Item 1.01. Entry into Material Definitive Agreement.

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On July 11, 2005, Brooks Automation, Inc. (Brooks), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Helix Technology Corporation (Helix), a Delaware corporation and Mt. Hood Corporation (Mt. Hood), a newly-formed Delaware corporation and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Brooks. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Mt. Hood will be merged (the Merger) with and into Helix, with Helix continuing as the surviving corporation. Each share of Helix common stock, par value $1.00 per share, other than shares held by Helix as treasury stock and shares held by Brooks and Mt. Hood, will be cancelled and extinguished and automatically converted into the right to receive 1.11 (Exchange Ratio) shares of Brooks common stock, par value $.01 per share. In addition, upon completion of the Merger, Brooks will assume all options then outstanding under Helix s existing equity incentive plans, each of which will be exercisable for a number of shares of Brooks common stock (and at an exercise price) adjusted to reflect the Exchange Ratio.

Completion of the Merger is subject to several conditions, including approval of the transaction by the stockholders of Helix and Brooks, effectiveness of the Form S-4 registration statement to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, expiration or termination of applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 and clearance under any applicable foreign antitrust laws, and other customary closing conditions. The transaction is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The companies expect to close the transaction during the fourth calendar quarter of 2005.

The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of such agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to such agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed by the contracting parties, including being qualified by disclosures exchanged between the parties in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement. The representations and warranties may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Brooks or Helix or any of their respective subsidiaries.

The foregoing summary of the proposed transaction and the Merger Agreement is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the Merger Agreement and the joint press release, dated July 11, 2001, issued by Brooks and Helix, attached as Exhibits 2.1 and 99.1, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 3.03. Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders.

Amendment to Rights Agreement

On July 8, 2005, the Rights Agreement, dated as of July 23, 1997, between Brooks and BankBoston, N.A., as first amended on October 23, 2001 (by Equiserve Trust Company, N.A., a successor to BankBoston, N.A) and as further amended on May 20, 2002 (the Rights Agreement), was further amended to render the Rights inapplicable to either (i) the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement, (or any amendment thereto approved by the Board of Directors of Brooks) or (ii) the consummation of transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, unless in the case of clause (ii), upon consummation of the Merger, any Person, together with its Affiliates and Associates shall be the Beneficial Owner of 15% or more of the Common Shares of Brooks.
