The Corporation's Bylaws provide that its Board of Directors shall be comprised of not less than three nor more than twelve directors, with the exact number to be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors. The Board has currently fixed the authorized number of directors at five. The Certificate of Designation for the Corporation's Series B 6% Cumulative Convertible Exchangeable Preferred Stock provides that upon nonpayment of required dividends to holders of Series B Preferred Stock for six financial quarters, the number of directors on the Board of Directors will be automatically increased by two directors. The holders of Series B Preferred Stock, voting as a single class, would then be entitled to fill the newly created directorships. This right to vote as a single class to elect two directors continues until all dividends in default are paid in full. As a result of dividend restrictions under the Corporation's debt agreements, the Corporation has not paid dividends since the first quarter of 2002. Accordingly, if the Corporation does not resume the payment of dividends prior to the third quarter of 2003, the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock will have the right to appoint two directors to serve on the Board of Directors.

Plan. There are no securities that are currently issuable under The Wabash National Corporation Directors and Executives Deferred Compensation Plan and the number of securities available for grant under that plan is indeterminable as that number is dependent upon future deferrals by eligible participants.

- (2) Consists of shares to be issued upon exercise of outstanding options granted under the Wabash National Corporation 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, shares to be issued under the Wabash National Corporation Stock Bonus Plan, common stock to be issued under the Wabash National Corporation Employee Stock Purchase Plan, and inducement options granted which are, by definition outside of any Corporate Plan.

2000 STOCK OPTION AND INCENTIVE PLAN

The Corporation's Board of Directors adopted the 2000 Stock and Option Incentive Plan in November 2000. This plan provides for the grant of non-qualified stock options and restricted stock in order to attract, retain and compensate directors, highly qualified officers, key employees and other persons. There were 2,000,000 shares of stock originally authorized for issuance under the plan. The exercise price for each option granted is set by the Compensation Committee, but is required to be at least the aggregate fair market value of the shares subject to the option. The Compensation Committee sets the vesting schedule for each option granted and sets the restricted period for each grant of restricted stock. Upon a change in control of the Corporation, all outstanding shares subject to options vest and all restrictions and conditions applicable to shares subject to restricted stock lapse. The term of the plan is 10 years, unless earlier terminated by the Board of Directors.

EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN

The Corporation's Board of Directors adopted the Employee Stock Purchase Plan in June 1993. This plan provides for the purchase of the Corporation's common stock by certain employees in order to increase the employee's interest in the Corporation's growth and success and to retain the employee's services. The employee purchases the stock by electing to have deducted from his or her payroll a whole percentage amount of at least two percent and no more than 15 percent of the employee's daily compensation. There were 200,000 shares of common stock originally authorized for issuance under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan. The purchase price for each share of common stock is the fair market value of the common stock on the last day of the applicable period. The Board of Directors may terminate this plan at any time.

STOCK BONUS PLAN

The Corporation's Board of Directors adopted the Stock Bonus Plan in January 1, 1997. This plan provides that stock may be awarded as supplementary compensation as an incentive and reward to eligible long service employees who, through industry, ability and exceptional service, contribute materially to the success of the Corporation. There were 500,000 shares of stock originally authorized for issuance under the Stock Bonus Plan. The Board of Directors has the authority to determine, in its sole discretion, the amount of individual stock bonus awards. This plan may be amended, suspended or terminated by the Board of Directors at any time.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

During 2002, decisions on cash compensation and stock options of the Corporation's executive officers were made by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, which has furnished the following report on its policies. This report is not deemed to be "soliciting material" or to be "filed" with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") or subject to the SEC's proxy rules or to the liabilities of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "1934 Act"), and the report shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any prior or subsequent filing by the Corporation under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended or the 1934 Act.

COMPENSATION POLICIES TOWARD EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

The Corporation's executive compensation policies are intended to provide competitive levels of compensation that reflect the Corporation's annual and long-term performance goals, reward superior corporate performance, and assist the Corporation in attracting and retaining qualified executives. Total compensation for each of the Named Officers as well as the other executive officers is comprised of three principal components: base salary, annual incentive compensation and grants of options to purchase the Corporation's Common Stock.

Base Salary. Each year the Compensation Committee determines the base salaries of each of the executive officers and that of the Chief Executive Officer based on available competitive compensation data and the Compensation Committee's assessment of each officer's past performance and its expectation as to future contributions.

Annual Bonus Plan. The amount of annual bonuses paid to the executive officers under the Corporation's bonus program (the "Bonus Plan") depends primarily upon whether, and the extent to which, the Corporation achieved certain pre-established working capital, profit and specific strategic objectives. Under the Bonus Plan, the Corporation has established for each participant a percentage of his annual base salary which is to be the participant's standard bonus percentage (the "Standard Bonus Percentage"). The Standard Bonus Percentages are reviewed each year by the Compensation Committee and changes are made when deemed necessary.

Generally, if the Corporation achieves its working capital, profit and specific strategic objectives, each Bonus Plan participant will accrue a bonus for the year which is equal to his Standard Bonus Percentage of his base pay for the year. If the Corporation's performance is 10%, 20%, 30%, 40%, or 50% above its objectives, each participant accrues a bonus equal to 120%, 140%, 160%, 180% or 200% of his Standard Bonus Percentage of base pay, respectively. Bonuses are prorated for Corporation performance which falls between these achievement percentages. After the bonus percentage is computed for each Bonus Plan participant, the Compensation Committee may in its discretion increase or decrease the percentage, based upon individual performance. Bonuses are paid to participants in the calendar year following the year in which bonuses are accrued by the participants.

In addition, certain Executives may receive bonus amounts pursuant to an executive employment agreement. Bonuses for 2000, 2001 and 2002 for each of the Named Officers appear under the caption "Bonus" in the Summary Compensation Table.

SEVERANCE AGREEMENTS

The Corporation has adopted a policy of providing severance arrangements for senior management employees, including the Named Executive Officers, pursuant to which in the event of any such employee's termination "without cause" or by the employee in certain circumstances "for good reason" (as defined therein) the Corporation will pay such employee from one to three years of salary dependent upon the individual grade level and employment agreement. Further detail on severance arrangements is contained in the description of the employment agreements described elsewhere in the Corporation's proxy statement in which this report is included.

LONG TERM COMPENSATION THROUGH STOCK OPTIONS AND STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHTS.

Under the Corporation's 2000 Stock Options Plan options may be granted to officers and other key employees of the Corporation and its subsidiaries to purchase shares of common stock at a price not less than market price at the date of grant. Options granted under the 2000 Stock Option Plan typically become exercisable in annual installments of three years and options granted under the Corporation's Amended 1992 Stock Option Plan, under which grants may no longer be made, typically become exercisable in annual installments of five years. Option grants to non-employee Directors of the Corporation, however, are fully vested on the date of grant and are exercisable six months thereafter. All options granted expire ten years after the date of grant. The 2000 Stock Option Plan also provides for the award of restricted stock to directors and officers of the Corporation and key employees of the Corporation and its subsidiaries. In 2001, the Corporation adopted a Stock Appreciation Rights Plan, under which stock appreciation rights may be granted to officers and key employees of the Corporation and its subsidiaries. The Corporation has not made any grants in 2002 under the Stock Appreciation Rights Plan.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS' 2002 COMPENSATION.

The Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation generally participates in the same executive compensation plans and arrangements available to the other senior executives. Accordingly, the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer consists of annual base salary, annual bonus and grants of options. The Compensation Committee's general approach in setting compensation of the Chief Executive Officer is to be competitive with other companies in the industry, but to have a large portion of compensation based upon the Corporation's performance.

In determining Mr. Dessimoz' compensation, the Compensation Committee took into account that for the first part of the year, Mr. Dessimoz served as the Corporation's Acting Chief Executive Officer. In April, 2002, Mr. Greubel became the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation. Mr. Greubel's compensation is a result of a negotiated agreement between Mr. Greubel and the Corporation's Board of Directors and provides for an initial salary of $600,000 per year, a bonus for fiscal 2002, payable in 2003, of $200,000, a grant of an option to purchase 250,000 shares of the Corporation's common stock, and a grant of restricted stock for foregone equity in his previous employer. This agreement is described in further detail elsewhere in the proxy statement in which this report is included. In negotiating Mr. Greubel's compensation, the Board of Directors considered the criteria contained in this report, his qualifications and experience, his previous compensation levels, foregone awards and other compensation at his prior employer, and the competitive marketplace for executive talent. In addition, they considered that a substantial equity award was warranted and necessary in order to attract an executive such as Mr. Greubel, and to provide him a strong incentive to increase shareholder value.

Section 162(m). Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits tax deductions for executive compensation to $1 million. There are several exemptions to Section 162(m), including one for qualified performance-based compensation. To be qualified, performance-based compensation must meet various requirements including shareholder approval. The Committee intends to consider annually whether it should adopt a policy regarding 162(m) and to date has concluded that it was not appropriate to do so. One reason for this conclusion is that, assuming the current compensation policies and philosophy remain in place, Section 162(m) will not be applicable in the near term to any executive's compensation.

EMPLOYMENT AND SEVERANCE AGREEMENTS

In April 2002, the Corporation entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Greubel to serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation effective April 12, 2002 through March 31, 2005. The term of Mr. Greubel's employment automatically renews for successive one-year periods unless and until either party provides written notice, not less than 60 days prior to the end of the then current term, of their intent not to renew the agreement. The agreement requires the Corporation to use its commercially reasonable efforts while Mr. Greubel is serving as the Chief Executive Officer to cause him to be nominated for election to the Board of Directors. Pursuant to this agreement, Mr. Greubel's initial salary was set at $600,000 per year, subject to annual adjustment in connection with annual performance reviews and discussions between Mr. Greubel and the Corporation. Mr. Greubel is also eligible for an annual bonus targeted at 50% of his base salary and which may range from 0% to 100% of that year's base salary. This agreement provided that his bonus for 2002 would be at least $200,000. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, the Board of Directors granted Mr. Greubel an option to purchase 250,000 shares of the Corporation's common stock at an exercise price of $10.01 per share. One-third of these options will vest on the first anniversary of Mr. Greubel's employment and on each of the next two anniversaries thereafter, an additional one-third of these options will vest.

The employment agreement with Mr. Greubel also provides that the

Edgar Filing: WABASH NATIONAL CORP /DE - Form DEF 14A

Corporation pay for relocation expenses for Mr. Greubel and his family and reimburses him up to $5,000 per month until such time as he is able to consummate the sale of the home in which he previously lived. This agreement also provided that if Mr. Greubel was unable to sell his previous home within ninety days of putting it on the market then the Corporation would either buy the home or cause it to be sold. This provision of his employment agreement was amended in December, 2002, and now provides that the Corporation reimburse Mr. Greubel $2,734 per month for the payment of principal and interest on his mortgage on his former home and for the reasonable monthly electric, heating, cooling and insurance expenses of the home. The amendment also provided that if Mr. Greubel is unable to sell his former home for its fair market value, the Corporation, in its sole discretion, may choose to buy the house or direct that the house be sold to a third party. If the house is sold to a third party, the Corporation is required to reimburse Mr. Greubel the difference between the sales price and the fair market value.

In the event that the Corporation terminates Mr. Greubel's employment without cause, or it is terminated by Mr. Greubel as a result of a material diminishment of his position, duties or responsibilities, the assignment by the Corporation to Mr. Greubel of substantial additional duties or responsibilities which are inconsistent with the duties or responsibilities then being carried out by him and which are not duties of an executive nature, a material breach of this agreement by the Corporation, which is not corrected within twenty (20) business days of the receipt of a written notice specifying the breach, material fraud on the part of the Corporation, or the discontinuance of the active operation of business of the Corporation or its insolvency or bankruptcy, the Corporation will pay to him the sum of three times his then current base salary if the termination is prior to or on March 31, 2003 and two times his salary if after March 31, 2003. In addition, all unvested options then held by Mr. Greubel shall become vested. If the Corporation terminates Mr. Greubel's employment without cause, upon the attainment of corporate objectives, he is entitled to receive a pro-rata portion of his bonus for the year in which he is terminated. Mr. Greubel has agreed not to compete with the Corporation during the term of his agreement and for a period of two years after termination for any reason.

In June 2002, the Corporation entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Holden to serve as Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation effective June 14, 2002 through June 14, 2003. The term of Mr. Holden's employment automatically renews for successive one-year periods unless and until either party provides written notice, not less than 60 days prior to the end of the then current term, of their intent not to renew the agreement. Pursuant to this agreement, Mr. Holden's initial salary was set at $350,000 per year, subject to annual adjustment in connection with annual performance reviews and discussions between Mr. Holden and the Corporation. Mr. Holden is also eligible for an annual bonus targeted at 50% of his base salary and which may range from 0% to 100% of that year's base salary. This agreement provided that his bonus for 2002 would be at least $150,000. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, the Board of Directors granted Mr. Holden an option to purchase 125,000 shares of the Corporation's common stock at an exercise price of $7.79 per share. Two-thirds of these options will vest on the second anniversary of Mr. Holden's execution of his employment agreement and on the next anniversary thereafter the remaining one-third of these options will vest.

The employment agreement with Mr. Holden also provides that the Corporation pay the relocation expenses for Mr. Holden and his family if the Corporation's headquarters is relocated more than 30 miles from the current Lafayette, Indiana location.

In the event that the Corporation terminates Mr. Holden's employment without cause, or it is terminated by Mr. Holden as a result of a material diminishment of his position, duties or responsibilities, the assignment by the Corporation to Mr. Holden of substantial additional duties or responsibilities which are inconsistent with the duties or responsibilities then being carried out by him and which are not duties of an executive nature, a material breach of this agreement by the Corporation, which is not corrected within twenty (20) business days of the receipt of a written notice specifying the breach, material fraud on the part of the Corporation, or the discontinuance of the active operation of business of the Corporation or its insolvency or bankruptcy, the Corporation will pay to him the sum of two times his then current base salary. In addition, all unvested options then held by Mr. Holden shall become vested. If the Corporation terminates Mr. Holden's employment without cause, upon the attainment of corporate objectives, he is entitled to receive a pro-rata portion of his bonus for the year in which he is terminated. Mr. Holden has agreed not to compete with the Corporation during the term of his agreement and for a period of two years after termination for any reason.

In June 2002, the Corporation also entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Giromini to serve as Chief Operating Officer of the Corporation effective July 15, 2002 through July 15, 2003. The term of Mr. Giromini's employment automatically renews for successive one-year periods unless and until either party provides written notice, not less than 60 days prior to the end of the then current term, of their intent not to renew the agreement. Pursuant to this agreement, Mr. Giromini's initial salary was set at $325,000 per year, subject to annual adjustment in connection with annual performance reviews and discussions between Mr. Giromini and the Corporation. Mr. Giromini is also eligible for an annual bonus targeted at 50% of his base salary and which may range from 0% to 100% of that year's base salary. This agreement provided that his bonus for 2002 would be at least $150,000. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, the Board of Directors granted Mr. Giromini an option to purchase 125,000 shares of the Corporation's common stock at an exercise price of $8.65 per share. Two-thirds of these options will vest on the second anniversary of Mr. Giromini's employment and on the next anniversary thereafter, the remaining one-third of these options will vest. Mr. Giromini was also issued a grant of restricted stock for foregone equity in his previous employer. This agreement is described in further detail elsewhere in the proxy statement in which this report is included.

The employment agreement with Mr. Giromini provides that the Corporation pay the relocation expenses for Mr. Giromini and his family for the costs incurred in moving his residence to the Lafayette, Indiana area. The agreement also provides that the Corporation reimburse Mr. Giromini up to $5,000 per month for six months for lodging, as well as reimburse him for the travel expenses he incurs commuting on the weekends to his former home.

In the event that the Corporation terminates Mr. Giromini's employment without cause, or it is terminated by Mr. Giromini as a result of a material diminishment of his position, duties or responsibilities, the assignment by the Corporation to Mr. Giromini of substantial additional duties or responsibilities which are inconsistent with the duties or responsibilities then being carried out by him and which are not duties of an executive nature, a material breach of this agreement by the Corporation, which is not corrected within twenty (20) business days of the receipt of a written notice specifying the breach, material fraud on the part of the Corporation, or the discontinuance of the active operation of business of the Corporation or its insolvency or bankruptcy, the Corporation will pay to him the sum of two times his then current base salary. In addition, all unvested options then held by Mr. Giromini shall become vested. If the Corporation terminates Mr. Giromini's employment without cause, upon the attainment of corporate objectives, he is entitled to receive a pro-rata portion of his bonus for the year in which he is terminated. Mr. Giromini has agreed not to compete with the Corporation during the term of his agreement and for a period of two years after termination for any reason.

In May 2002, the Corporation entered into a severance agreement with Mr. Dessimoz effective May 6, 2002 through May 6, 2004. The severance agreement provides that if the Corporation terminates his employment without cause or it is terminated by Mr. Dessimoz as a result of any prohibited reduction in Mr. Dessimoz' base salary, fringe benefits or bonus eligibility, unless the reduction of fringe benefits or bonus eligibility is generally applicable to peer employees of the Corporation, Mr. Dessimoz has his responsibilities or areas of supervision substantially reduced, Mr. Dessimoz has his responsibilities or areas of supervision substantially increased without an appropriate increase in his compensation or Mr. Dessimoz is required to move his office more than 50 miles outside the metropolitan area in which Mr. Dessimoz' office was located immediately prior to the move, the Corporation is required to pay Mr. Dessimoz (i) the sum of Mr. Dessimoz' annual salary immediately prior to his promotion as acting Chief Executive Officer, with such amount being not less than $265,000, and any accrued vacation pay within 30 days of termination, (ii) an amount equal to 1.5 times the sum of Mr. Dessimoz' annual salary immediately prior to his promotion as acting Chief Executive Officer, with such amount being not less than $265,000, and 25% of such salary and (iii) insurance and health benefits for Mr. Dessimoz and his family for one and one-half years after the date of termination. In addition, all unvested options then held by Mr. Dessimoz become fully vested. Mr. Dessimoz' employment with the Corporation ended effective May 23, 2002 and pursuant to the terms of this agreement, he received in 2002, $193,229 of $496,875 cash compensation due.

In May 2002, the Corporation also entered into a severance agreement with Mr. Nagle effective May 6, 2002 through May 6, 2004. The severance agreement provides that if the Corporation terminates Mr. Nagle without cause or it is terminated by Mr. Nagle as a result of any prohibited reduction in Mr. Nagle's base salary, fringe benefits or bonus eligibility, unless the reduction of fringe benefits or bonus eligibility is generally applicable to peer employees of the Corporation, he has his responsibilities or areas of supervision substantially reduced, he has his responsibilities or areas of supervision substantially increased without an appropriate increase in his compensation or he is required to move his office more than 50 miles outside the metropolitan area in which his office was located immediately prior to the move, the Corporation is required to pay Mr. Nagle (i) the sum of Mr. Nagle's current annual salary or annual salary at the time of his termination, whichever is greater, and any accrued vacation pay within 30 days of termination, (ii) an amount equal to 1.5 times the sum of Mr. Nagle's current annual salary or annual salary at the time of his termination, whichever is greater, and the annual bonus that would be payable to him if all bonus plan performance targets were met and (iii) insurance and health benefits for Mr. Nagle and his family for one and one-half years after the date of termination. PROVISIONS OF THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION WITH ANTI-TAKEOVER EFFECTS

AUTHORIZED SHARES OF CAPITAL STOCK

The Certificate of Incorporation authorizes the issuance of up to 75,000,000 shares of Common Stock, 25,721,165 shares of which were issued and outstanding as of April 18, 2003, and up to 25,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, 352,000 shares of which were outstanding as of April 18, 2003. Additional shares of Preferred Stock with voting rights could be issued and would then represent an additional class of stock required to approve any proposed acquisition. In addition, such shares of Preferred Stock, together with authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock, could also represent additional capital required to be purchased by an acquirer. Issuance of such additional shares may also dilute the voting interest of the Corporation's stockholders.

On November 7, 1995, the Board of Directors adopted a Stockholder Rights Plan (the "Plan"). The Plan is designed to deter coercive or unfair takeover tactics, to prevent a person or group from gaining control of the Corporation without offering fair value to all shareholders and to deter other abusive takeover tactics which are not in the best interest of shareholders.

Under the terms of the Plan, each share of Common Stock is accompanied by one right; each right entitles the shareholder to purchase from the Corporation, one one-thousandth of a newly issued share of Series A Preferred Stock at an exercise price of $120.

The rights become exercisable ten days after a public announcement that an acquiring person or group (as defined in the Plan) has acquired 20% or more of the outstanding Common Stock of the Corporation (the "Stock Acquisition Date") or ten days after the commencement of a tender offer which would result in a person owning 20% or more of such shares. The Corporation can redeem the rights for $.01 per right at any time until ten days following the Stock Acquisition Date (the 10-day period can be shortened or lengthened by the Corporation). The rights will expire in November 2005, unless redeemed earlier by the Corporation.

If, subsequent to the rights becoming exercisable, the Corporation is acquired in a merger or other business combination at any time when there is a 20% or more holder, the rights will then entitle a holder to buy shares of the Acquiring Corporation with a market value equal to twice the exercise price of each right. Alternatively, if a 20% holder acquires the Corporation by means of a merger in which the Corporation and its stock survives, or if any person acquires 20% or more of the Corporation's Common Stock, each right not owned by a 20% or more shareholder, would become exercisable for Common Stock of the Corporation (or, in certain circumstances, other consideration) having a market value equal to twice the exercise price of the right.

VOTING PROCEDURES

Shares can be voted only if the stockholder is present in person or by proxy. Whether or not you plan to attend in person, you are encouraged to sign and return the enclosed proxy card. The representation in person or by proxy of at least a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote is necessary to provide a quorum at the meeting. Directors are elected by a plurality of the affirmative votes cast.

Abstentions and "non-votes" are counted as present in determining whether the quorum requirement is satisfied. Abstentions and "non-votes" are not counted for the election of director proposal. A "non-vote" occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner votes on one proposal, but does not vote on another proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.
