheduled board meeting.

The following seven individuals have been nominated for re-election at the meeting. Each of the nominees currently serves as a director of the Company.

Mr. Kelly serves as a director on the boards of Northwest Bank and the Sisters of Providence Pension Trustees. Mr. Kelly earned a Ph.D. and a Master's Degree in Economics from the University of Oregon after receiving a bachelor's degree from Santa Clara University.

Mr. Rogers has also served in leadership roles at several manufacturing companies, including AWC, Inc., British Steel Alloys and Martin Marietta Aluminum. Mr. Rogers was appointed a Sloan Fellow at Massachusetts Institute of Technology's Graduate School of Business, and graduated with a Masters of Science in Business Administration. Mr. Rogers earned a Master's degree in Business Administration from Southern Methodist University after receiving a Bachelor's degree from the University of Washington.

Anthony J. Short (50) Mr. Short has served as a director since May 2000. Mr. Short is Vice President, Business and Wholesaler Development at A-B and has held this position since September 2002. In this capacity, he is responsible for domestic business development and various initiatives involving A-B's wholesaler sales and distribution system. Mr. Short also currently serves as President of Wholesaler Equity Development Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of A-B. Mr. Short has been employed by A-B since 1986. Mr. Short had previously served as a director on the boards of Widmer and Craft Brands Alliance LLC (Craft Brands), a sales and marketing joint venture between the Company and Widmer. Mr. Short is one of two directors on the Company's Board of Directors designated by A-B; see Related Person Transactions Transactions with A-B.

Kurt R. Widmer (57) Mr. Widmer has served as the Chairman of the Board and Director since the Merger. Prior to that, he had served as President, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board for Widmer from 1984 until July 1, 2008. Mr. Widmer co-founded Widmer with his brother, Robert Widmer. He is a member of the board of directors and past president of the Oregon Brewers Guild.

(1) For a termination effective through July 31, 2010, a severance benefit equal to 24 months at his then current rate of base salary, paid to Mr. Widmer in a lump sum within two months of termination; except in the event of termination due to Mr. Widmer's disability, in which case, Mr. Widmer will receive the severance benefits over 24 months. In the event Mr. Widmer dies within two years of receiving his first severance payment under disability benefit, the remainder of the unpaid severance benefits is to be paid in a lump sum.

(2) For a termination effective after July 31, 2010, as an at-will employee, Mr. Widmer will not be entitled to severance benefits.

For a termination that is eligible for severance benefits, Mr. Widmer will also be entitled to receive the same health benefits for 18 months that he had been receiving at the time of termination. All health and medical benefits payable under this provision will terminate, if while receiving such benefits, Mr. Widmer accepts employment with another employer who provides similar health benefits.

Under the employment agreement, for cause is defined as Mr. Widmer engaging in conduct which has substantially and adversely impaired the interests of the Company, or would be likely to do so if Mr. Widmer were to remain employed by the Company; has engaged in fraud, dishonesty or self-dealing relating to or arising out of his employment with the Company; has violated any criminal law relating to his employment or to the Company; has engaged in conduct which constitutes a material violation of a significant Company policy or the Company's Code of Ethics, including, without limitation, violation of policies relating to discrimination, harassment, use of drugs and alcohol and workplace violence; or has repeatedly refused to obey lawful directions of the Company's Board of Directors.

Under the employment agreement, good reason is defined as the occurrence of one or more of the following events without Mr. Widmer's consent: (a) a material reduction in Mr. Widmer's authority, duties, or responsibilities as defined; (b) the Company is declared bankrupt; or a receiver is appointed if the Company ceases business operations; or (c) the Company's material breach of any provision of the agreement; provided, however, that good reason shall only be deemed to have occurred if after Mr. Widmer provides the Company with a written notice describing such circumstances, (i) the Company fails to cure the circumstances within 15 days following its receipt of a notice from Mr. Widmer of such circumstances and (ii) Mr. Widmer terminates his employment with the Company.

Change in Control Benefits

The agreement with Mr. Widmer continues even in the event of any change in control in the Company occurring on or before July 31, 2010; however, in the event of a change in control, Mr. Widmer may tender notice of his resignation with the Company upon notice within 30 days, and he shall receive severance benefits equal to 24 months in a lump sum payment, and 18 months of health and medical benefits at a commensurate level received by Mr. Widmer prior to his tendering of the notice.

A Change in Control of the Company is defined as the completion of any sale, transfer, merger or consolidation of Company with any other organization if the shareholders of Company before the transaction own less than fifty percent (50%) of the common stock of the organization after the transaction; or the sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company.

Covenant Not to Compete

For the consideration received above, among others, Mr. Widmer and the Company entered into a separate agreement whereby Mr. Widmer agreed through July 1, 2013, not to engage, or permit or cause any of his affiliates to engage in the manufacturing, advertising, marketing, sale or distribution, whether for himself or for third parties, of any malt beverage, soda beverage or alcoholic beverage product, in North America not produced by the Company. Mr. Widmer also agreed through July 1, 2013 not to encourage any of the Company's employees to leave its employment to join or enter into an employment or service agreement with a competitor, and to not solicit or encourage any of the Company's customers or potential customers to limit, restrict or cease use of the Company's products or services.

RELATED PERSON TRANSACTIONS

Statement of Policy on Related Person Transactions

The Company has adopted a policy of not engaging in business transactions with its officers, directors, nominees for director, beneficial owners of more than 5% of its common stock and immediate family members or affiliates of the foregoing (each a Related Person) except upon terms that are deemed to be fair and reasonable by the Company's Audit Committee. Nevertheless, the Company recognizes that there may be situations where such transactions with a Related Person may be in, or may not be inconsistent with, the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. Therefore, the Company has adopted a Statement of Policy with respect to such related person transactions that guides the review and approval or ratification of these transactions by the Company.

Under the Statement of Policy, a related person transaction is a transaction between the Company and any Related Person (including any transactions requiring disclosure under Item 404 of Regulation S-K under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934), other than transactions available to all employees generally and transactions involving less than $10,000 when aggregated with all similar transactions. The Audit Committee has been tasked with the review and approval of all related person transactions. The Audit Committee considers all relevant facts and circumstances available in making its determination as to a related person transaction, including (if applicable) but not limited to: the benefits to the Company; the impact on a director's independence in the event the Related Person is a director, an immediate family member of a director or an entity which is owned or controlled in substantial part by a director; the availability of other sources for comparable products or services; the terms of the transaction; and the terms available to unrelated third parties or to employees generally. The Audit Committee will approve only those related person transactions that are in, or are not inconsistent with, the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, as the Audit Committee determines in good faith. A copy of the Company's Statement of Policy with respect to related person transactions is available on the Company's website at www.craftbrewers.com (select Investor Relations Governance Highlights).

Certain Related Person Transactions

Transactions with A-B. Since October 1994, the Company has benefited from a distribution relationship with A-B, pursuant to which the Company distributes its products in substantially all of its markets through A-B's wholesale distribution network. In 2004, the Company executed three agreements, an exchange and recapitalization agreement (Exchange Agreement), a distribution agreement (A-B Distribution Agreement) and a registration rights agreement that collectively constitute the framework of its existing relationship with A-B. The terms of the Exchange Agreement, as amended, provided that the Company issue 1,808,243 shares of common stock to A-B in exchange for 1,289,872 shares of convertible redeemable Series B Preferred Stock held by A-B. The Series B Preferred Stock, then reflected on the Company's balance sheet at approximately $16.3 million, was cancelled.

The Company executed an agreement to which A-B is a party effective July 1, 2008, modifying and amending the A-B Distribution Agreement, Exchange Agreement and registration rights agreement to reflect A-B's consent to and effect of the Merger (Consent and Amendment Agreement). The Consent and Amendment Agreement extended the expiration date of the A-B Distribution Agreement to December 31, 2018 and modified, in part, the scope of the distribution area to include those regions that were previously covered under agreement between the Company and Craft Brands. The amended A-B Distribution Agreement provides for an automatic renewal for an additional ten-year period absent A-B providing written notice to the contrary on or prior to June 30, 2018.

Pursuant to the amended Exchange Agreement, A-B is entitled to designate two members of the Company's Board of Directors. A-B also generally has the contractual right to have one of its designees observe each committee of the Board of Directors of the Company. Messrs. Goeler and Short are the A-B designated directors and are both currently employees of A-B. The amended Exchange Agreement also contains limitations on the Company's ability to take certain actions without A-B's prior consent, including but not limited to the Company's ability to issue equity securities or acquire or sell assets or stock, amend its Articles of Incorporation or bylaws, grant board representation rights, enter into certain transactions with affiliates, distribute its products in the United States other than through A-B or as provided in the A-B Distribution Agreement, or voluntarily delist or terminate its listing on The Nasdaq Stock Market. Further, if the A-B Distribution Agreement is terminated, A-B has the right to solicit and negotiate offers from third parties to purchase all or substantially all of the assets or securities of the Company or to enter into a merger or consolidation transaction with the Company, and the right to cause the Board of Directors of the Company to consider any such offer.

The amended A-B Distribution Agreement provides for the distribution of Widmer-, Redhook-, and Kona-branded products in all states, territories and possessions of the United States, including the District of Columbia. Prior to the Merger, the A-B Distribution Agreement covered distribution in the Midwest and Eastern United States, with the Western United States being covered via the distribution agreement with Craft Brands. Under the amended A-B

Distribution Agreement, the Company has granted A-B the first right to distribute the Company's products, including products marketed by the Company under any agreements between Kona and the Company, and any new products. The Company is responsible for marketing its products to A-B's distributors, as well as to retailers and consumers.

For the year ended December 31, 2008, sales to A-B through the amended A-B Distribution Agreement totaled $62.4 million, which represented 72.5% of the Company's sales for the corresponding period.

For all sales made pursuant to the amended A-B Distribution Agreement, the Company pays A-B certain fees, described in further detail below. A Margin fee applies to all product sales (Margin), except for sales to the Company's retail operations, pubs and restaurants, dock sales and for sales prior to the Merger, the Company's sales made to Craft Brands, which paid a comparable fee on its resale of the product. The Company also pays an additional fee for any shipments that exceed shipment levels as established in the amended A-B Distribution Agreement (Additional Margin). For the year ended December 31, 2008, the Company paid a total of $3.1 million in fees related to Margin and Additional Margin.

Also included in the amended A-B Distribution Agreement are fees associated with administration and handling, including invoicing costs, staging costs, cooperage handling charges and inventory manager fees. These fees totaled approximately $205,000 for the year ended December 31, 2008.

In certain instances, the Company may ship its product to A-B wholesaler support centers rather than directly to the wholesaler. Wholesaler support centers consolidate small wholesaler orders for the Company's products with orders of other A-B products prior to shipping to the wholesaler. A wholesaler support center fee for these shipments totaled $179,000 for the year ended December 31, 2008.

Under a separate agreement, the Company purchased certain materials, primarily bottles and other packaging materials, through A-B totaling $17.1 million in 2008. During 2008, the Company paid A-B amounts totaling $989,000 for media purchases and advertising services.

The Company entered into a purchase and sale agreement with A-B for the purchase of the Pacific Ridge brand, trademark and related intellectual property. In consideration, the Company agreed to pay A-B an annual royalty based upon the Company's shipments of this brand, expiring in 2023. Royalties of $71,000 are reflected in cost of sales in the Company's statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2008.

In connection with the shipment of its draft products per the amended A-B Distribution Agreement, the Company collects refundable deposits on its kegs from A-B's wholesalers. As these wholesalers generally hold an inventory of the Company's kegs at their warehouse and in retail establishments, A-B assists in monitoring the inventory of kegs received by its wholesalers. The wholesaler pays a flat fee to the Company for each keg determined to be lost and also forfeits the deposit. For the year ended December 31, 2008, the Company reduced its brewery equipment by $770,000 for amounts received in lost keg fees and forfeited deposits.

Up to the date of the Merger, the Company periodically leased kegs from A-B pursuant to a separate agreement. Lease and handling fees of $40,000 are reflected in cost of sales for the year ended December 31, 2008.

As of December 31, 2008, net amounts due to A-B of $2.3 million were outstanding.

The Company believes that the benefits of the distribution arrangement with A-B, particularly the increased sales volume and efficiencies in delivery, state reporting and licensing, billing and collections, are significant to the Company's business and in the best interests of its shareholders. The Company believes that these opportunities to access A-B distributors have benefited the Company by creating increased awareness of and demand for its products among A-B distributors. Recent developments in the relationship between A-B and its independent wholesalers have led to an increase in craft and specialty brewers with access to this channel, diminishing the benefit to the Company of this relationship.

Transactions with Widmer and Craft Brands. On July 1, 2004, the Company entered into agreements with Widmer with respect to the operation of Craft Brands. Pursuant to these agreements, and through June 30, 2008, the Company manufactured and sold its product to Craft Brands at prices substantially below wholesale pricing levels; Craft Brands, in turn, advertised, marketed, sold and distributed the product to wholesale outlets in the western United States pursuant to a distribution agreement between Craft Brands and A-B.

In connection with the Merger, Craft Brands was also merged with and into the Company, effective July 1, 2008. All existing agreements, including all associated future commitments and obligations, between the Company and Craft Brands and between Craft Brands and Widmer terminated as a result of the merger of Craft Brands.

The Company sold and shipped Widmer Hefeweizen under several contracts with Widmer prior to the Merger. One of these contracts was a licensing arrangement under which the Company sold this product in the Midwest and Eastern United States. The licensed product was brewed at the New Hampshire Brewery under the supervision and direction of Widmer's brewing staff to insure their brand quality and matching taste profile. The Company shipped 12,500 barrels of Widmer Hefeweizen during the year ended December 31, 2008. A licensing fee of $165,000 paid to Widmer is reflected in the Company's statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2008. The Company also brewed and shipped 31,000 barrels of Widmer draft and bottled product under a contract brewing arrangement with Widmer during the year ended December 31, 2008. The Company recognized contract brewing revenues of $3.0 million received from Widmer, which are reflected in the Company's statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2008. These arrangements, along with all other agreements between Widmer and the Company, terminated on the effective date of the Merger.

Transactions with Directors, Officers and Other Principal Shareholders of the Company. As a result of the Merger, the Company assumed several lease contracts with lessors whose members include related persons to the Company. The Company leases its headquarters office and restaurant space located in Portland, Oregon from Smithson & McKay LLC, whose members include Mr. Widmer, Robert P. Widmer and Kristen Maier-Lenz, a sister to both Messrs. Widmer. The lease expires in 2034, with an extension at the Company's option for two 10-year periods. The Company is responsible for taxes, insurance and maintenance associated with these leases. The Company paid lease rentals to Smithson & McKay LLC totaling $28,000 from the Merger until December 31, 2008. Rental payments under the lease are adjusted each year to reflect changes in the consumer price index (CPI). The lease payments during an extension period, if applicable, will be established at fair market levels at the beginning of each period. The Company holds a right to purchase these facilities at the greater of $2.0 million or the fair market value of the property as determined by a contractually established appraisal method. The right to purchase is not valid in the final year of the lease term or in each of the final years of the renewal terms, as applicable.

The Company leases its storage facilities and land located in Portland, Oregon, and certain equipment from Widmer Brothers LLC, whose members include Messrs. Widmer. The lease expires in 2017 with an extension at the Company's option for two five-year periods. The Company is responsible for taxes, insurance and maintenance associated with these leases. The Company paid lease rentals to Widmer Brothers LLC totaling $27,000 from the Merger until December 31, 2008. Rental payments under the leases are adjusted each year to reflect increases in the CPI. The lease payments during an extension period, if applicable, will be established at fair market levels at the beginning of each period.

The Company and Robert P. Widmer (Rob Widmer) entered into an employment agreement employing him in the position of Vice President of Corporate Assurance and Industry Relations effective July 1, 2008, with an initial term ending July 31, 2010, under which the initial annual base salary is $185,000, paid in accordance with the Company's normal payroll policies. Upon the expiration of the initial period, if Rob Widmer continues his employment with the Company, it will be as an at-will employee. While the annual base salaries, position and associated responsibilities differ, the terms of Rob Widmer's employment agreement are similar to the terms of Kurt Widmer's employment agreement. See Material Terms of Mr. Widmer's Employment Agreement above for a discussion of the terms of the employment agreement.

Under the Company's employment agreement with Rob Widmer, severance and change in control benefits are provided for under certain circumstances. The terms and circumstances under which the Company would pay Rob Widmer either severance or change in control benefits are similar to the terms and circumstances under which the Company would pay Kurt Widmer either severance or change in control benefits. See Severance and Change of Control Benefits above for a discussion of the terms and circumstances under which the Company would pay severance or change in control benefits.

For the consideration received above, among others, Rob Widmer and the Company entered into a separate agreement whereby Rob Widmer agreed not to compete or solicit under certain terms and conditions. The terms and conditions of this agreement are similar to the agreement that the Company entered into with Kurt Widmer. See Covenant Not to Compete above for a discussion of the terms and conditions of the non-compete agreement.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), requires that the Company's officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of the Company's common stock, file reports of ownership and changes of ownership with the SEC. Based solely on its review of the copies of such reports received by the Company and on written representations by the Company's officers and directors regarding their compliance with the applicable reporting requirements under Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, the Company believes that, with respect to its fiscal year ended December 31, 2008, all filing requirements applicable to its officers and directors, and all of the persons known to the Company to own more than ten percent of its common stock, were complied with by such persons.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Overview

Introduction. The Company currently qualifies as a smaller reporting company as such term is defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act of 1933 and Item 10 of Regulation S-K. Accordingly, and in accordance with relevant SEC rules and guidance, the Company has elected, with respect to the disclosures required by Item 402 (Executive Compensation) of Regulation S-K, to comply with the disclosure requirements applicable to smaller reporting companies. The following Compensation Overview is not comparable to the Compensation Discussion and Analysis that is required of SEC reporting companies that are not smaller reporting companies.

This Compensation Overview section discusses the compensation programs and policies for the Company's executive officers and the Compensation Committee's role in the design and administration of these programs and policies in making specific compensation decisions for the Company's executive officers.

The Compensation Committee is responsible for establishing and approving corporate goals and objectives for compensation payable to the Chief Executive Officer and other members of senior management and evaluating the performance of the Chief Executive Officer and other members of senior management in light of those goals and objectives, as well as the overall compensation policies applicable to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and other members of senior management, which includes various Vice Presidents and the Chief Financial Officer. The Committee is also responsible for establishing the general policies applicable to the granting, vesting and other terms of stock options, restricted stock, restricted stock units, performance awards and stock appreciation rights and other stock-based awards granted to employees under the Company's stock option and stock incentive plans, and for determining the number and terms of such grants made to the Company's executive officers, among others.

The Compensation Committee has the ultimate authority to determine matters of compensation for the Company's senior management; however, the Compensation Committee may rely on recommendations from the Company's Chief Executive Officer for matters of compensation involving other executive officers and with respect to stock options and other stock grants to employees.

The Compensation Committee is composed entirely of independent directors. Mr. Goeler, as A-B's designee, observes the Compensation Committee.

Compensation Objectives

The Compensation Committee's responsibility is also to insure that the Company's officer compensation programs are structured and implemented in a manner that attracts and retains the caliber of executives and other key employees required for the Company to compete in a highly competitive and dynamic business sector, while aligning management's efforts with achieving targeted performance objectives and enhancing long-term shareholder value.

The Company's executive compensation programs include four primary components:

Base salary. Base salary is the guaranteed element of an executive's annual cash compensation. The level of base salary reflects the employee's long-term performance, skill set and the market value of that skill set.

Bonuses. Performance-based bonus payments are intended to reward executives for achieving specific financial and operational goals.

Long-term incentive payments. Long term incentives, such as stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock and equity-based performance awards, are intended to focus the executives on taking steps that they believe are necessary to ensure the Company's long-term success, as reflected in increases to the Company's stock price over a period of several years.

Severance payments. Severance payments are competitive measures intended to recruit and retain top quality executives, by offering executives compensation in the event their employment is involuntarily terminated without defined cause or by the employee as a result of actions by the Company constituting good reason.

These primary components and their amounts for each of the Company's executives are intended to be fair in relation to compensation received by other executives at similarly sized public and private companies and to reward the Company's executives for performance. Performance is measured by the attainment of financial, operational and/or strategic goals set by the Compensation Committee at the beginning of each fiscal year.

The following table sets forth information regarding compensation earned during the Company's fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007 (a) by the Chief Executive Officer, including all such individuals who served in this capacity at any time during 2008, (b) by the two most highly compensated executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer during 2008 who were serving as executive officers at December 31, 2008, and (c) by two executive officers who would have been included under (b) except that they were not serving as executive officers at December 31, 2008. The individuals included in the table will be collectively referred to as the named executive officers.

- (4) Mr. Michaelson is to be paid by the Company a long-term bonus payable under a now terminated employment agreement Mr. Michaelson had with Craft Brands. The long-term bonus is payable in 2009, $39,515; 2010, $35,777 and 2011, $16,013.

Annual target cash bonus opportunities

Under the Company's employment letter agreements with its executive officers, the Compensation Committee provided for annual target cash bonus opportunities subject to the achievement of a combination of corporate performance and individual performance goals.

The performance goals for each executive officer are based on the Company's corporate performance as measured by earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) as of December 31, 2009, and partly on individual goals unique to each of them. EBITDA will be calculated taking into account the potential bonuses as expense. The portion of the target bonuses based on attainment of individual performance goals ranges from 16% to 20% of the total bonus opportunity. The Compensation Committee will determine the extent to which performance goals have been satisfied following the end of 2009. Cash payments, if any, will be made as soon as practicable after the determination of the amount of the awards.

The business criteria on which individual performance goals are based include financial, strategic, and other goals for the Company and functional areas for which an executive has responsibility, as well as goals related to success in achieving specific tasks assigned to an individual executive. Goals for one or more of the Company's executive officers include meeting specified budget targets, executing expense reduction plans, managing capital expenditures, successfully executing strategic initiatives, increasing product distribution, generating cash flow, and improving financial reporting processes.

Severance Benefits

Under the Company's employment letter agreements with its executive officers, severance benefits become payable in the event the executive officer's employment is involuntarily terminated without defined cause or by the employee as a result of actions by the Company constituting good reason.

Messrs. Michaelson, Pastore and Moreland will be entitled to severance benefits for the conditions discussed above for a period of time (Severance Period) as follows:

- (1) For a termination effective after December 31, 2008, and before January 1, 2011, a Severance Period equal to the lesser of (a) one month for each full year of service accrued with the Company or (b) 24 months.
- (2) For a termination effective on or after January 1, 2011, a Severance Period equal to, for Messrs. Michaelson and Pastore, 12 months; and for Mr. Moreland, the lesser of (a) two weeks for each full year of service accrued with the Company or (b) 12 months.
- (3) In no event shall the Severance Period be less than 6 months.

Under the terms of the Company's employment agreements with its named executive officers that had transferred from Widmer or Craft Brands, including Messrs. Michaelson, Pastore and Moreland, the severance benefit credited to the named executive officer includes the years of service with Widmer and/or Craft Brands as applicable.

Messrs. Michaelson, Pastore and Moreland will also be entitled to receive, for the lesser of the Severance Period or 18 months, the same health benefits being received by the named executive officer at the time of termination.

The remaining severance benefits payable to each of the named executive officers will terminate if the named executive officer accepts employment or associates with a brewing or other company that the Company determines, in its reasonable discretion, is a competitor of the Company or A-B as of the effective date of such employment or association. The remaining health and medical benefits payable to each of the named executive officers will terminate if the named executive officer accepts employment during the severance period with another employer who provides similar health benefits.

Under the employment letter agreements, for cause is defined as the named executive officer engaging in conduct which has substantially and adversely impaired the interests of the Company, or would be likely to do so if the named executive officer were to remain employed by the Company; has engaged in fraud, dishonesty or self-dealing relating to or arising out of his employment with the Company; has violated any criminal law relating to his employment or to the Company; has engaged in conduct which constitutes a material violation of a significant Company policy or the Company's Code of Ethics, including, without limitation, violation of policies relating to discrimination, harassment, use of drugs and alcohol and workplace violence; or has repeatedly refused to obey lawful directions of the Company's Board of Directors.

Under the employment letter agreements, "good reason" is defined as the occurrence of one or more of the following events without the named executive officer's consent: (a) a material reduction in the named executive officer's authority, duties, or responsibilities as defined; (b) a material reduction in the authority, duties, or responsibilities of the person or persons to whom the named executive officer reports (including, if applicable, a requirement that the named executive officer reports to a Company officer or employee instead of reporting directly to the Company's Board of Directors); or (c) a relocation of the named executive officer's principal office to a location that is more than 100 miles from Portland, Oregon; provided, however, that "good reason" shall only be deemed to have occurred if: (i) within 90 days after the initial existence of the circumstances constituting "good reason," the named executive officer provides the Company with a written notice describing such circumstances, (ii) the Company fails to cure the circumstances within 30 days after the Company receives said notice, and (iii) the named executive officer terminates his employment with the Company and all the members of the Company's controlled group within 90 days of the date of said notice.

Other Benefits

Under the Company's employment letter agreements with its executive officers, the executive officer is entitled to participate in all of the Company's employee benefit programs for which the executive officer is eligible, including the Company's 401(k) plan.

Under the Company 401(k) plan, the executive officer's contributions may be made on a before-tax basis, limited by IRS regulations. The Company matches the executive officer's contribution up to 4% of eligible compensation; however, the Company's match is on a discretionary basis. Eligibility for the matching contribution begins after the executive officer has been in the Company's employment a minimum of three months. The Company's matching contributions to the plan vest ratably over five years of service by the executive officer.

Potential and Remaining Payments Associated with Severance Benefits Pursuant to the Executives Employment Agreements

The following table quantifies for each named executive officer the estimated potential or remaining cash severance benefits and the continuation of medical and health benefits that would be provided, under the circumstances discussed in "Material Terms of the Named Executive Officers' Employment Letter Agreements - Severance Benefits," if such circumstances occurred as of December 31, 2008.

- (4) Mr. Pastore had a break in service with Widmer; however under his employment letter agreement, the severance benefit credited includes both tenures at Widmer.
- (5) As discussed in the Summary Compensation Table, each of these named executive officers has either terminated his employment with the Company or, in the case of Mr. Shipman, stepped down from his executive position with the Company. As a result, the severance, medical and health benefits have already been determined pursuant to each named executive officer's employment agreement with the Company. During 2008, Messrs. Triplett and Prial received all of the severance benefit and a significant portion of the medical and health benefits due each of them.

Material Tax Implications of the Company's Compensation Policy

The Company is subject to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which imposes a $1.0 million limit on the amount of compensation that may be deducted by the Company for a taxable year with respect to each of the Chief Executive Officer and the four most highly compensated executive officers of the Company. Certain types of performance-based compensation that have received the required shareholder approval do not count against the deduction limit. The Compensation Committee has reviewed the impact of Section 162(m) on the Company and believes that it is unlikely that the compensation paid to any of the executive officers during the current fiscal year will be deemed to exceed the limit. Furthermore, the 2002 Stock Option Plan and the 2007 Stock Incentive Plan generally are designed to comply with the requirements of the performance-based compensation exception for the $1.0 million limit. The Compensation Committee will continue to monitor the impact of the Section 162(m) limit on the Company and to assess alternatives for avoiding any loss of tax deductions.

PROPOSAL NO. 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Seven directors are to be elected at the Annual Meeting, to serve until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until their successors are elected and qualified. Timothy P. Boyle, Andrew R. Goeler, Kevin R. Kelly, David R. Lord, John D. Rogers Jr., Anthony J. Short and Kurt R. Widmer have been nominated by the Board of Directors for re-election at the Annual Meeting. All of the nominees are currently directors of the Company. The accompanying proxy will be voted for these nominees, except where authority to so vote is withheld. Should any nominee be unable to serve, the persons named in the proxy may vote for any substitute designated by the Board of Directors.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES NAMED IN PROPOSAL NO. 1.

PROPOSAL NO. 2 RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has appointed the firm of Moss Adams LLP (Moss Adams), independent registered public accountants, to audit the Company s financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2009.

At the Annual Meeting, the shareholders are being asked to ratify the appointment of Moss Adams as the Company s independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2009. Representatives of Moss Adams will be present at the Annual Meeting. The representatives of Moss Adams will have an opportunity to make statements and will be available to respond to appropriate questions from shareholders.

Fees Paid to the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The following table presents fees billed or to be billed by Moss Adams for professional services rendered with respect to fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007. 100% of these services were approved by the Audit Committee:

	2008	2007
Audit Fees(1)	$ 384,400	$ 176,574
Audit Related Fees(2)	36,464	2,000
	$ 420,864	$ 178,574

- (1) Audit fees include the audit of the Company s annual financial statements, reviews of the financial statements included in the Company s Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for such years, update services rendered in conjunction with effective registration statements and services rendered in conjunction with the Form S-4, the prospectus/joint proxy statement associated with the Merger.
- (2) The 2008 fees relate to services rendered in conjunction with additional audit procedures required related to the Company s accounting for the purchase of Widmer, ($14,400); consultation on accounting and financial reporting matters throughout 2008, ($17,104); and incidental costs incurred during the audit and reviews, ($4,960). The 2007 fees relate to services rendered in connection with the Company s assessment and report on the effectiveness of its internal control over financial reporting under Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Auditor Independence

In 2008, there were no other professional services provided by Moss Adams that would have required the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors to consider their compatibility with maintaining the independence of Moss Adams.

Audit Committee Policy on Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditor

The Audit Committee is responsible for appointing and overseeing the work of the Company's independent auditor. The Audit Committee has established the following procedures for the pre-approval of all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditor:

Before engagement of the independent auditor for the next year's audit, the independent auditor will submit a detailed description of services expected to be rendered during that year for each of the following categories of services to the Audit Committee for approval.

Audit services. Audit services include work performed for the audit of the Company's financial statements and the review of financial statements included in the Company's Form 10-Q, as well as work that is normally provided by the independent auditor in connection with statutory and regulatory filings.

Audit related services. Audit related services are for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's financial statements and are not covered above under audit services.

Tax services. Tax services include all services performed by the independent auditor's tax personnel for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning.

Other services. Other services are those services not described in the other categories.

Before engagement, the Audit Committee pre-approves these services by category of service. The fees are budgeted and the Audit Committee requires the independent auditor to report actual fees versus budgeted fees periodically throughout the year by category of service. During the year, circumstances may arise when it may become necessary to engage the independent auditor for additional services not contemplated in the original pre-approval. In those instances, the Audit Committee requires specific pre-approval before engaging the independent auditor.

If this proposal does not receive the affirmative approval of a majority of the votes cast on the proposal, the Board of Directors will reconsider the appointment.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF MOSS ADAMS LLP.

OTHER MATTERS

The Company knows of no other matters that are likely to be brought before the meeting. If, however, other matters that are not now known or determined come before the meeting, the persons named in the enclosed proxy or their substitutes will vote such proxy in accordance with their discretion.

Excerpt from the Amended and Restated Bylaws

2.3.2 Nominations for Directors

(a) Nominations of candidates for election as directors at an annual meeting of shareholders may only be made (i) by, or at the direction of, the Board of Directors, or (ii) by any shareholder of the corporation who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who complies with the procedures set forth in the remainder of this Section 2.3.2.

(b) If a shareholder proposes to nominate one or more candidates for election as directors at an annual meeting, the shareholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the corporation. To be timely, a shareholder's notice must be delivered to, or mailed and received at, the principal office of the corporation (i) not less than one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the first anniversary of the date that the corporation's proxy statement was released to shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting; (ii) a reasonable time before the corporation begins to print and mail its proxy materials if the date of this year's annual meeting has been changed by more than thirty (30) days from the date of the previous year's meeting; or (iii) not more than seven (7) days following the mailing to shareholders of the notice of annual meeting with respect to the current year's annual meeting, if the corporation did not release a proxy statement to shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting, or if no annual meeting was held during such year.

(c) A shareholder's notice to the Secretary under Section 2.3.2(b) shall set forth, as to each person whom the shareholder proposes to nominate for election as a director (i) the name, age, business address and residence address of such person, (ii) the principal occupation or employment of such person, (iii) the number and class of shares of stock of the corporation that are beneficially owned on the date of such notice by such person, and (iv) if the corporation at such time has or at the time of the meeting will have any security registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act, any other information relating to such person required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies with respect to nominees for election as directors pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act, including but not limited to information required to be disclosed by Schedule 14A of Regulation 14A, and any other information that the shareholder would be required to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the shareholder's nomination of such person as a candidate for director or the shareholder's opposition to any candidate for director nominated by, or at the direction of, the Board of Directors. In addition to the above information, a shareholder's notice to the Secretary under Section 2.3.2(b) shall (A) set forth (i) the name and address, as they appear on the corporation's books, of the shareholder and of any other shareholders that the shareholder knows or anticipates will support any candidate or candidates nominated by the shareholder and (ii) the number and class of shares of stock of the corporation that are beneficially owned on the date of such notice by the shareholder and by any such other shareholders and (B) be accompanied by a written statement, signed and acknowledged by each candidate nominated by the shareholder, that the candidate agrees to be so nominated and to serve as a director of the corporation if elected at the annual meeting.

(d) The Board of Directors, or a designated committee thereof, may reject any shareholder's nomination of one or more candidates for election as directors if the nomination is not made pursuant to a shareholder's notice timely given in accordance with the terms of Section 2.3.2(b). If the Board of Directors, or a designated committee thereof, determines that the information provided in a shareholder's notice does not satisfy the requirements of Section 2.3.2(c) in any material respect, the Secretary of the corporation shall notify the shareholder of the deficiency in the notice. The shareholder shall have an opportunity to cure the deficiency by providing additional information to the Secretary within such period of time, not to exceed five (5) days from the date such deficiency notice is given to the shareholder, as the Board of Directors or such committee shall reasonably determine. If the deficiency is not cured within such period, or if the Board of Directors or such committee determines that the additional information provided by the shareholder, together with information previously provided, does not satisfy the requirements of Section 2.3.2(c) in any material respect, then the Board of Directors or such committee may reject the shareholder's notice.

(e) Notwithstanding the procedures set forth in Section 2.3.2(d), if a shareholder proposes to nominate one or more candidates for election as directors at an annual meeting, and neither the Board of Directors nor any committee thereof has made a prior determination of whether the shareholder has complied with the procedures set forth in this Section 2.3.2 in connection with such nomination, then the chairman of the annual meeting shall determine and declare at the annual meeting whether the shareholder has so complied. If the chairman determines that the shareholder has so complied, then the chairman shall so state and ballots shall be provided for use at the meeting with respect to such nomination. If the chairman determines that the shareholder has not so complied, then, unless the chairman, in his sole and absolute discretion, determines to waive such compliance, the chairman shall state that the shareholder has not so complied and the defective nomination shall be disregarded.
