Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition

Item 8.01 Other Events

Attached, as Exhibit 99.1, is a press release disclosing a workers' compensation charge and updating the fourth quarter earnings guidance of SCS Transportation, Inc (the Company).

The Securities and Exchange Commission encourages companies to disclose forward-looking information so that investors can better understand the future prospects of a company and make informed investment decisions.

This current report and exhibit contain these types of statements, which are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

Words such as anticipate, estimate, expect, project, intend, plan, predict, believe and similar words or phrases are intended to identify forward-looking statements. We use such forward-looking statements regarding our future financial condition and results of operations and our business operations in this release. All forward-looking statements reflect the present expectation of future events of our management and are subject to a number of important factors, risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. These factors and risks include, but are not limited to, general economic conditions; labor relations; cost and availability of qualified drivers; governmental regulations, including but not limited to Hours of Service, engine emissions, compliance with recent legislation requiring companies to evaluate their internal control over financial reporting and Homeland Security; cost and availability of fuel; inclement weather; integration risks; competitive initiatives and pricing pressures; self-insurance claims, equity-based compensation and other expense volatility; and other financial, operational and legal risks and uncertainties detailed from time to time in the Company's SEC filings.
