Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 29, 2004, Allied Holdings, Inc. (the Company ), entered into an Amendment (the October Amendment ) to its vehicle delivery agreement with DaimlerChrysler Corporation (the Agreement ). The October Amendment extends the term of the Agreement from January 31, 2005 until September 30, 2005 and, effective October 1, 2004, increases the rates to be paid by DaimlerChrysler to the Company. In addition, under the terms of the Agreement, beginning in November 2004, the Company will cease performing all or a portion of its vehicle delivery services for DaimlerChrysler at six locations in North America. The Company generated approximately $13.5 million in revenues from these vehicle delivery services in 2003. The Company will continue to serve DaimlerChrysler at 24 locations in North America. The Company s operations for DaimlerChrysler at these 24 locations generated approximately $80.2 million in revenues in 2003.

A copy of the October Amendment and the Company s press release announcing the execution of the October Amendment are filed herewith.
