Table of ContentsPROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS*MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

The Boards of Directors of BancorpSouth, Inc. and Premier Bancorp, Inc. have approved a merger agreement to merge our two companies. If Premier Bancorp shareholders vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger is completed, Premier Bancorp will merge with and into BancorpSouth, Premier Bancorp's subsidiary bank, Premier Bank of Brentwood, will merge with and into BancorpSouth Bank, a subsidiary of BancorpSouth, and Premier Bancorp shareholders, other than Premier Bancorp shareholders who properly exercise their rights to dissent from the merger, will have the opportunity to elect to receive in exchange for each share of Premier Bancorp common stock they own 2.1785 shares of BancorpSouth common stock, a cash payment of $50.07 or a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock. If you hold more than one share of Premier Bancorp common stock, you may elect a combination of stock and cash consideration. In the merger, the percentage of shares of Premier Bancorp common stock that will be exchangeable into the right to receive shares of BancorpSouth common stock is fixed at 51%. In order to ensure that the merger qualifies as a reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and as a result of the 51% limitation, regardless of your election, you may receive a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock that is different than what you may have elected, depending on the elections made by other Premier Bancorp shareholders.

The number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock that Premier Bancorp shareholders may receive in the merger is fixed. The dollar value of the stock consideration that Premier Bancorp shareholders may receive will change depending on fluctuations in the market price of BancorpSouth common stock and will not be known at the time Premier Bancorp's shareholders vote on the merger. The following table shows the closing price per share of BancorpSouth common stock reported on the New York Stock Exchange on September 16, 2004, the last trading day before we announced the merger, and on [], 2004, the last practicable trading day before the distribution of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. This table also shows the implied value of the stock consideration proposed for each share of Premier Bancorp common stock, which we calculated by multiplying the closing price of BancorpSouth common stock on those dates by 2.1785, the exchange ratio. You should obtain current market quotations for the shares of BancorpSouth common stock from a newspaper, the Internet or your broker. BancorpSouth common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol BXS.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What is the proposed transaction?

A: A merger in which Premier Bancorp, Inc. will merge with and into BancorpSouth, Inc. and Premier Bancorp's subsidiary bank, Premier Bank of Brentwood, will merge with and into BancorpSouth Bank, a subsidiary of BancorpSouth. After the merger, you will no longer own shares of Premier Bancorp common stock and will receive either cash or shares of BancorpSouth common stock or a combination of both.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After you carefully read this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, please vote your proxy promptly by indicating on the enclosed proxy card how you want to vote, and by signing and mailing the proxy card in the enclosed postage paid business reply envelope as soon as possible so that your shares may be represented at the special meeting of shareholders. Also, please fill out your election form and letter of transmittal according to their instructions and mail the election form and the letter of transmittal, along with all of your Premier Bancorp stock certificates, in the enclosed envelope to SunTrust Bank, Atlanta, N.A. as soon as possible so that we may know the amount of each type of consideration you wish to receive.

Regardless of whether you plan to attend the special meeting in person, we encourage you to vote your proxy promptly. This will help to ensure that a quorum is present at the special meeting and will help reduce the costs associated with the solicitation of proxies.

The Board of Directors of Premier Bancorp unanimously recommends that shareholders vote For approval of the merger agreement.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: Under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, the merger agreement must be approved by a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast by shareholders of Premier Bancorp. Accordingly, if you abstain, it will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have delivered my proxy card?

A: You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at your meeting. You can do this in any of the following three ways:

by sending a written notice to the chief executive officer of Premier Bancorp in time to be received before the special meeting stating that you would like to revoke your proxy;

by completing, signing and dating another proxy card and returning it by mail in time to be received before the special meeting, in which case your later-submitted proxy will be recorded and your earlier proxy revoked; or if you are a holder of record, by attending the special meeting and voting in person, although attendance by itself will not revoke a previously granted proxy.

If your shares are held in an account at a broker, you should contact your broker to change your vote.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: You should instruct your broker to vote your shares, following the directions your broker provides. Your broker will generally not have the discretion to vote your shares without your instructions.

Q: Will I be able to trade the shares of BancorpSouth common stock I receive in the merger?

A: Yes. The BancorpSouth common stock issued pursuant to the merger will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and will be listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol BXS. All shares of BancorpSouth common stock that you receive in the merger will be freely transferable unless you are deemed an affiliate of Premier Bancorp prior to the merger. Persons who are considered affiliates of Premier Bancorp (generally directors, officers and holders of 10% or more of Premier Bancorp common stock) must comply with Rule 145 under the Securities Act of 1933 if they wish to sell or otherwise transfer any of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock they receive in the merger.

Q: What will I receive in connection with the merger?

A: You may elect to receive cash, shares of BancorpSouth common stock or a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock by indicating your preference on the enclosed election form. The Proxy Statement/Prospectus explains in more detail what amount of cash and/or BancorpSouth common stock each shareholder of Premier Bancorp is entitled to receive. The percentage of shares of Premier Bancorp common stock that will be exchangeable for the right to receive shares of BancorpSouth common stock is fixed at 51%. In the event that more or less than 51% of the outstanding shares of Premier Bancorp common stock elect to receive common stock consideration, the amount of BancorpSouth common stock that you will have the right to receive upon exchange of your shares of Premier Bancorp common stock will be adjusted so that, in the aggregate, 51% of the shares of Premier Bancorp common stock will be exchanged for the right to receive shares of BancorpSouth common stock and the remaining shares of Premier Bancorp common stock will be exchanged for the right to receive cash. As a result, you may receive a different combination of consideration than you elected, based on the choices made by other Premier Bancorp shareholders and certain tax-related adjustments, if necessary.

Q: What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to the shareholders?

A: If you exchange your shares of Premier Bancorp common stock solely for BancorpSouth common stock, you should not recognize any gain or loss (except with respect to the cash you receive instead of a fractional share) for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If you exchange your shares of Premier Bancorp common stock solely for cash, you should recognize gain or loss on the exchange. If you exchange your shares of Premier Bancorp common stock for a combination of BancorpSouth common stock and cash, you should recognize gain, but not loss, on the exchange to the extent of the lesser of cash received or gain realized in the exchange.

This tax treatment may not apply to all Premier Bancorp shareholders. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the merger's tax consequences that are particular to you.

Q: What is the purpose of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus?

A: This document serves as Premier Bancorp's proxy statement and as BancorpSouth's prospectus. As a proxy statement, this document is being provided to Premier Bancorp shareholders because Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors is soliciting proxies to vote to approve the merger agreement. As a prospectus, this document is being provided to Premier Bancorp shareholders by BancorpSouth because BancorpSouth is offering them shares of BancorpSouth common stock in exchange for their shares of Premier Bancorp common stock if the merger is completed.

Q: Is there other information I should consider?

A: Yes. Much of the business and financial information about BancorpSouth that may be important to you is not included directly in this document. Instead, this information is incorporated into this document by references to documents separately filed by BancorpSouth with the Securities and Exchange Commission. This means that BancorpSouth may satisfy its disclosure obligations to you by referring you to one or more documents separately filed by it with the SEC. See WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION

Q: What if I choose not to read the documents incorporated by reference?

A: Information that is incorporated from another document is considered to have been disclosed to you whether or not you choose to read the document. Information contained in a document that is incorporated into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus by reference is part of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, unless it is superseded by information contained directly in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus or in documents filed by BancorpSouth with the SEC after the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Q: Why have I been sent an election form?

A: If the merger agreement is approved and the merger is completed, unless you exercise your right to dissent from the merger, each share of Premier Bancorp common stock held by you will be converted into the right to receive, at your election, $50.07 in cash, a number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock as determined by the exchange ratio or a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock, with cash to be paid in lieu of any remaining fractional share interest. The election form is the document provided to you to select the amount of each type of consideration you wish to receive.

Q: What happens if I do not send in my election form?

A: If you do not make an election, you will be deemed to have made an election to receive the merger consideration in such form of cash and/or shares of BancorpSouth common stock as BancorpSouth shall determine consistent with the terms of the merger agreement.

Q: Should I send in my Premier Bancorp stock certificates now?

A: Yes. After you carefully read this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, please choose which form(s) of consideration you would like to receive if the merger is consummated by indicating your choice on the enclosed election form, signing the enclosed letter of transmittal and mailing both, along with all stock certificates representing shares of Premier Bancorp common stock that you own, in the enclosed envelope to SunTrust Bank, Atlanta, N.A., the exchange agent. To be properly completed, your election form together with the appropriate stock certificate(s) and letter of transmittal must be received by the transfer agent by [], 2004, two business days before the date of the special meeting.

Q: Whom do I contact if I have questions about the merger?

As of September 30, 2004, BancorpSouth had total assets of approximately $10.6 billion, deposits of approximately $8.8 billion and shareholders' equity of approximately $875.1 million.

PREMIER BANCORP, INC.
5217 Maryland Way
Brentwood, Tennessee 37027
(615) 376-0001

Premier Bancorp is incorporated in Tennessee, based in Brentwood, Tennessee and conducts its operations through its subsidiary bank, Premier Bank of Brentwood. Premier Bancorp's subsidiary conducts commercial banking, trust and insurance business through its office in Brentwood Tennessee. As of September 30, 2004, Premier Bancorp had total assets of approximately $152.5 million, deposits of approximately $103.3 million and shareholders' equity of approximately $9.9 million.

The Merger (Page 27)

BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp entered into a merger agreement whereby Premier Bancorp will merge with and into BancorpSouth, subject to shareholder and regulatory approval and other conditions. The merger agreement is attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Annex A. You should read it carefully. Subject to shareholder and regulatory approval, BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp hope to complete the merger during the fourth quarter of 2004.

What Premier Bancorp Shareholders Will Receive in the Merger (Page 44)

Premier Bancorp shareholders, other than Premier Bancorp shareholders who properly exercise their rights to dissent from the merger, will have the opportunity to elect to receive in exchange for each share of Premier Bancorp common stock they own 2.1785 shares of BancorpSouth common stock (which is referred to as the exchange ratio), with cash to be paid in lieu of any remaining fractional share interest, or a cash payment of $50.07 or a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock, if the merger is completed. If you hold more than one share of Premier Bancorp common stock, you may elect a combination of stock and cash consideration. The exchange ratio is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect any change in the market price of BancorpSouth common stock. Regardless of your election, you may receive a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock that is different than what you may have elected, depending on the elections made by other Premier Bancorp shareholders and certain tax-related adjustments, if necessary.

BancorpSouth will not issue any fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock. Instead, a Premier Bancorp shareholder who receives any shares of BancorpSouth common stock as consideration in the merger will receive cash equal to $22.984 times the fraction of a share of BancorpSouth common stock to which the shareholder otherwise would be entitled.

If the merger is completed, each outstanding and unexercised option to purchase shares of Premier Bancorp common stock will no longer represent a right to acquire shares of Premier Bancorp common stock and will be considered an option to purchase shares of BancorpSouth common stock. The number of shares underlying each new option, as well as the exercise price, will be adjusted based on the exchange ratio.

At the effective time of the merger, persons who are BancorpSouth shareholders immediately prior to the merger would own approximately 99.5% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company and persons who are Premier Bancorp shareholders immediately prior to the merger would own approximately 0.5% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company.

BancorpSouth's Stock Price Will Fluctuate (Page 43, 55)

BancorpSouth expects the market price of its common stock to fluctuate as a result of market factors beyond its control before and after the merger. Because the exchange ratio is fixed and the market price of BancorpSouth common stock may fluctuate, the value of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock that Premier Bancorp shareholders may receive in the merger might increase or decrease prior to completion of the merger. BancorpSouth cannot assure Premier Bancorp shareholders that the market price of BancorpSouth common stock will not decrease before or after completion of the merger. The following table shows the closing price per share of BancorpSouth common stock reported on the New York Stock Exchange on September 16, 2004, the last trading day before we announced the merger, and on [], 2004, the last practicable trading day before the distribution of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. You should obtain current market quotations for the shares of BancorpSouth common stock from a newspaper, the Internet or your broker. BancorpSouth common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol BXS.

recommends that Premier Bancorp shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement. This belief is based on a number of factors described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Vote Required to Complete the Merger (Page 25)

Under Tennessee law, the merger agreement must be approved by a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast by shareholders of Premier Bancorp. Premier Bancorp expects that its executive officers and directors will vote all of their shares of Premier Bancorp common stock in favor of the merger agreement.

The following chart describes the Premier Bancorp shareholder vote required to approve the merger agreement:

Number of shares of Premier Bancorp common stock outstanding on [], 2004	603,000

Percentage of outstanding shares of Premier Bancorp common stock necessary to approve the merger agreement	>50%

Record Date; Voting Power (Page 25)

You can vote at the special meeting of Premier Bancorp shareholders if you owned Premier Bancorp common stock as of the close of business on [], 2004, the record date set by Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors. Each share of Premier Bancorp common stock is entitled to one vote. On [], 2004, there were 603,000 shares of Premier Bancorp common stock outstanding and entitled to vote on the merger agreement.

Background of the Merger (Page 27)

On May 27, 2004, Premier Bancorp engaged Hovde Financial LLC, to act as its exclusive agent to provide investment banking and financial advisory services in relation to the evaluation, structure and possible negotiation of a potential business combination. After reviewing the information delivered by Hovde Financial and considering its own strategic plans, on August 11, 2004, BancorpSouth's management submitted a proposal for a merger with Premier Bancorp. After considering the resulting proposals, the management of Premier Bancorp, in consultation with Hovde Financial, elected to enter into exclusive negotiations with BancorpSouth. The parties and their representatives began negotiation of a merger agreement on August 31, 2004 and continued to negotiate the terms of the merger agreement until September 14, 2004.

On August 25, 2004, BancorpSouth's Board of Directors approved the merger agreement. On September 14, 2004, following presentations from its legal and financial advisors, Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors unanimously approved the merger agreement. The merger agreement was executed by the parties as of September 17, 2004.

Why BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp are Seeking to Merge (Page 28)

The merger will combine the strengths of BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp and their subsidiary banks. BancorpSouth has an established presence in Brentwood, Tennessee with plans to grow steadily in that market. Joining with BancorpSouth will provide Premier Bancorp's customers opportunities offered by a large, resourceful, community-minded bank. Two years ago BancorpSouth established a loan production office in Brentwood's Maryland

Farms area and has since expanded the office to full-service banking. BancorpSouth has been actively seeking other banking locations in the Brentwood and Franklin areas to expand its presence in Williamson County. This new partnership accelerates BancorpSouth's opportunity to grow in Williamson County and brings to BancorpSouth's team a number of outstanding bankers. BancorpSouth currently has 33 banking locations with combined deposits exceeding $1.0 billion in 20 Tennessee cities, primarily in Memphis, Jackson and the West Tennessee area. BancorpSouth sees Brentwood, Tennessee and Williamson County as a logical growth area for its community style of banking. Williamson County is ranked third in the U.S. with most growth potential and prosperity by American City Business Journal.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to Premier Bancorp (Page 30)

Hovde Financial has delivered to the Board of Directors of Premier Bancorp its written opinion, dated September 16, 2004, that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in its opinion, the total transaction consideration to be paid to the shareholders of Premier Bancorp is fair from a financial point of view as of such date. In requesting Hovde Financial's advice and opinion, no instructions were given and no limitations were imposed by Premier Bancorp upon Hovde Financial with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion.

The full text of the opinion of Hovde Financial, dated September 16, 2004, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex C to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Premier Bancorp shareholders should read this opinion in its entirety.

Management and Board of Directors of BancorpSouth Following the Merger (Page 54)

The officers and directors of each of BancorpSouth and BancorpSouth Bank immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will continue to be the officers and directors of BancorpSouth and BancorpSouth Bank, respectively, following the merger. Certain of the executive officers of Premier Bancorp will be retained by BancorpSouth and may serve as officers of BancorpSouth Bank but will not serve as executive officers of BancorpSouth.

Federal Income Tax Consequences (Page 36)

Your U.S. federal income tax consequences will depend primarily on whether you exchange your shares of Premier Bancorp common stock solely for BancorpSouth common stock, solely for cash or for a combination of BancorpSouth common stock and cash. If you exchange your shares of Premier Bancorp common stock solely for BancorpSouth common stock, you should not recognize any gain or loss (except with respect to the cash you receive instead of a fractional share) for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If you exchange your shares of Premier Bancorp common stock solely for cash, you should recognize gain or loss on the exchange. If you exchange your shares of Premier Bancorp common stock for a combination of BancorpSouth common stock and cash, you should recognize a gain, but not any loss, on the exchange to the extent of the lesser of cash received or gain realized in the exchange. The actual U.S. federal income tax consequences to you of electing to receive cash, BancorpSouth common stock or a combination of both will not be ascertainable at the time you make your election because we will not know at that time if, or to what extent, the allocation and proration procedures will apply.

This tax treatment may not apply to all shareholders of Premier Bancorp. Determining the actual tax consequences of the merger to you can be complicated. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the merger's tax consequences that are particular to you.

BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp will not be obligated to complete the merger unless they each receive an opinion from their respective legal counsel, dated the closing date, that the merger will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and that BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp will each be a party to that reorganization. If such opinions are rendered, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the merger should be as described above. The opinions of the parties' respective counsel, however, do not bind the Internal Revenue Service and do not preclude the IRS or the courts from adopting a contrary position.

Accounting Treatment (Page 35)

BancorpSouth will account for the merger under the purchase method of accounting for business combinations under United States generally accepted accounting principles.

Interests of Premier Bancorp Management and Directors in the Merger (Page 42)

Executive officers and directors of Premier Bancorp will be issued shares of BancorpSouth common stock in the merger on the same basis as other shareholders of Premier Bancorp. The following chart shows the number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock that may be issued to affiliates of Premier Bancorp in the merger (including shares reserved for issuance upon exercise of stock options):

Shares of common stock of Premier Bancorp beneficially owned by its executive officers, directors and holders of more than 5% of Premier Bancorp common stock on [], 2004	414,750
Maximum number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock that may be received in the merger by executive officers, directors and holders of more than 5% of Premier Bancorp common stock based upon their beneficial ownership	903,535

Five of Premier Bancorp's executive officers will receive bonuses as part of the merger and in consideration for terminating their existing employment agreements with Premier Bancorp and four of these executive officers of Premier Bancorp will enter into employment agreements with BancorpSouth.

Premier Bancorp Shareholders May Dissent from the Merger (Page 39)

Tennessee law permits Premier Bancorp shareholders to dissent from the merger and to receive the fair value of their shares of Premier Bancorp common stock in cash. To dissent, a Premier Bancorp shareholder must follow certain procedures, including filing certain notices with Premier Bancorp and voting his or her shares against the merger agreement. The shares of Premier Bancorp common stock held by a dissenter will not be exchanged for stock consideration or cash consideration in the merger and a dissenter's only right will be to receive the fair value of his or her shares of Premier Bancorp common stock in cash. A copy of the Tennessee statutes describing these dissenters' rights and the procedures for exercising them is attached as Annex B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Premier Bancorp shareholders who perfect their dissenters' rights and receive cash in exchange for their shares of Premier Bancorp common stock may recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

We Must Obtain Regulatory Approvals to Complete the Merger (Page 35)

We cannot complete the merger unless we obtain the approval of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The U.S. Department of Justice has input into the FDIC's approval process. Once the FDIC has approved the merger, federal law requires that we wait up to 30 calendar days to complete the merger in order to give the Department of Justice the opportunity to review and object to the merger. BancorpSouth expects to obtain approval of the merger from the FDIC on December 11, 2004 and expects the waiting period to expire on December 26, 2004.

In addition, the merger is subject to the approval of the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance and the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions. BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp have filed all of the required notices and applications, as appropriate, with these state regulatory authorities, and approval of the merger is expected to be received prior to approval of the merger agreement by the shareholders of Premier Bancorp.

We also intend to make all required filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 relating to the merger.

Table of Contents

While we believe that we will obtain the remaining regulatory approvals in a timely manner, we cannot be certain if or when we will obtain them.

Conditions to Complete the Merger (Page 52)

The completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being met, including the following:

shareholders of Premier Bancorp approving the merger;

the New York Stock Exchange authorizing for listing the shares of BancorpSouth common stock to be issued to Premier Bancorp shareholders; receipt of all required regulatory approvals, including that of the FDIC, and the expiration of any regulatory waiting periods;

BancorpSouth's registration statement on Form S-4 shall have become effective under the Securities Act of 1933;

the holders of less than 5% of the total outstanding shares of Premier Bancorp common stock shall have exercised dissenters' rights with respect to the merger;

receipt of opinions of legal counsel to each company that the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the merger will generally be as described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus;

BancorpSouth shall have received the consent of all of the holders of options to purchase shares of Premier Bancorp common stock to the conversion of such options into options to purchase shares of BancorpSouth common stock in an amount and at an exercise price based on the exchange ratio;

BancorpSouth shall have received an executed employment agreement in form and substance satisfactory to BancorpSouth from Jim Harris, Diane West, Bill Ellis and Chris Marchetti; and BancorpSouth shall have succeeded to Premier Bancorp's rights, interests and obligations pursuant to the indenture, dated as of October 29, 2002, regarding certain floating rate junior subordinated debt securities due in 2032, and the current trustees of Premier Bancorp's special purpose trust subsidiary shall have resigned and successor trustees acceptable to BancorpSouth shall have been appointed.

In cases where the law permits, a party to the merger agreement could elect to waive a condition that has not been satisfied and complete the merger although the party is entitled not to complete the merger. We cannot be certain whether or when any of these conditions will be satisfied (or waived, where permissible) or that the merger will be completed.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (Page 53)

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, whether before or after approval of the merger by Premier Bancorp shareholders, as set forth in the merger agreement, including by mutual consent of BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp. In addition, the merger agreement may generally be terminated by either party if:

a governmental entity denies or withdraws a request or application for a required regulatory approval (subject to a 60-day waiting period) or issues a final nonappealable order enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger;

the merger is not completed on or before February 28, 2005;

Table of Contents

Premier Bancorp shareholders fail to approve the merger agreement; or any of the representations or warranties provided by the other party set forth in the merger agreement become untrue or incorrect or the other party materially breaches its covenants set forth in the merger agreement, and the representation or material breach is not cured within the prescribed time limit.

BancorpSouth may terminate the merger agreement if Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors has withdrawn, modified or changed, in a manner adverse to BancorpSouth, its approval and recommendation of the merger agreement, or if Premier Bancorp enters into a letter of intent or agreement related or with respect to any tender or exchange offer, proposal for a merger, consolidation or other business combination involving Premier Bancorp or any offer to acquire all or a substantial portion of the assets of Premier Bancorp.

Generally, a party can only terminate the merger agreement in one of these situations if that party is not in violation of the merger agreement or if its violations of the merger agreement are not the cause of the event permitting termination.

Comparative Per Share Market Price Information (Page 55)

Shares of BancorpSouth common stock are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol BXS. On September 16, 2004, the last full trading day prior to the public announcement of the merger, the closing sales price of BancorpSouth common stock was $23.15 per share. On [], 2004, the last practicable trading day before the distribution of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the closing sales price of BancorpSouth common stock was $[] per share. Of course, the market price of BancorpSouth common stock is expected to fluctuate prior to and after completion of the merger, while the exchange ratio is fixed. You should obtain current market quotations for the shares of BancorpSouth common stock from a newspaper, the Internet or your broker.

There is no established public trading market for shares of Premier Bancorp common stock, which is inactively traded in private transactions. However, Wiley Bros.-Aintree Capital, LLC in Nashville, Tennessee effects limited trades for Premier Bancorp shareholders. Since November 2003, there have been trades for approximately 2,000 shares of Premier Bancorp common stock. The per share sales price for these trades has ranged from a low of $15.50 to a high of $20.

RISK FACTORS

The merger involves a number of risks. In addition to the risks described below, the combined companies will continue to be subject to the risks described in the documents that BancorpSouth has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission that are incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, including without limitation, BancorpSouth's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. If any of the risks described below or in the documents incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus actually occur, the business, financial condition, results of operations or cash flows of the combined companies could be materially adversely affected. The risks below should be considered along with the other information included or incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

You May Not Receive the Form of Merger Consideration that You Elect.

The merger agreement contains provisions that are generally designed to ensure that 51% of the outstanding shares of Premier Bancorp common stock are exchanged for shares of BancorpSouth common stock and the other 49% of the shares are exchanged for cash consideration, subject to a tax-related adjustment. If elections are made by Premier Bancorp shareholders that would otherwise result in more or less than 51% of such shares being converted into BancorpSouth common stock, either those electing to receive all or a portion of their consideration in cash or those electing to receive all or a portion of their consideration in shares of BancorpSouth common stock will have the consideration of the type they selected reduced by a pro rata amount and will receive a portion of their consideration in the form that they did not elect to receive. Accordingly, there is a risk that you will not receive a portion of the merger consideration in the form that you elect, which could result in, among other things, tax consequences that differ from those that would have resulted had you received the form of consideration you elected (including the recognition of gain for federal income tax purposes with respect to the cash received). If you do not make an election, you will be deemed to have made an election to receive the merger consideration in such form of cash and/or shares of BancorpSouth common stock as BancorpSouth shall determine.

Because the Market Price of BancorpSouth Common Stock Will Fluctuate, You Cannot Be Sure of the Value of the Stock Consideration You May Receive.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Premier Bancorp common stock will be converted into merger consideration consisting of shares of BancorpSouth common stock and/or cash pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. The implied value of the stock consideration that you may receive will be based on the number of shares of Premier Bancorp common stock you own and the market price of BancorpSouth common stock. This market price of BancorpSouth common stock may increase or decrease before or after completion of the merger and, therefore, the implied value of the stock consideration may vary from the implied value of the stock consideration on the date we announced the merger, the date that this Proxy Statement/Prospectus was mailed to Premier Bancorp shareholders and the date of the special meeting of the Premier Bancorp shareholders. The market price of the stock consideration may be more or less than the cash consideration upon completion of the merger. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in our respective businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond our control.

Accordingly, at the time of the Premier Bancorp special meeting, you will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the exact value of the stock consideration you would receive upon completion of the merger.

We May Fail to Achieve the Anticipated Benefits of the Merger.

BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect our ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger.

The Market Price of Shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock after the Merger May Be Affected by Factors Different from those Affecting Shares of Premier Bancorp or BancorpSouth Currently.

The businesses of BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp differ in some respects and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp. For a discussion of the businesses of BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see INFORMATION ABOUT BANCORPSOUTH and INFORMATION ABOUT PREMIER BANCORP beginning on pages 56 and 57, respectively.

The Executive Officers and Directors of Premier Bancorp Have Interests Different from Typical Premier Bancorp Shareholders.

The executive officers and directors of Premier Bancorp have certain interests in the merger and participate in certain arrangements that are different from, or are in addition to, those of Premier Bancorp shareholders generally. See THE MERGER Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger. As a result, these executive officers and directors could be more likely to approve the merger agreement than if they did not hold these interests.

Former Shareholders of Premier Bancorp Will be Limited in their Ability to Influence BancorpSouth's Actions and Decisions Following the Merger.

Following the merger, former shareholders of Premier Bancorp will hold less than one percent of the outstanding shares of BancorpSouth common stock. As a result, former Premier Bancorp shareholders will have only limited ability to influence BancorpSouth's business. Former Premier Bancorp shareholders will not have separate approval rights with respect to any actions or decisions of BancorpSouth or have separate representation on BancorpSouth's Board of Directors.

The Merger May Result in a Loss of Current Premier Bancorp Employees.

Despite BancorpSouth's efforts to retain quality employees, BancorpSouth might lose some of Premier Bancorp's current employees following the merger. Current Premier Bancorp employees may not want to work for a larger, publicly-traded company instead of a smaller, privately-held company or may not want to assume different duties, positions and compensation that BancorpSouth offers to the Premier Bancorp employees. Competitors may recruit employees prior to the merger and during the integration process after the merger. As a result, current employees of Premier Bancorp could leave with little or no prior notice. BancorpSouth cannot assure you that the combined companies will be able to attract, retain and integrate employees following the merger.

[], 2004
5:30 p.m. (Central Time)
Premier Bank of Brentwood

A Premier Bancorp shareholder may revoke any proxy given in connection with this solicitation by:

delivering to Premier Bancorp a written notice revoking the proxy prior to the taking of the vote at the Premier Bancorp special meeting; delivering a duly executed proxy relating to the same shares bearing a later date; or attending the meeting and voting in person (attendance at the Premier Bancorp special meeting without voting at the meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation of a proxy).

Revocation of proxy by written notice or execution of a new proxy bearing a later date should be submitted to:

5217 Maryland Way
Brentwood, Tennessee 37027
Attention: James D. Harris, Chairman and CEO

For a notice of revocation or later proxy to be valid, however, Premier Bancorp must receive it prior to the vote of Premier Bancorp shareholders at the Premier Bancorp special meeting. Premier Bancorp will vote all shares of Premier Bancorp common stock represented by valid proxies received through this solicitation and not revoked before they are exercised in the manner described above.

Please do not forward your Premier Bancorp stock certificates, election form and letter of transmittal with your proxy card. Stock certificates, election forms and letters of transmittal should be returned to the exchange agent in accordance with the instructions contained in the election form.

If necessary, Premier Bancorp may use several of its regular employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from Premier Bancorp shareholders, either personally or by telephone, facsimile or mail.

Record Date and Voting Rights

Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors has fixed [], 2004 as the record date for the determination of Premier Bancorp shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at Premier Bancorp's special meeting of shareholders. Accordingly, only Premier Bancorp shareholders of record at the close of business on [], 2004 will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Premier Bancorp special meeting. At the close of business on Premier Bancorp's record date, there were 603,000 shares of Premier Bancorp common stock entitled to vote at the Premier Bancorp special meeting held by approximately 221 holders of record, and the executive officers and directors of Premier Bancorp beneficially owned 41.4% of the outstanding shares of Premier Bancorp common stock.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the shareholder of Premier Bancorp common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum at the special meeting. Each share of Premier Bancorp common stock outstanding on Premier Bancorp's record date entitles its holder to one vote as to the approval of the merger agreement or any other proposal that may properly come before Premier Bancorp's special meeting.

For purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business, Premier Bancorp will count shares of Premier Bancorp common stock present in person at the special meeting but not voting as present at the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will also be counted as present at the Premier Bancorp special meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists.

Under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, the merger agreement must be approved by a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast by shareholders of Premier Bancorp. Because approval of the merger agreement requires approval of all the votes entitled to be cast, an abstention or a broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement. Accordingly, Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors urges Premier Bancorp shareholders to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed postage paid business reply envelope.

Recommendation of Board of Directors

Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement. Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of Premier Bancorp and Premier Bancorp shareholders and recommends that Premier Bancorp shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement. The conclusion of Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors with respect to the merger is based on a number of factors, as described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. See THE MERGER Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Board of Directors.

Shareholders Dissenters Rights

Shareholders of Premier Bancorp who do not wish to accept BancorpSouth common stock in the merger will be entitled under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act to receive the fair value of their shares. This right to dissent is subject to a number of restrictions and technical requirements. Generally, in order to exercise dissenters rights, you must:

deliver to Premier Bancorp, before the vote on the merger agreement is taken, written notice of your intent to demand payment for your shares if the merger agreement is approved and the merger is completed; and not vote such shares of Premier Bancorp common stock in favor of the merger agreement.

Any Premier Bancorp shareholder who wishes to exercise dissenters rights, or who wishes to preserve his or her right to do so, should carefully review Sections 48-23-101 et seq. of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, a copy of which is attached as Annex B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and the section entitled THE MERGER Shareholders Dissenters Rights.

Certain Matters Relating to Proxy Materials

The rules regarding delivery of proxy statements may be satisfied by delivering a single proxy statement to an address shared by two or more shareholders. This method of delivery is referred to as householding and can result in meaningful cost savings. In order to take advantage of this opportunity, we may deliver only one proxy statement to certain multiple shareholders who share an address, unless we have received contrary instructions from one or more of the shareholders. We undertake to deliver promptly upon request a separate copy of the proxy statement, as requested, to a shareholder at a shared address to which a single copy of these documents was delivered. If you hold Premier Bancorp common stock as a registered shareholder and prefer to receive separate copies of a proxy statement, please call (615) 376-0001 or send a written request to:

Premier Bancorp, Inc.
5217 Maryland Way
Brentwood, Tennessee 37027
Attention: James D. Harris, Chairman and CEO

If your Premier Bancorp common stock is held through a broker or bank and you prefer to receive separate copies of a proxy statement, please contact such broker or bank.

THE MERGER

The discussion in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus of the merger of Premier Bancorp into BancorpSouth does not purport to be complete and is qualified by reference to the full text of the merger agreement and the other annexes attached to, and incorporated by reference into, this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Description of the Merger

If the merger is completed, Premier Bancorp will merge with and into BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp's subsidiary bank will merge with and into BancorpSouth Bank, a subsidiary of BancorpSouth. Premier Bancorp shareholders, other than Premier Bancorp shareholders who properly exercise their rights to dissent from the merger, will have the opportunity to elect to receive in exchange for each share of Premier Bancorp common stock they own 2.1785 shares of BancorpSouth common stock, a cash payment of $50.07 or a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock. Holders of more than one share of Premier Bancorp common stock may elect a combination of stock and cash consideration. In the merger, 51% of the outstanding shares of Premier Bancorp common stock shall be exchanged for BancorpSouth common stock. In order to ensure that the merger qualifies as a reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and as a result of the 51% limitation, regardless of your election, you may receive a combination of cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock that is different than what you may have elected, depending on the elections made by other Premier Bancorp shareholders. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Cash or Stock Election.

BancorpSouth will not issue any fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock. Instead, a Premier Bancorp shareholder who receives any shares of BancorpSouth common stock as consideration in the merger will receive cash equal to $22.984 times the fraction of a share of BancorpSouth common stock to which the shareholder otherwise would be entitled.

Tennessee law permits Premier Bancorp shareholders to dissent from the merger and to receive the fair value of their shares of Premier Bancorp common stock in cash. To dissent, a Premier Bancorp shareholder must follow certain procedures, including filing certain notices with Premier Bancorp and not voting his or her shares in favor of the merger agreement. The shares of Premier Bancorp common stock held by a dissenter will not be exchanged for stock consideration or cash consideration in the merger and a dissenter's only right will be to receive the appraised fair value of his or her shares of Premier Bancorp common stock in cash. For a discussion of the procedures that dissenting shareholders must follow to properly exercise their rights, please see THE MERGER Shareholders Dissenters Rights.

Background of the Merger

The management of Premier Bancorp periodically has explored, assessed and discussed with the Premier Bancorp Board of Directors strategic options potentially available to Premier Bancorp. These strategic discussions have included the possibility of business combinations involving Premier Bancorp and other financial institutions, particularly in view of the increasing competition and continuing consolidation in the financial services industry, as well as maximizing its performance as an independent company. In September 2003, at the Board of Directors strategic planning meeting, the Board directed management to investigate the:

alternatives of raising additional capital for purposes of expanding through additional branch locations, providing more technology options to deliver products and services, and broadening the product base in general; and opportunities to enter into a business combination to achieve similar goals.

At the subsequent monthly Board of Directors meetings, the discussions of these alternatives continued with management making certain reports to the Board of Directors on their investigations. Because part of these investigations included authorizing management to pursue potential alternatives for a strategic business combination, various investment bankers were asked to make presentations to management and the Board of Directors. After an extensive interview process, on May 27, 2004, Premier Bancorp engaged Hovde Financial to act as its exclusive agent to provide investment banking and financial advisory services in relation to the evaluation, structure and possible negotiation of a potential business combination.

A financial analysis was presented by Hovde Financial to the Board of Directors to determine what prices the Board of Directors might expect if Premier Bancorp was sold. At the direction of the Board of Directors, Hovde Financial conducted a bidding and negotiation process and a number of acquisition proposals were collected, negotiated and presented to the Board of Directors.

After reviewing the information delivered by Hovde Financial and considering its own strategic plans, on August 11, 2004, BancorpSouth's management submitted a proposal for a merger with Premier Bancorp. After considering the resulting proposals, the management of Premier Bancorp, in consultation with Hovde Financial, elected to enter into exclusive negotiations with BancorpSouth.

On August 26 and 27, 2004, representatives of BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp and their respective legal counsel and accountants met in Brentwood, Tennessee to conduct a due diligence review. The parties and their representatives began negotiation of a merger agreement on August 31, 2004 and continued to negotiate the terms of the merger agreement until September 14, 2004.

On August 25, 2004, BancorpSouth's Board of Directors met in a special meeting to consider the proposed merger between Premier Bancorp and BancorpSouth and the terms of the proposed merger agreement. The Board of Directors discussed the merger with its legal counsel, accountants and management. After further discussion among the directors, the merger agreement was approved by BancorpSouth's Board of Directors.

On September 14, 2004, Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors met in a special meeting to consider the proposed merger and the terms of the proposed merger agreement. The Board of Directors received presentations from its legal and financial advisors and from management regarding the merger. As part of the analysis provided by Hovde Financial, a fairness opinion, a copy of which is attached as Annex C to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, was presented to the Board. Following these presentations and discussions among the directors, the merger agreement was unanimously approved by Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors.

The merger agreement was executed by the parties as of September 17, 2004.

Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The merger will combine the strengths of BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp and their subsidiary banks. BancorpSouth has an established presence in Brentwood, Tennessee with plans to grow steadily in that market. Joining with BancorpSouth will provide Premier Bancorp's customers opportunities offered by a large, resourceful, community-minded bank. Two years ago BancorpSouth established a loan production office in Brentwood's Maryland Farms area and has since expanded the office to full-service banking. BancorpSouth has been actively seeking other banking locations in the Brentwood and Franklin areas to expand its presence in Williamson County. This new partnership accelerates BancorpSouth's opportunity to grow in Williamson County and brings to BancorpSouth's team a number of outstanding bankers. BancorpSouth currently has 33 banking locations with combined deposits exceeding $1.0 billion in 20 Tennessee cities, primarily in Memphis, Jackson and the West Tennessee area. BancorpSouth sees Brentwood, Tennessee and Williamson County as a logical growth area for its community style of banking. Williamson County is ranked third in the U.S. with most growth potential and prosperity by American City Business Journal.

Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors deliberated and unanimously approved the merger agreement at a Board meeting held on September 14, 2004. In reaching its determination to approve the merger agreement, Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors consulted with Premier Bancorp's management and legal advisors and considered a number of factors, including a fairness opinion presented by Hovde Financial. The following is a discussion of information and factors considered by Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors in reaching this determination. This discussion is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors. In the course of its deliberations with respect to the merger, Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors discussed the anticipated impact of the merger on Premier Bancorp, Premier Bancorp's shareholders and the communities that Premier Bancorp serves.

Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors did not identify any material disadvantages expected to result from the merger during these discussions. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the merger agreement, Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors did not assign any relative or specific weights to the factors considered in reaching such determination, and individual members of Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors may have given differing weights to different factors.

The following includes the material factors that were considered by Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors:

its familiarity with and review of Premier Bancorp's business, operations, earnings, and financial condition;

its review, based in part on the presentation by Premier Bancorp management and Hovde Financial regarding its due diligence of BancorpSouth, of the business, operations, earnings and financial conditions of BancorpSouth on both a historical and prospective basis, the enhanced opportunities for operating efficiencies (particularly in terms of integration of operations, data processing and support functions) that could result from the merger, the enhanced opportunities for growth that the merger would make possible and the respective contributions the parties would bring to a combined institution;

the presentation of a fairness opinion by Hovde Financial regarding the prices being paid for shares of Premier Bancorp common stock; its belief that the terms of the merger agreement are attractive because it allows Premier Bancorp's shareholders to become shareholders of BancorpSouth, an institution the recent earnings performance of which has been strong;

its review of alternatives to the merger (including the alternatives of remaining independent and growing internally, remaining independent for a period of time and then selling the company, and remaining independent and growing through future acquisitions);

its review of possible affiliation partners of Premier Bancorp other than BancorpSouth, the prospects of such other possible affiliation partners, and the likelihood of any such affiliation;

its belief, based upon an analysis of the anticipated financial effects of the merger, that upon consummation of the merger, BancorpSouth and its bank subsidiary will be well capitalized institutions, the financial positions of which would be in excess of all applicable regulatory capital requirements;

its belief that, in light of the reasons discussed above, BancorpSouth was the most attractive choice as a long-term affiliation partner of Premier Bancorp;

the expectation that the merger will generally be a tax-free transaction for Premier Bancorp and its shareholders to the extent such shareholders receive shares of BancorpSouth common stock;

its review, based in part on presentations by Premier Bancorp's management and legal counsel of the business, operations, technology, dividends, financial condition and earnings of BancorpSouth on a historical and a prospective basis and of the combined company on a pro forma basis;

the current and prospective economic and regulatory environment and competitive constraints facing the banking and financial institutions in Premier Bancorp's market area; and recent business combinations involving financial institutions, either announced or completed, during the past year in the United States, the State of Tennessee and contiguous states and the effect of such combinations on competitive conditions in Premier Bancorp's market area.

Based on a thorough evaluation of these factors, Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors believes the merger is in the best interests of Premier Bancorp and Premier Bancorp shareholders. Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors recommends that Premier Bancorp shareholders vote For approval of the merger agreement.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to Premier Bancorp

Hovde Financial has delivered to the Board of Directors of Premier Bancorp its written opinion, dated September 16, 2004, that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in its opinion, the total transaction consideration to be paid to the shareholders of Premier Bancorp is fair from a financial point of view as of such date. In requesting Hovde Financial's advice and opinion, no instructions were received nor were any limitations imposed by Premier Bancorp upon Hovde Financial with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion. The full text of the opinion of Hovde Financial, dated September 16, 2004, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex C to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Premier Bancorp shareholders should read this opinion in its entirety.

Hovde Financial is a nationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of financial institutions in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements and valuations for other purposes. As a specialist in securities of financial institutions, Hovde Financial has experience in, and knowledge of, banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies. Premier Bancorp interviewed three investment banking firms. While all three firms had a strong presence in the Southeast, Hovde Financial's pricing structure was the most attractive and Hovde Financial was more willing to pursue opportunities with banks outside of Tennessee. Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors selected Hovde Financial to act as its financial advisor in connection with the merger on the basis of these reasons, as well as Hovde Financial's reputation and expertise in transactions similar to the merger.

Hovde Financial will receive a fee contingent upon the completion of the merger for services rendered in connection with advising Premier Bancorp regarding the merger, including the fairness opinion and financial advisory services provided to Premier Bancorp. As of the date of Hovde Financial's written opinion, such fee would have been approximately 1.15% of the total transaction consideration.

Hovde Financial's opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the total transaction consideration, and, as such, does not constitute a recommendation to any Premier Bancorp shareholder as to how the shareholder should vote at the special meeting of Premier Bancorp shareholders. This summary of the opinion of Hovde Financial set forth in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

Following is a summary of the analyses performed by Hovde Financial in connection with its fairness opinion. Certain of these analyses were confirmed in a presentation to the Premier Bancorp Board of Directors by Hovde Financial. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of either the analyses performed by Hovde Financial in rendering its opinion or the presentation delivered by Hovde Financial to the Premier Board of Directors, but it does summarize all of the material analyses performed and presented by Hovde Financial.

The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analyses and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. In arriving at its opinion, Hovde Financial did not attribute weight to any particular analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Hovde Financial may have given various analyses more or less weight than other analyses. Accordingly, Hovde Financial believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses set forth in its report to the Premier Bancorp Board of Directors and its fairness opinion.

In performing its analyses, Hovde Financial made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Premier Bancorp and BancorpSouth. The analyses performed by Hovde Financial are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were prepared solely as part of Hovde Financial's analysis of the fairness of the transaction consideration, from a financial point of view, to Premier Bancorp shareholders. The analyses do not purport to be an appraisal or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at the present time or at any time in the future. Hovde Financial's opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other business combination in which Premier Bancorp might engage. In addition, as described above, Hovde Financial's opinion to the Premier Bancorp Board of Directors was one of many factors taken into consideration by the Premier Bancorp Board of Directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement.

During the course of its engagement, and as a basis for arriving at its opinion, Hovde Financial reviewed and analyzed material bearing upon the financial and operating conditions of Premier Bancorp and BancorpSouth and material prepared in connection with the merger, including, among other things, the following:

the merger agreement;

certain historical publicly available information concerning BancorpSouth;

the nature and terms of recent merger transactions; and financial and other information provided to Hovde Financial by the management of Premier Bancorp.

Hovde Financial conducted meetings and had discussions with members of senior management of Premier Bancorp for purposes of reviewing the future prospects of Premier Bancorp. Hovde Financial also took into account its experience in other transactions, as well as its knowledge of the commercial banking industry and its general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering its opinion, Hovde Financial assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information related to Premier Bancorp and BancorpSouth and relied upon the accuracy of the representations of the parties contained in the merger agreement. Hovde Financial also assumed that the financial forecasts furnished to or discussed with Hovde Financial by Premier Bancorp were reasonably prepared and reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of senior management of Premier Bancorp as to the future financial performance of Premier Bancorp. Hovde Financial has not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any properties, assets or liabilities of Premier Bancorp.

Financial Implications to Premier Bancorp Shareholders

Hovde Financial prepared an analysis of the financial implications of BancorpSouth's offer to holders of Premier Bancorp common stock. This analysis indicated that on a pro forma equivalent basis, assuming a hypothetical 100% stock transaction with an exchange ratio of 2.1978, and excluding any potential cost savings or revenue enhancement opportunities, a holder of Premier Bancorp common stock would achieve approximately 41.8% accretion in GAAP earnings per share, approximately 66.6% accretion in cash earnings per share and an increase in total book value per share of approximately 52.6% as a result of the consummation of the merger. The table below summarizes the results of Hovde Financial's analysis:

Table of Contents

	Per Share:
	2005 GAAP Earnings Estimated	2005 Cash Earnings Estimated	Book Value
Premier Bancorp standalone	$2.65	$2.65	$18.15
Premier Bancorp Pro Forma ⁽¹⁾	$3.76	$4.42	$27.70
% Accretion Dilution	41.8%	66.6%	52.6%

Contribution Analysis

Hovde Financial prepared a contribution analysis showing percentages of total assets, total net loans, total deposits, total common equity and total tangible equity at June 30, 2004 for Premier Bancorp and for BancorpSouth and actual earnings for the twelve-month period ended June 30, 2004, as well as estimated fiscal year 2004 and 2005 earnings that would be contributed to the combined company on a pro-forma basis by Premier Bancorp and BancorpSouth. This analysis indicated that holders of Premier Bancorp common stock would own approximately 0.87% of the pro forma common shares outstanding of BancorpSouth, assuming an exchange ratio of 1.1111, while contributing an average of 1.27% of the financial components listed above. This pro forma ownership is based on the total consideration being paid to shareholders of Premier Bancorp consisting of 51% in BancorpSouth common stock and 49% in cash. If the total consideration were to be paid 100% in BancorpSouth common stock, holders of Premier Bancorp common stock would own 1.7% of the pro forma outstanding shares of BancorpSouth common stock.

Hovde Financial calculated the medians and averages of the following relevant transaction ratios in each of the above groups: the percentage of the offer value to the acquired company's total assets; the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company's earnings per share for the twelve months preceding the announcement date of the transaction; the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company's tangible book value; and the tangible book value premium to core deposits. Hovde Financial compared these multiples with the corresponding multiples for the merger, valuing the total consideration that would be received pursuant to the merger agreement at $37 million ($15.4 million in consideration in the form of BancorpSouth common stock, $14.8 million in cash and $6.8 million in consideration representing the in-the-money value of Premier Bancorp's stock options), or $50.07 per Premier Bancorp diluted share. In calculating the multiples for the merger, Hovde Financial used Premier Bancorp's earnings per share for the 12 months ended June 30, 2004, and Premier Bancorp's tangible book value per share, total assets and total deposits as of June 30, 2004. The results of this analysis are as follows:

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Hovde Financial estimated the present value of all shares of Premier Bancorp common stock by estimating the value of Premier Bancorp's estimated future earnings stream beginning in 2005. Reflecting Premier Bancorp's internal projections and Hovde Financial estimates, Hovde Financial assumed net income in 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009 of $1.599 million, $1.947 million, $2.371 million, $2.432 million and $2.961 million, respectively. The present value of these earnings was calculated based on discount rates of 10.5%, 12.0%, 13.5%, 15.0% and 16.5%, respectively. In order to derive the terminal value of Premier Bancorp's earnings stream beyond 2009, Hovde Financial assumed the growth rate of Premier Bancorp's earnings into perpetuity, based on a perpetual growth rate between 4.0% and 8.0% applied to free cash flows in 2009. These rates and values were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Premier Bancorp common stock. This analysis and its underlying assumptions yielded a range of value for all shares of Premier Bancorp common stock of approximately $16.5 million (at a 16.5% discount rate and 4.0% earnings growth into perpetuity) to $73.3 million (at a 10.5% discount rate and 8.0% earnings growth into perpetuity), compared to total merger consideration of $37.0 million.

Indications of such financial performance and stock market valuation included profitability measures, earnings composition, operating and performance metrics, loan portfolio compositions, deposit compositions, yield and cost analysis, capital adequacy, asset quality and reserve adequacy, all based on financial information as of June 30, 2004 and, where relevant, closing stock market information as of September 2, 2004. Selected market information for BancorpSouth and the group of comparable companies that was analyzed is provided below.

	Stock Price as of 9/2/04	Price/ Total Book Value (%)	Price/Book (%)	Price/ Last 12 Months Earnings Per Share (x)	Dividend Yield (x)	Market Cap ($billions)	Inside Ownership (%)

Based upon the foregoing analyses and other investigations and assumptions set forth in its opinion, without giving specific weightings to any one factor or comparison, Hovde Financial determined that the transaction consideration was fair from a financial point of view to Premier Bancorp shareholders.

Regulatory Approval

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, the receipt of approvals by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance and the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions. BancorpSouth expects the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System to waive its notification filing requirements with respect to the merger.

As a Mississippi state non-member bank, BancorpSouth Bank must file an application with the FDIC for approval of the merger under Sections 18(c) and 18(d) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act. The FDIC may disapprove the application if it finds that the merger tends to create or result in a monopoly, substantially lessens competition or would be in restraint of trade. BancorpSouth Bank filed this application with the FDIC on October 27, 2004. Following approval of the application by the FDIC, the United States Department of Justice has up to 30 calendar days to submit any adverse comments relating to competitive factors resulting from the merger. BancorpSouth expects to obtain approval of the merger from the FDIC on December 11, 2004, and expects the waiting period to expire on December 26, 2004.

BancorpSouth notified the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance on October 27, 2004 of the pending merger of Premier Bancorp's bank subsidiary into BancorpSouth Bank and submitted the necessary documents and applicable fees required for its approval. Approval of this bank merger by the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance is expected to be received prior to approval of the merger agreement by Premier Bancorp shareholders. Also, in connection with this merger, Premier Bancorp and BancorpSouth filed with the Commissioner of the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions on October 27, 2004 a notice of the pending merger, provided a copy of all applications filed with any federal agency in connection with the merger and paid a fee as prescribed by regulation of the Commissioner. Approval of the merger by the Commissioner of the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions is expected to be received on or about November 24, 2004.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase, as that term is used under GAAP, for accounting and financial reporting purposes. Premier Bancorp will be treated as the acquired corporation for accounting and financial reporting purposes. Premier Bancorp's assets, liabilities and other items will be adjusted to their estimated fair value on the closing date of the merger and combined with the historical book values of the assets and liabilities of BancorpSouth. Applicable income tax effects of these adjustments will be included as a component of the combined company's deferred tax asset or liability. The difference between the estimated fair value of the assets (including separately identifiable intangible assets, such as core deposit intangibles), liabilities and other items (adjusted as discussed above) and the purchase price will be recorded as goodwill. Financial statements of BancorpSouth issued after the merger will reflect the values and will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Premier Bancorp.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following discussion summarizes the material anticipated United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to Premier Bancorp shareholders who hold their shares of Premier Bancorp common stock as capital assets. This discussion does not address the tax consequences of transactions effectuated prior or subsequent to, or concurrently with, the merger (whether or not such transactions are undertaken in connection with the merger). In addition, this discussion does not address all of the federal income tax consequences that may be important to each taxpayer in light of its particular circumstances, nor does this discussion address the federal income tax consequences that may be applicable to taxpayers subject to special treatment under the Internal Revenue Code, such as:

tax-exempt organizations;

financial institutions, insurance companies and broker-dealers or persons who have elected to use the mark-to-market method of accounting with respect to their securities holdings;

shareholders who hold their shares of Premier Bancorp common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, wash sale, synthetic security, conversion transaction or other integrated investment comprised of shares of Premier Bancorp common stock and one or more other investments;

persons who acquired their shares of Premier Bancorp common stock through the exercise of employee stock options, through a benefit plan or otherwise in a compensatory transaction;

shareholders who are not U.S. persons within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code or that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;

pass-through entities and investors in such entities; or shareholders who exercise their dissenters' rights.

No information is provided in this document or the tax opinions referred to below with respect to the tax consequences, if any, of the merger under applicable foreign, state, local and other tax laws. This discussion and the tax opinions are based upon the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, applicable Treasury regulations, administrative rulings and judicial decisions, all as in effect as of the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. There can be no assurance that future legislative, administrative or judicial changes or interpretations, which changes could apply retroactively, will not affect the accuracy of this discussion or the statements or conclusions set forth in the tax opinions referred to below.

In connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this Proxy Statement/Prospectus is a part, BancorpSouth has received an opinion of Waller Lansden Dortch & Davis, PLLC, and Premier Bancorp has received an opinion of Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz, PC, that, as of the respective dates of such opinions, if certain factual circumstances exist, the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and that BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp will each be a party to that reorganization. The parties will not be required to consummate the merger unless they receive additional opinions of their respective counsel, dated the closing date of the merger, confirming that the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and that BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp will each be a party to that reorganization.

The opinions of the parties' respective counsel regarding the merger have relied, and the opinions regarding the merger as of the closing date will each rely, on the following:

Table of Contents

representations and covenants made by BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp, including those contained in certificates of officers of BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp; and specified assumptions, including an assumption regarding the completion of the merger in the manner contemplated by the merger agreement.

In addition, the opinions of the parties' respective counsel have assumed, and such counsel's ability to provide the opinions at the closing of the merger will depend on, the absence of changes to the anticipated facts or changes in law between the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the closing date. If any of those representations, covenants or assumptions is inaccurate, the parties' respective counsel may not be able to provide one or more of the required opinions to be delivered at the closing of the merger and/or the tax consequences of the merger could differ from those described in the opinions that counsel have delivered.

The opinions of the parties' respective counsel do not bind the Internal Revenue Service and do not preclude the IRS or the courts from adopting a contrary position. BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp do not intend to obtain a ruling from the IRS on the tax consequences of the merger. If the IRS were to assert successfully that the merger is not a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, then each Premier Bancorp shareholder would be required to recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between (i) the sum of the fair market value of the BancorpSouth common stock and the amount of cash received in the exchange and (ii) the shareholder's adjusted tax basis in the Premier Bancorp common stock surrendered for such consideration. Such gain or loss would be a capital gain or loss, provided that such shares of Premier Bancorp common stock were held as capital assets by the shareholder at the effective time of the merger. Such capital gain or loss recognized would be long-term capital gain or loss if the Premier Bancorp shareholder's holding period for the Premier Bancorp common stock was more than one year. In such event, a Premier Bancorp shareholder's total initial tax basis in the BancorpSouth common stock received would be equal to its fair market value at the effective time of the merger, and the shareholder's holding period for the BancorpSouth common stock would begin on the day after the merger.

Assuming that the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, neither BancorpSouth nor Premier Bancorp will recognize any gain or loss as a result of the merger. The federal income tax consequences of the merger qualifying as a reorganization to a particular Premier Bancorp shareholder will vary depending primarily on whether the shareholder exchanges his or her Premier Bancorp common stock solely for BancorpSouth common stock (except for cash received instead of a fractional share of BancorpSouth common stock), solely for cash or for a combination of BancorpSouth common stock and cash. At the time that a Premier Bancorp shareholder makes an election as to the form of consideration to be received in the merger and at the time of the vote on the merger, such shareholder will not know the extent to which the shareholder's elected form of merger consideration will be given effect. Regardless of whether a Premier Bancorp shareholder elects to receive BancorpSouth common stock, cash or a combination of BancorpSouth common stock and cash, the federal income tax consequences to the shareholder will depend on the actual merger consideration received by the shareholder.

Premier Bancorp Shareholders Receiving Only BancorpSouth Common Stock

No gain or loss will be recognized by a holder of Premier Bancorp common stock as a result of the surrender of shares of Premier Bancorp common stock solely in exchange for shares of BancorpSouth common stock pursuant to the merger (except with respect to cash received instead of fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock, as discussed below). The aggregate tax basis of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock received in the merger (including any fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock deemed received) will be the same as the aggregate tax basis of the shares of Premier Bancorp common stock surrendered in exchange for the BancorpSouth common stock. The holding period of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock received (including any fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock deemed received) will include the holding period of shares of Premier Bancorp common stock surrendered in exchange for the BancorpSouth common stock, provided that such shares of Premier Bancorp common stock were held as capital assets of the shareholder at the effective time of the merger.

Premier Bancorp Shareholders Receiving Only Cash

A holder of Premier Bancorp common stock that does not receive any shares of BancorpSouth common stock pursuant to the merger (and is not treated as constructively owning, after the merger, BancorpSouth common stock held by certain family members and entities affiliated with the holder under the Internal Revenue Code) will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Premier Bancorp common stock exchanged in the merger. Such gain or loss will be a capital gain or loss, provided that such shares of Premier Bancorp common stock were held as capital assets by the shareholder at the effective time of the merger. Such capital gain or loss will be a long-term capital gain or loss to the extent that, at the effective time of the merger, the holder has a holding period in such Premier Bancorp common stock of more than one year. The Internal Revenue Code contains limitations on the extent to which a taxpayer may deduct capital losses from ordinary income.

Premier Bancorp Shareholders Receiving Both Cash and BancorpSouth Common Stock

If a holder of Premier Bancorp common stock receives both BancorpSouth common stock and cash (other than cash in lieu of a fractional interest in BancorpSouth common stock) in the merger, that holder will recognize gain, if any, equal to the lesser of:

the amount of cash received; or the amount by which the sum of the amount of cash received and the fair market value, at the effective time of the merger, of the BancorpSouth common stock received exceeds the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Premier Bancorp common stock exchanged in the merger.

Any recognized gain could be taxed as a capital gain or a dividend. Such gain will generally be capital gain (provided that such shares of Premier Bancorp common stock were held as capital assets by the shareholder at the effective time of the merger), unless the holder's exchange of Premier Bancorp common stock for cash and BancorpSouth common stock has the effect of the distribution of a dividend after giving effect to the constructive ownership rules of the Internal Revenue Code, in which case such gain might be treated as ordinary income. Any capital gain recognized generally will be long-term capital gain to the extent that, at the effective time of the merger, the holder has a holding period in the Premier Bancorp common stock exchanged in the merger of more than one year. Because the determination of whether a cash payment will be treated as having the effect of a dividend depends primarily upon the facts and circumstances of each Premier Bancorp shareholder, Premier Bancorp shareholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax treatment of any cash received in the merger.

The aggregate tax basis of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock received in the merger (including any fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock deemed received) will be the same as the aggregate tax basis of the shares of Premier Bancorp common stock surrendered in the merger, increased by the amount of gain recognized in the exchange (whether characterized as capital gain or a dividend, but excluding any gain recognized with respect to any cash received instead of a fractional share of BancorpSouth common stock) and reduced by the amount of cash received in the exchange (excluding any cash received instead of a fractional share of BancorpSouth common stock). The holding period of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock received (including any fractional share of BancorpSouth common stock deemed received) will include the holding period of shares of Premier Bancorp common stock surrendered in exchange for the BancorpSouth common stock, provided that such shares of Premier Bancorp common stock were held as capital assets of the shareholder at the effective time of the merger. A Premier Bancorp shareholder who receives a combination of BancorpSouth common stock and cash in exchange for his or her Premier Bancorp common stock will not be permitted to recognize any loss for federal income tax purposes.

A Premier Bancorp shareholder's federal income tax consequences will also depend on whether his or her shares of Premier Bancorp common stock were purchased at different times at different prices. If they were, the Premier Bancorp shareholder could realize gain with respect to some of the shares of Premier Bancorp common stock and loss with respect to other shares. Such Premier Bancorp shareholder would have to recognize such gain to the extent such shareholder receives cash with respect to those shares of Premier Bancorp common stock in which the shareholder's adjusted tax basis is less than the amount of cash plus the fair market value at the effective time of the merger of the BancorpSouth common stock received, but could not recognize loss with respect to those shares of Premier Bancorp common stock in which the Premier Bancorp shareholder's adjusted tax basis is greater than the amount of cash plus the fair market value at the effective time of the merger of the BancorpSouth common stock received. Any disallowed loss would be included in the adjusted basis of the BancorpSouth common stock. Such a Premier Bancorp shareholder is urged to consult his or her own tax advisor respecting the tax consequences of the merger to that shareholder.

Cash Instead of Fractional Shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock

Holders of Premier Bancorp common stock who receive cash instead of a fractional share of BancorpSouth common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share in the merger and then as having the fractional share redeemed by BancorpSouth in exchange for the cash actually distributed instead of the fractional share, with such redemption qualifying as an exchange under Section 302 of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, such holders will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the tax basis of the holder's Premier Bancorp common stock allocable to that fractional share and the amount of cash received. The gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss and long-term capital gain or loss if the Premier Bancorp common stock exchanged has been held for more than one year.

Backup Withholding

A holder of Premier Bancorp common stock may be subject, under certain circumstances, to backup withholding at a rate of 28% with respect to the amount of cash, if any, received in the merger, including cash received instead of fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock, unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption satisfactory to BancorpSouth and the exchange agent or furnishes its correct taxpayer identification number, and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amount withheld under the backup withholding rules is not additional tax and may be refunded or credited against the holder's federal income tax liability, so long as the required information is furnished to the IRS.

The preceding summary does not purport to be a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects relevant to the merger. Accordingly, Premier Bancorp shareholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to them of the merger, including tax return reporting requirements, the applicability and effect of federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws and the effect of any proposed changes in the tax laws.

Shareholders Dissenters' Rights

Premier Bancorp is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Tennessee and its principal place of business is in the State of Tennessee. Each record holder of Premier Bancorp common stock will be entitled to dissenters' rights as a result of the merger pursuant to Sections 48-23-101 et seq. of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act. If you have a beneficial interest in shares of Premier Bancorp common stock that are held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, you must submit to Premier Bancorp the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time you assert dissenters' rights and must do so with respect to all shares that you beneficially own.

The following discussion is not a complete statement of the law pertaining to dissenters' rights under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act. If you wish to exercise such dissenters' rights, or wish to preserve your right to do so, you should review Sections 48-23-101 et seq. of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, a copy of which is attached as Annex B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and the following discussion carefully.

The availability of dissenters' rights is conditioned upon full compliance with a complicated procedure set forth in the Tennessee Business Corporation Act. Failure to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified will result in the complete loss of dissenters' rights. Accordingly, if you wish to dissent from the merger and demand the fair value of your Premier Bancorp common stock in cash, you should consult with your own legal counsel.

Table of Contents

Your vote not in favor of the merger agreement will not be deemed to satisfy all of the notice requirements under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act with respect to appraisal rights.

Procedure for the Exercise of Dissenters' Rights

In order to be eligible to exercise the right to dissent, you must:

deliver to Premier Bancorp, before the vote on the merger agreement is taken, written notice of your intent to demand payment for your shares if the merger agreement is approved and the merger is completed; and not vote such shares of Premier Bancorp common stock in favor of the merger agreement.

Any written notice of intent to dissent with respect to the merger should be sent to: Premier Bancorp, Inc., 5217 Maryland Way, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027, Attention: James D. Harris, Chairman and CEO. A vote against the merger agreement above will not satisfy the requirements for compliance with Section 48-203-101 et. seq. of the Tennessee Business Corporate Act. A shareholder of Premier Bancorp who wishes to dissent from the merger must, as an initial matter, comply with all of the conditions listed above.

If the merger agreement is approved at the Premier Bancorp special meeting, Premier Bancorp must deliver a written dissenters' notice to all dissenting Premier Bancorp shareholders who satisfied the requirements referred to above. The dissenters' notice must be sent no later than ten days after the merger agreement was approved by the shareholders and must:

state where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;

inform holders of uncertificated shares of Premier Bancorp common stock to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received; supply a form for demanding payment that specifies that the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the principal terms of the merger was September 17, 2004 and requires that the person asserting dissenters' rights certify whether or not that person acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before September 17, 2004; and set a date by which Premier Bancorp must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than one month nor more than two months after the date the notice is delivered.

If you are sent a written notice from Premier Bancorp, you must demand payment, certify whether you acquired beneficial ownership of the shares of Premier Bancorp common stock before September 17, 2004, and deposit your certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice from Premier Bancorp. If you do not demand payment or deposit your share certificates where required, each by the date set in Premier Bancorp's notice, you will not be entitled to payment for your shares of Premier Bancorp common stock.

Premier Bancorp may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares of Premier Bancorp common stock from the date the demand for payment is received until the merger is completed or Premier Bancorp releases this restriction in accordance with the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

If you demand payment and deposit your share certificates in accordance with the notice from Premier Bancorp, you shall retain all other rights of a shareholder until those rights are canceled or modified by the completion of the merger. You may not withdraw your demand for payment unless Premier Bancorp or BancorpSouth consents to your withdrawal.

Premier Bancorp's Payment or Offer of Payment

As soon as the merger is completed, Premier Bancorp will pay each dissenter who complied with the requirements set forth in the notice from Premier Bancorp the amount that Premier Bancorp estimates to be the fair value of each dissenter's shares (which shall exclude any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger), plus accrued interest. The payment must be accompanied by:

Premier Bancorp's balance sheet as of the end of 2003, an income statement for 2003, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for 2003 and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

a statement of Premier Bancorp's estimate of the fair value of the shares; an explanation of how the interest was calculated; and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment of a different amount under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

If Premier Bancorp does not complete the merger within two months after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, Premier Bancorp shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares. If Premier Bancorp completes the merger after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, Premier Bancorp must send a new dissenter's notice and repeat the payment demand procedure.

Premier Bancorp may elect to withhold payment required by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act from a dissenter unless the dissenter was the beneficial owner of the shares of Premier Bancorp common stock before September 17, 2004, the date of the first announcement to news media of the principal terms of the proposed merger. If Premier Bancorp properly elects to withhold payment from a dissenter, Premier Bancorp shall estimate the fair value of the shares, plus accrued interest, and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the dissenter's demand. Premier Bancorp shall send with its offer a statement of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

Procedure if Dissatisfied with Payment or Offer

A dissenter may notify Premier Bancorp in writing of his or her own estimate of the fair value of his or her shares of Premier Bancorp common stock and the amount of interest due, and demand payment of the estimate (less any payment already made by Premier Bancorp) or reject Premier Bancorp's offer, and demand payment of the fair value of his or her shares and interest due, if:

the dissenter believes that the amount paid or offered by Premier Bancorp is less than the fair value of his or her shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;

Premier Bancorp fails to make payment within two months after the date set for demanding payment; or

Premier Bancorp, having failed to complete the merger, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within two months after the date set for demanding payment.

A dissenter waives his or her right to demand payment unless the dissenter notifies Premier Bancorp of his or her demand in writing as set forth above within one month after Premier Bancorp made or offered payment for the dissenter's shares of Premier Bancorp common stock.

Table of Contents

If a demand for payment by a dissenter remains unsettled, Premier Bancorp must commence a proceeding in a court of record having equity jurisdiction in Williamson County, Tennessee within two months after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares of Premier Bancorp common stock and accrued interest. If Premier Bancorp does not commence the proceeding within the two-month period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded. Premier Bancorp shall make all dissenters (whether or not residents of Tennessee) whose demands remain unsettled, parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law. The court in which the proceeding is commenced may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The dissenters will be entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings. Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment:

for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus accrued interest, exceeds the amount paid by Premier Bancorp; or for the fair value, plus accrued interest, of the dissenter's shares acquired after September 17, 2004 for which Premier Bancorp elected to withhold payment.

The court in an appraisal proceeding shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against Premier Bancorp, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment. The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable against:

Premier Bancorp and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds Premier Bancorp did not substantially comply with the requirements of Sections 48-23-201 et seq. of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act; or either Premier Bancorp or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against Premier Bancorp, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to the dissenters who were benefited.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Certain members of management of Premier Bancorp and Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors may be deemed to have interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as Premier Bancorp shareholders generally. Premier Bancorp's Board of Directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement.

In connection with the merger and in consideration for terminating their existing employment agreements with Premier Bank, William E. Ellis, J. Daniel Dellinger and Christopher P. Marchetti will each receive bonuses equal to 1.5 times their present annual base salaries and James D. Harris and Diane D. West will each receive bonuses equal to two times their present annual base salaries. Each of Messrs. Ellis, Marchetti and Harris and Ms. West has entered into an employment agreement with BancorpSouth for a term of one year at his or her former annual salary.

Executive officers and directors of Premier Bancorp will receive shares of BancorpSouth common stock in the merger on the same basis as other Premier Bancorp shareholders. The following chart shows the number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock that may be issued to executive officers, directors and holders of more than 5% of Premier Bancorp common stock in the merger:

Comparison of Rights of Shareholders

At the effective time of the merger, Premier Bancorp shareholders who receive shares of BancorpSouth common stock will automatically become BancorpSouth shareholders. BancorpSouth is a Mississippi corporation governed by provisions of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act and BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation, as amended, and amended and restated bylaws, as amended. Premier Bancorp is a Tennessee corporation governed by provisions of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, and Premier Bancorp's articles of incorporation and bylaws. See COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS.

Restrictions on Resales by Affiliates

The shares of BancorpSouth common stock issuable to Premier Bancorp shareholders upon completion of the merger have been registered under the Securities Act of 1933. These shares may be traded freely without restriction by those shareholders who are not deemed to be affiliates of Premier Bancorp or BancorpSouth, as that term is defined in SEC rules under the Securities Act. An affiliate of a company generally includes its executive officers and directors and holders of 10% or more of the company's voting stock.

Shares of BancorpSouth common stock received by those Premier Bancorp shareholders who are deemed to be affiliates of Premier Bancorp at the time of the Premier Bancorp special meeting may be resold without registration under the Securities Act only as permitted by Rule 145 under the Securities Act. Under Rule 145, during the one-year period following completion of the merger, affiliates of Premier Bancorp may resell shares of BancorpSouth common stock received by them in the merger subject to limitations on the number of shares that may be sold during any three-month period and the manner in which the shares may be sold, including the use of a broker and non-solicitation of a buyer. Affiliates of Premier Bancorp at the time of the Premier Bancorp special meeting who are not affiliates of BancorpSouth may resell their shares of BancorpSouth common stock acquired in connection with the merger without registration under the Securities Act after one year following completion of the merger so long as BancorpSouth maintains current public information and after two years following completion of the merger without any restrictions under Rule 145.

Premier Bancorp has agreed in the merger agreement to use its reasonable best efforts to cause each person who is an affiliate of Premier Bancorp, for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act, to deliver to BancorpSouth a written agreement intended to ensure compliance with the Securities Act.

Source of Funds for Cash Portion of Merger Consideration

BancorpSouth intends to pay the cash portion of the merger consideration to the Premier Bancorp shareholders from funds available to BancorpSouth at closing. BancorpSouth currently intends these funds to be comprised of available cash that will be distributed from BancorpSouth Bank to BancorpSouth in accordance with a previously declared dividend.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary of certain terms and provisions of the merger agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, which is incorporated into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus by reference and, with the exception of exhibits and schedules to the merger agreement, is attached as Annex A to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Terms of the Merger

Upon completion of the merger, Premier Bancorp will merge with and into BancorpSouth, the separate corporate existence of Premier Bancorp will cease and BancorpSouth will be the surviving corporation. BancorpSouth will continue to exist as a Mississippi corporation. In addition, Premier Bancorp's wholly-owned subsidiary, Premier Bank of Brentwood, will merge with and into BancorpSouth Bank, a Mississippi state banking corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of BancorpSouth, and BancorpSouth Bank will be the surviving bank. BancorpSouth Bank will continue its existence under the laws of Mississippi. Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions set forth in the merger agreement, the merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger in the offices of the Secretary of State of the State of Tennessee and the offices of the Secretary of State of the State of Mississippi in accordance with the Tennessee Business Corporation Act and the Mississippi Business Corporation Act of 1987. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Conditions to the Merger.

The merger will have the effects set forth in Section 79-4-11.07 of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, Section 81-5-85 of the Mississippi Banking Act, Section 48-21-108 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act and Section 45-2-1308 of the Tennessee Banking Act.

BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation, as amended, and amended and restated bylaws, as amended, as in effect upon completion of the merger will be those of the surviving corporation, and BancorpSouth Bank's articles of incorporation and bylaws as in effect upon completion of the merger will be those of the surviving bank.

At the effective time of the merger, automatically by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of any party or shareholder, each share of Premier Bancorp common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (other than dissenting shares and shares held by Premier Bancorp and BancorpSouth) will become and be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder of such share and subject to tax-related adjustments, either:

$50.07 in cash (without interest), assuming payment solely of cash in exchange for Premier Bancorp common stock; or

2.1785 shares of BancorpSouth common stock, assuming payment solely of BancorpSouth common stock in exchange for a share of Premier Bancorp common stock; or a combination of cash plus BancorpSouth common stock. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Cash or Stock Election.

No fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, Premier Bancorp shareholders will receive, without interest, a cash payment from BancorpSouth equal to $22.984 times the fraction of a share of BancorpSouth common stock to which the shareholder otherwise would be entitled.

The exchange ratio of 2.1785 will not be adjusted to reflect any change in the price of BancorpSouth common stock. BancorpSouth expects the market price of BancorpSouth common stock to fluctuate as a result of market factors beyond its control between the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the date on which the merger is completed and thereafter. Because the exchange ratio is fixed and the market price of BancorpSouth common stock is expected to fluctuate and may decrease, the implied market value of BancorpSouth common stock that Premier Bancorp shareholders may receive in the merger may increase or decrease prior to completion of the merger. For further information concerning the historical market prices of BancorpSouth common stock and Premier Bancorp common stock, see PRICE RANGE OF COMMON STOCK AND DIVIDENDS. BancorpSouth cannot assure you that the market price of BancorpSouth common stock will not decrease before or after the merger.

The following table shows the implied value of the stock consideration into which one share of Premier Bancorp common stock would be converted in the merger at various hypothetical reference closing prices of BancorpSouth common stock at the effective time of the merger:

Closing Price of BancorpSouth		Implied Value per Share of Premier Bancorp Common Stock
Common Stock	Exchange Ratio
$20.00	2.1785	$ 43.57
21.00	2.1785	45.75
22.00	2.1785	47.93
23.00	2.1785	50.11
24.00	2.1785	52.28
25.00	2.1785	54.46

At the effective time of the merger, all shares of Premier Bancorp common stock held by Premier Bancorp or its subsidiary bank, other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in connection with a debt previously contracted, will be canceled and will cease to exist, and no BancorpSouth common stock or other consideration will be delivered in exchange for such shares. Also at the effective time of the merger, all shares of BancorpSouth common stock held by Premier Bancorp or its subsidiary bank, other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in connection with a debt previously contracted, will become treasury stock and all other shares of BancorpSouth common stock outstanding as of the effective time will remain outstanding.

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding and unexercised option to purchase shares of Premier Bancorp common stock granted by Premier Bancorp will no longer represent a right to acquire shares of Premier Bancorp common stock and will be considered an option to purchase shares of BancorpSouth common stock under the appropriate BancorpSouth stock option plan. The number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock underlying these new options will be equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Premier Bancorp common stock underlying the original options, multiplied by (ii) the exchange ratio, with any fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock resulting from this calculation to be rounded to the nearest whole share. The exercise price per share of BancorpSouth common stock under these new options will be equal to the quotient of (i) the aggregate exercise price for the shares of Premier Bancorp common stock under the original options, divided by (ii) the number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock issuable under the new options. The duration and material terms of each new option to purchase BancorpSouth common stock will be the same as the replaced option to purchase Premier Bancorp common stock. At the effective time, BancorpSouth will either adopt the Premier Bancorp option plans for the purpose of issuing new options or, in BancorpSouth's sole discretion, issue new options under and subject to an appropriate stock option plan of BancorpSouth.

At the effective time of the merger, Premier Bancorp shareholders, other than those who perfect dissenters' rights, will have no further rights as Premier Bancorp shareholders, other than to receive the consideration to be issued to them in the merger. After the effective time of the merger, there will be no transfers on Premier Bancorp's stock transfer books of shares of Premier Bancorp common stock. If, after the effective time, stock certificates representing shares of Premier Bancorp common stock are presented for transfer to SunTrust Bank, Atlanta, N.A., the exchange agent for the merger, they will be canceled and exchanged for either cash or certificates representing shares of BancorpSouth common stock as provided in the merger agreement.

If, prior to the merger, shares of BancorpSouth common stock are changed into a different number or class of shares as a result of any reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or readjustment, or if a stock dividend is declared on the shares of BancorpSouth common stock with a record date prior to the merger, the exchange ratio will be adjusted accordingly.

At the effective time of the merger, persons who are BancorpSouth shareholders immediately prior to the merger would own approximately 99.5% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company and persons who are Premier Bancorp shareholders immediately prior to the merger would own approximately 0.5% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company, assuming the proposed merger of Business Holding Corporation with and into BancorpSouth, which is described in BancorpSouth's Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 20, 2004, occurs prior to the proposed merger of Premier Bancorp with and into BancorpSouth and assuming all options to purchase shares of Premier Bancorp common stock are exercised prior to the merger and 51% of the outstanding shares of Premier Bancorp common stock are converted into shares of BancorpSouth common stock in connection with the merger.

Cash or Stock Election

Each shareholder of Premier Bancorp has the opportunity to elect the type of consideration to be received for such shareholder's shares of Premier Bancorp common stock in the merger—cash, shares of BancorpSouth common stock or a combination of both. All elections by Premier Bancorp shareholders are subject to the allocation and proration procedures described in the merger agreement. These procedures are intended to ensure that, subject to a tax-related adjustment, 51% of the outstanding shares of Premier Bancorp common stock will be converted into the right to receive BancorpSouth common stock, and the remaining shares of Premier Bancorp common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash.

It is unlikely that elections will be made in the exact proportions provided for in the merger agreement. As a result, the merger agreement describes procedures to be followed if Premier Bancorp shareholders in the aggregate elect to receive more or less of BancorpSouth common stock than BancorpSouth has agreed to issue. These procedures are summarized below.

If BancorpSouth Common Stock is Oversubscribed: If Premier Bancorp shareholders elect to receive more shares of BancorpSouth common stock than the maximum number that BancorpSouth has agreed to issue in the merger, then all Premier Bancorp shareholders who have elected to receive cash or who have made no election will receive cash for their shares of Premier Bancorp common stock and all shareholders who elected to receive BancorpSouth common stock will receive a pro rata portion of the available shares of BancorpSouth common stock plus cash for those shares not converted into shares of BancorpSouth common stock.

If BancorpSouth Common Stock is Undersubscribed: If Premier Bancorp shareholders elect to receive fewer shares of BancorpSouth common stock than the minimum number that BancorpSouth has agreed to issue in the merger, and

- (1) this shortfall is less than or equal to the number of shares as to which Premier Bancorp shareholders have made no election, then all Premier Bancorp shareholders who have elected to receive BancorpSouth common stock will receive BancorpSouth common stock, all Premier Bancorp shareholders who have elected to receive cash will receive cash and all Premier Bancorp shareholders who made no election will receive a pro rata portion of the minimum remaining shares of BancorpSouth common stock to be issued in the merger plus cash for those shares not converted into shares of BancorpSouth common stock; or

- (2) this shortfall is greater than the number of shares as to which Premier Bancorp shareholders have made no election, then all Premier Bancorp shareholders who have elected to receive BancorpSouth common stock or who have made no election will receive BancorpSouth common stock and all Premier Bancorp shareholders who have elected to receive cash will receive a pro rata portion of the minimum remaining shares of BancorpSouth common stock to be issued in the merger plus cash consideration for those shares not converted into shares of BancorpSouth common stock.

BancorpSouth and Premier Bancorp have structured the merger to qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The merger might not qualify as a reorganization, however, if, on the closing date of the merger, the total value of the BancorpSouth shares that Premier Bancorp shareholders receive is less than 45% of the value of the total consideration including BancorpSouth common stock, cash and any other amounts treated as consideration in connection with the merger for federal income tax purposes that Premier Bancorp shareholders (including shareholders who exercise dissenters' rights) receive in connection with the merger. To prevent this from happening, if the value of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock received would otherwise be less than 45% of the value of the total consideration, the BancorpSouth common stock consideration will be increased and the cash consideration will be correspondingly decreased. If this tax-related adjustment is necessary, the amount of cash you would have received, after taking into account your election and any proration, will be reduced and you will receive additional shares of BancorpSouth common stock. Whether the tax-related adjustment will be made and the magnitude of the tax-related adjustment, if made, will be based on a number of factors, including the trading price of shares of BancorpSouth common stock on the date the merger is completed and the number of shares of Premier Bancorp common stock for which dissenters' rights are exercised. In no event, however, will BancorpSouth be obligated to issue more than 1,050,326 shares of its common stock as merger consideration, including shares to be issued upon the exercise of certain stock options.

Neither Premier Bancorp nor BancorpSouth is making any recommendation as to whether Premier Bancorp shareholders should elect to receive cash or BancorpSouth common stock in the merger. Each Premier Bancorp shareholder must make his or her own decision with respect to such election.

No guarantee can be made that you will receive the amounts of cash or stock you elect. As a result of the allocation procedures and other limitations outlined in this document and in the merger agreement, you may receive BancorpSouth common stock or cash in amounts that vary from the amounts you elect to receive.

Election Procedures; Surrender of Stock Certificates

If you are a record holder of Premier Bancorp common stock, an election form and letter of transmittal should have been provided to you with this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. The election form will entitle you to elect to receive cash, BancorpSouth common stock or a combination of cash and BancorpSouth common stock, or to make no election with respect to the merger consideration that you wish to receive.

To make a valid election, you must submit a properly completed election form to SunTrust Bank, Atlanta, N.A., which will be acting as the exchange agent, on or before 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on [], 2004. SunTrust Bank will act as exchange agent in the merger and in that role will process the exchange of Premier Bancorp common stock certificates for cash and/or BancorpSouth common stock. Shortly after [], 2004, the exchange agent will allocate cash and shares of BancorpSouth common stock among Premier Bancorp shareholders, consistent with their elections, the allocation and proration procedures and the tax-related adjustment. Please do not forward your Premier Bancorp stock certificates, election form and letter of transmittal with your proxy card. Stock certificates, election forms and letters of transmittal should be returned to the exchange agent in accordance with the instructions contained in the election form.

An election form will be deemed properly completed only if accompanied by stock certificates representing all shares of Premier Bancorp common stock covered by the election form (or an appropriate guarantee of delivery) together with duly executed transmittal materials included with the election form. You may change your election at any time prior to the election deadline by written notice accompanied by a properly completed and signed, revised election form received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. You may revoke your election by written notice received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. All elections will be revoked, and share certificates returned, automatically if the merger agreement is terminated. If you have a preference for receiving either BancorpSouth common stock and/or cash for your Premier Bancorp common stock, you should complete and return the election form. If you do not make an election, you will be allocated BancorpSouth common stock and/or cash depending on the elections made by other Premier Bancorp shareholders.

Premier Bancorp shareholders who do not submit a properly completed election form or revoke their election form prior to the election deadline will have their shares of Premier Bancorp common stock designated as shares for which no election has been made.

Premier Bancorp shareholders who hold their shares of common stock in street name through a bank, broker or other financial institution, and who wish to make an election, should seek instructions from the institution holding their shares concerning how to make the election.

BancorpSouth will deposit with the exchange agent the shares representing BancorpSouth's common stock and cash to be issued to Premier Bancorp shareholders in exchange for their shares of Premier Bancorp common stock. Upon surrendering his or her certificate(s) representing shares of Premier Bancorp common stock, together with the signed letter of transmittal, the Premier Bancorp shareholder shall be entitled to receive on closing of the merger, as applicable:

certificate(s) representing a number of whole shares of BancorpSouth common stock (if any) determined in accordance with the exchange ratio;

a check representing the amount of cash (if any) to which such holder shall have become entitled to; and a check representing the amount of cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any.

Until you surrender your Premier Bancorp stock certificates for exchange, you will not be paid dividends or other distributions declared after the merger with respect to any BancorpSouth common stock into which your shares have been exchanged. No interest will be paid or accrued to Premier Bancorp shareholders on the cash consideration, cash in lieu of fractional shares or unpaid dividends and distributions, if any. After the completion of the merger, there will be no further transfers of Premier Bancorp common stock. Premier Bancorp stock certificates presented for transfer will be canceled and exchanged for the merger consideration.

If any of your stock certificates representing Premier Bancorp common stock have been lost, stolen or destroyed, BancorpSouth can require you to give an affidavit and/or post a bond in an amount that is customarily required by BancorpSouth and the exchange agent as indemnity against any claim that may be made with respect to your Premier Bancorp certificate(s). Upon making such affidavit and/or posting such bond, the exchange agent will issue the consideration due under the merger agreement.

If any certificate representing shares of BancorpSouth's common stock is to be issued in a name other than that in which the certificate for shares surrendered in exchange is registered, it will be a condition of issuance or payment that the certificate so surrendered be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and that the person requesting the exchange either:

pay to the exchange agent in advance any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the issuance of a certificate representing shares of BancorpSouth common stock in any name other than the registered holder of the certificate surrendered; or establish to the satisfaction of the exchange agent that the tax has been paid or is not payable.

Any portion of the cash or shares of BancorpSouth common stock made available to the exchange agent that remains unclaimed by Premier Bancorp shareholders for twelve months after the effective time of the merger will be returned to BancorpSouth. Following the period of twelve months after the effective time, any Premier Bancorp shareholder who has not exchanged shares of Premier Bancorp common stock for the merger consideration in accordance with the merger agreement may look only to BancorpSouth for payment of the merger consideration for these shares and any unpaid dividends or distributions. Nonetheless, BancorpSouth, Premier Bancorp, the exchange agent or any other person will not be liable to any Premier Bancorp shareholder for any amount properly delivered to a public official under applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

Treatment of Stock Options

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding and unexercised option to acquire shares of Premier Bancorp common stock will be considered an option to purchase shares of BancorpSouth common stock. The new option will be subject to the terms of the appropriate stock option plan of BancorpSouth (or, in BancorpSouth's sole discretion, BancorpSouth may adopt the stock option plans of Premier Bancorp), except that:

the number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock subject to the new BancorpSouth stock option will be equal to the product of the number of shares of Premier Bancorp common stock subject to the Premier Bancorp stock option and the exchange ratio, rounded to the nearest whole share; and the exercise price per share of BancorpSouth common stock subject to the new BancorpSouth stock option will be equal to the aggregate exercise price for the shares of Premier Bancorp common stock purchasable under the Premier Bancorp stock option divided by the number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock issuable under the new BancorpSouth stock option, rounded to the nearest whole cent. Each original option to purchase shares of Premier Bancorp common stock which is an incentive stock option will be adjusted in a manner that is consistent with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

The duration and material terms of each new option to purchase BancorpSouth common stock will be the same as the replaced option to purchase Premier Bancorp common stock.

They include, among other things, representations as to:

Conduct of Business Prior to the Merger and Other Covenants

In the merger agreement, Premier Bancorp and BancorpSouth agreed that, except as expressly contemplated or permitted by the merger agreement or with the prior written consent of the other party, each will carry on their respective businesses in the ordinary course consistent with past practice. INFORMATION ABOUT PREMIER BANCORP

Business

Premier Bancorp is a Tennessee corporation and the parent bank holding company of Premier Bank of Brentwood. Premier Bank is a Tennessee-chartered commercial bank, which is headquartered in Brentwood, Tennessee. Premier Bank currently has two banking offices in Tennessee, both located in Brentwood. Premier Bancorp has its principal offices at 5217 Maryland Way, Brentwood, Tennessee, which also serves as the main office of Premier Bank.

Premier Bank conducts its business as a commercial bank, with an emphasis in retail banking, including the acceptance of checking and savings deposits and the making of commercial, real estate, personal, home improvement, automobile and other installment and term loans. The bank also offers other customary bank services to its customers.

Premier Bank encounters competition in its market area for the provision of depository institution financial services from a number of sources, including bank holding companies and commercial banks, savings and loan associations and other thrift institutions, credit unions, other financial institutions and financial intermediaries that operate in Premier Bank's market area. Regional interstate banking laws and other recent federal and state laws have resulted in increased competition from both conventional banking institutions and other businesses offering financial services and products. Premier Bank also competes for interest-bearing funds with a number of other financial intermediaries and nontraditional consumer investment alternatives, including brokerage firms, consumer finance companies, commercial finance companies, credit unions, money market funds and federal, state and municipal issuers of short-term obligations. Many of these competitors have greater financial resources than do banks such as Premier Bank. At September 30, 2004, there were approximately 52 commercial banks and 27 credit unions competing with Premier Bank in its market area, which consists of Williamson County and Davidson County, Tennessee.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Overview

Premier Bancorp's assets consist solely of its investment in Premier Bank and minority interest in Premier Capital Trust. Its primary activities are conducted through Premier Bank. Premier Bank is committed to providing quality services in a constantly changing interest rate environment. At September 30, 2004, Premier Bancorp's consolidated total assets were $152,514,758, its consolidated net loans were $128,847,065, its total deposits were $130,262,914 and its total shareholders' equity was $9,894,923. At December 31, 2003, Premier Bancorp's consolidated total assets were $134,359,000, its consolidated net loans were $112,868,000, its total deposits were $111,232,000 and its total shareholders' equity was $8,912,000.

Premier Bancorp's results of operations depend primarily on Premier Bank's net interest income, which is the difference between the income earned on Premier Bank's loan and securities portfolios and its cost of funds, consisting of the interest paid on deposits and borrowings. Results of operations are also affected by Premier Bank's provision for loan losses, noninterest income and noninterest expense. Noninterest income consists primarily of fees and service charges. Premier Bank's noninterest expense consists principally of compensation and employee benefits, occupancy, equipment and data processing, and other operating expenses. Results of operations are significantly affected by general economic and competitive conditions and changes in interest rates, as well as government policies and actions of regulatory authorities. Additionally, future changes in applicable law, regulations or government policies may materially affect Premier Bancorp's results of operations and financial condition.

The accompanying tables and the discussion and financial information are presented to aid in understanding Premier Bancorp's financial condition and results of operations. The emphasis of this discussion will be on the years 2003 and 2002; however, financial information for prior years will also be discussed where appropriate.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The accounting principles Premier Bancorp follows and the methods of applying these principles conform with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and with general practices within the banking industry. Premier Bancorp's critical accounting policy relates to the allowance for loan losses. It is based on management's opinion of an amount that is intended to absorb losses in the existing portfolio. The allowance for loan losses is established through a provision for losses based on management's evaluation of the risk inherent in the loan portfolio, the composition of the portfolio, specific impaired loans and current economic conditions. Such evaluation, which includes a review of all loans for which full collectibility may not be reasonably assured, considers among other matters, the estimated net realizable value or the fair value of the underlying collateral, economic conditions, historical loan loss experience, management's estimate of probable credit losses, and other factors that warrant recognition in providing for the allowance for loan losses. This evaluation involves a high degree of complexity, however, and requires management to make subjective judgments that often require assumptions or estimates about highly uncertain matters. This critical accounting policy and its application are periodically reviewed with the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors.

*Results of Operations for Nine Months Ended September 30, 2004 Compared to Nine Months Ended September 30, 2003General

Net income, after tax, for the nine month period ended September 30, 2004 was $973,572 compared to $802,759 for the nine month period ended September 30, 2003. Basic and diluted income per common share were $1.62 and $1.31, respectively, for 2004, compared to $1.34 and $1.08 for 2003. Premier Bancorp was fully taxable, and for the nine month period ended September 30, 2004 had a charge against earnings of $496,125 compared to $493,869 for the nine month period ended September 30, 2003. No dividends have been paid in 2004.

Returns on average consolidated assets and average consolidated equity for the periods indicated were as follows:

	Nine-Month Period Ended September 30,

Net Interest Income

Net interest income for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004 was $4,124,336 compared to $3,447,666 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003. The increase was primarily a result of a combined continued growth in Premier Bank's loan portfolio during 2004, increased real estate construction loan fees and falling rates on time deposits. The loan growth was funded primarily by deposit growth. Annualized net interest margin for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004 was 4.09%, compared to 4.30% for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003. For the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004, the average annualized yield on interest earning assets was 5.66%, compared to 6.04% for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003. For the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004, loans produced an annualized yield of 5.98%, compared to 6.48% for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003. The average rate paid on interest-bearing deposits was 1.95% for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004, compared to 2.18% for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003. The decrease was the result of falling rates on time deposits. Management expects that the cost of funds will remain steady for the remainder of 2004. As a result of the competition among all financial services firms for customers' deposits, however, Premier Bank's cost of funds could be adversely affected.

Noninterest Income

Total noninterest income was $809,734 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004, compared to $1,118,243 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003. Service charges on deposits totaled $104,390 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004 and $107,940 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003. Mortgage banking income was $269,182 versus $547,879 for the same respective periods, mainly resulting from decreased refinancing activity. Other income includes safe deposit box rent, ATM interchange income and surcharges, credit card interchange income and the sale of checks to depositors. Management expects that other fee income will continue to increase as the bank increases in size.

Noninterest Expense

Total noninterest expense was $2,989,373 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004, a decrease of $64,908 or 2% compared to $3,054,281 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003. The major component of this decrease was salaries and employee benefits which decreased by $106,973 for 2004 when compared to 2003. At September 30, 2004, Premier Bank had 42 full-time equivalent employees as compared to 41 at September 30, 2003. Management expects that, as Premier Bank continues to grow, noninterest expenses will increase moderately, but overhead costs as a percentage of both interest income and total assets will continue to decrease.

Provision For Loan Losses

The allowance for loan losses is maintained by management at a level considered adequate to cover probable future losses in Premier Bank's loan portfolio. Management's determination of the appropriate provision for loan losses and the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses is based, in part, on the consideration of loss histories of other similar community financial institutions which management believes are representative of the probable expected loss experience of Premier Bank. Other factors considered by management include the composition of the loan portfolio, current economic conditions, the creditworthiness of Premier Bank's borrowers and other related factors.

The provision for loan losses was $475,000 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2004, compared with $215,000 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003. At September 30, 2004, the allowance for loan losses was 1.11% of total loans, compared to 1.11% at September 30, 2003. At September 30, 2004, $74,000 of the allowance for loan losses was allocated to impaired loan balances as compared to $0 at September 30, 2003. At September 30, 2004, five loans totaling $610,826 were in nonaccrual status compared to three for $284,691 at September 30, 2003. Management believes the allowance for loan losses at September 30, 2004 is adequate to absorb probable losses in the loan portfolio.

An analysis of Premier Bank's loss experience is furnished in the following table for the periods indicated, as well as a breakdown of the allowance for possible loan losses (dollars in thousands):

Allowance For Loan Losses

In considering the adequacy of Premier Bank's allowance for loan losses at September 30, 2004, management analyzed the loan portfolio for underlying credit risk. Among other things, factors such as historical experience, volume and type of lending, the amount of non-performing assets, regulatory policies, generally accepted accounting principles, general economic conditions and other factors related to collectibility of loans were considered. In its analysis, management noted that 76% of outstanding loans were secured by real estate and 17% were secured by commercial and industrial loans. Management also considered that only 1.45% of the outstanding loans were in a classified category. Furthermore, management reviewed any concentrations of credit and considered the limited lending area in which it operates. Management believes that its methodology in calculating the sufficiency of the allowance for loan losses is adequate for the size and complexity of its loan portfolio.

Net interest margin for 2003 was 4.29%, compared to 4.42% for 2002 and 4.17% for 2001. For 2003, the average yield on interest earning assets was 6.06%, compared to 6.66% for 2002 and 7.85% for 2001. The decrease was the result of general decreases in interest rates. Management expects that the cost of funds will decline in 2004 because of a leveling off of interest rates. As a result of the competition among all financial services firms for customers' deposits, however, Premier Bancorp's cost of funds could be adversely affected.

Noninterest Income

Total noninterest income was $1,423,052 for the year ended December 31, 2003, compared to $921,575 for 2002 and $839,955 for 2001. The increase for 2003 mainly resulted from increased refinancing activity. There were no net securities gains or losses for the year ended December 31, 2003 and 2001 compared to a gain of $1,008 for 2002. Other income includes safe deposit box rent, ATM interchange income and surcharges, credit card interchange income and the sale of checks to depositors. Major components of this increase include salaries and employee benefits (which increased $621,615 for 2003 when compared to 2002) and other expenses, office management and supplies (which increased $65,646). These increases include such items as outside fees and assessments, dues and subscriptions, loan expense, directors fees, travel and franchise tax. For the year ended December 31, 2001, noninterest expense was $2,914,043, an increase of $488,962 compared to the year ended December 31, 2002. The primary component of this increase was an increase in salaries and employee benefits of $329,901. At December 31, 2003, Premier Bank had 43 full-time equivalent employees as compared to 40 at December 31, 2002 and 37 at December 31, 2001. Management expects that, as Premier Bank continues to grow, noninterest expenses will increase moderately, but overhead costs as a percentage of both interest income and total assets will continue to decrease.

Provision For Loan Losses

The allowance for loan losses is maintained by management at a level considered adequate to cover probable future losses in Premier Bank's loan portfolio. Management's determination of the appropriate provision for loan losses and the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses is based, in part, on the consideration of loss histories of other similar community financial institutions which management believes are representative of the probable expected loss experience of Premier Bank. Other factors considered by management include the composition of the loan portfolio, current economic conditions, the creditworthiness of Premier Bank's borrowers and other related factors.

The provision for loan losses was $365,000 for the year ended December 31, 2003, compared with $165,000 for the year ended December 31, 2002 and $289,393 for the year ended December 31, 2001. At December 31, 2003, the allowance for loan losses was 1.05% of total loans, compared to 1.28% at year-end 2002 and 1.25% for year-end 2001. At December 31, 2003, $168,000 of the allowance for loan losses was allocated to impaired loan balances as compared to $185,531 at December 31, 2002 and $15,344 at December 31, 2001. At December 31, 2003, two loans totaling $193,869 were in nonaccrual status as compared to eight loans totaling $185,531 at December 31, 2002 and one loan totaling $17,325 at December 31, 2001. Management believes the allowance for loan losses at December 31, 2003 is adequate to absorb probable losses in the loan portfolio.

An analysis of Premier Bank's loss experience is furnished in the following table for the years indicated, as well as a breakdown of the allowance for possible loan losses (dollars in thousands):

Allowance For Loan Losses

In considering the adequacy of Premier Bank's allowance for loan losses, management has considered that at December 31, 2003, 72% of outstanding loans were secured by real estate.

Premier Bank's consumer loan portfolio was well secured at December 31, 2003 and, accordingly, does not, in management's opinion, involve more than normal credit risk. The same is true for Premier Bank's real estate mortgage portfolio, approximately 25% of which is secured by a first mortgage on 1-4 family residential properties.

Although Premier Bank's loan portfolio is concentrated in Middle Tennessee, management does not believe this geographic concentration presents an abnormally high risk.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Liquidity refers to Premier Bank's ability to fund loan demand, meet deposit customers' withdrawal needs and provide for operating expenses. Premier Bank's main sources of cash flow are from receiving deposits from its customers, and to a lesser extent, from repayment of loan principal and interest income on loans and securities. Other sources of liquidity include the sale of securities available for sale from Premier Bank's securities portfolio, the sale of loans held for sale, Federal Home Loan Bank advances, the purchase of federal funds, repurchase agreements or brokered deposits.

The trust then issued trust preferred securities to investors and used the proceeds to purchase the junior subordinated debt securities from Premier Bancorp. The trust preferred securities are considered equity for regulatory purposes and debt for tax purposes. The trust preferred securities qualify as regulatory capital for Premier Bancorp (under current Federal Reserve guidelines, the trust preferred securities qualify as Tier 1 Capital up to a maximum of 25% of Premier Bancorp's total Tier 1 Capital and any remainder qualifies as Tier 2 Capital). For GAAP, the subordinated debentures are shown on Premier Bancorp's consolidated balance sheet as long-term debt.

There were no material commitments for capital expenditures and known material trends in capital resources in 2003, 2002 or during the nine months ended September 30, 2004.

Loans maturing or repricing within one year totaled $78,584,000 or 69% of total loans. Premier Bank had $1,411 loans maturing or repricing after five years. At December 31, 2003, Premier Bank had approximately $81,872,000 of earning assets and $70,637,000 in interest bearing deposits maturing or repricing within one year.

One of management's objectives in managing Premier Bank's balance sheet for interest rate sensitivity is to reduce volatility in the net interest margin by matching, as closely as possible, the timing of the repricing of its interest rate sensitive assets with interest rate sensitive liabilities. During 2003 and 2002, Premier Bank experienced two decreases a 50 basis point drop in 2002 and a 25 basis point in 2003. Management believes that, at December 31, 2003, interest rates were at or near their 40-year historic low point and expects rates to increase within the next two years.

The following table presents the interest rate sensitivity gap for Premier Bank at December 31, 2003:

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Market risk reflects the risk of economic loss resulting from changes in interest rates and market prices. This risk of loss can be reflected in either reduced potential net interest revenue in future periods or diminished market values of financial assets.

Premier Bancorp's market risk arises primarily from interest rate risk that is inherent in its lending, investment and deposit taking activities. Financial institutions derive their income primarily from the excess of interest collected over interest paid. The rates of interest Premier Bancorp earns on its assets and owes on its liabilities are established contractually for a period of time. Since market interest rates change over time, Premier Bancorp is exposed to lower profit margins (or losses) if it cannot adapt to interest rate changes. Several techniques might be used by a financial institution to minimize interest rate risk. One approach used by Premier Bancorp is to periodically analyze its assets and liabilities and make future financing and investing decisions based on payment streams, interest rates, contractual maturities, repricing opportunities and estimated sensitivity to actual or potential changes in market interest rates. Such activities fall under the broad definition of asset/liability management. Premier Bancorp employs an interest rate risk (earnings at risk) analysis and an economic value of equity analysis for measuring its asset/liability sensitivity position. Both of these techniques are applied through the use of an income simulation model. Interest rate risk is measured by simulating net interest and net income over a predetermined horizon. The income simulation process produces a set of income projections under varying interest rate scenarios. Premier Bancorp reviews income simulation results over a twelve and twenty-four month horizon. Economic value of equity measures the present values of assets and liabilities by projecting future cash flows using varying interest rate scenarios. Because this measure is more forward-looking than income simulation, it is employed more for evaluating the bank's asset/liability sensitivity position over a long period of time. Management seeks to manage interest rate risk through the utilization of various tools that include matching repricing periods for new assets and liabilities and managing the composition and size of the investment portfolio so as to reduce the risk in the deposit and loan portfolios, while at the same time maximizing the yield generated from the portfolio.

The following tables provide information about Premier Bancorp's financial instruments that are sensitive to changes in interest rates as of December 31, 2003. The expected maturity categories take into account repricing opportunities as well as contractual maturities. For core deposits without contractual maturities (interest bearing checking, savings and money market accounts), the tables present cash flows based on management's judgment concerning their most likely runoff or repricing behaviors. The fair value of loans, deposits and other borrowings are based on the discounted value of expected cash flows using a discount rate which is commensurate with the maturity. The fair value of securities is based on market prices or dealer quotes.

The restated articles of incorporation of BancorpSouth explain that the rights to indemnification contained therein are intended to be greater than that otherwise provided for in the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, are contractual in nature, and in that respect are mandatory, despite a person's failure to meet the standard of conduct required for permissive indemnification under the Mississippi Business Corporation Act.

The Tennessee Business Corporation Act generally provides that Premier Bancorp may indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee or agent who is not a director to the same extent as to a director and that Premier Bancorp may also indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee or agent who is not a director to the extent, consistent with public policy, that may be provided by the governing corporate instruments of Premier Bancorp, general or specific action of the Board of Directors or by contract.

The amended and restated bylaws of BancorpSouth provide that any indemnification pursuant to the bylaws shall be made only as authorized in specific cases upon a determination that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct.

The Mississippi Business Corporation Act provides that BancorpSouth may indemnify an individual who is a party to a proceeding because he is a director against liability if: (1) (i) he conducted himself in good faith; (ii) he reasonably believed (A) in the case of conduct in his official capacity, that his conduct was in the best interests of BancorpSouth and (B) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of BancorpSouth; and (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, that he had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful; or (2) he engaged in conduct for which broader indemnification has been

Control Share Acquisitions

Pursuant to the Mississippi Control Share Act, control shares that are the subject of a control share acquisition only have voting rights as determined by the Mississippi Control Share Act. Control shares are shares acquired by a person under certain circumstances which would result in voting power, when added to all other shares owned by such person, that would give that person (i) one-fifth or more but less than one-third of all voting power; (ii) one-third or more but less than a majority of all voting power; or (iii) a majority or more of all voting power.

In general, the voting rights of control shares are restored if, by reason of subsequent issuance of shares or other transactions by the issuing public corporation, the voting power of those control shares is reduced to a range of voting power for which approval has been granted or is not required, upon transfer of such shares to certain other persons or upon the expiration of three years after the date that the shareholders failed to approve a resolution according voting rights to those control shares.

The Mississippi Control Share Act does not apply to BancorpSouth

The Tennessee Control Share Acquisition Act generally provides that the voting rights of control shares acquired in a control share acquisition will have the same voting rights as other shares of the same class only if approved by resolution of the shareholders.

Control shares are shares acquired by a person under certain circumstances which would result in voting power, when added to all other shares owned by such person, that would give that person (i) one-fifth or more but less than one-third of all voting power; (ii) one-third or more but less than a majority of all voting power or a majority; or (iii) more of all voting power. In general, voting rights of control shares are restored upon transfer of such shares to another person unless the transfer constitutes a control share acquisition.

The Tennessee Investor Protection Act places certain limitations on offerors, requires registration of takeover offers and requires filing of solicitation materials.

The Tennessee Investor Protection Act does not apply to Premier Bancorp because Premier Bancorp is a bank holding company subject to regulation by a federal agency.

The Tennessee Greenmail Act provides that a corporation may not purchase any of its shares at a price above the market value of such shares from any person who holds more than 3% of the class of securities to be purchased if such person has held the shares for less than two years unless the purchase has been approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of each class of voting stock issued by the corporation or the corporation makes an offer, of at least equal value per share, to all shareholders of such class.

The Tennessee Greenmail Act does not apply to Premier Bancorp because it does not have a class of voting stock registered or traded on a national securities exchange or registered with the SEC pursuant to Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act.

In general, the Tennessee Business Corporation Act provides that, in the case of a merger or a sale of assets of Premier Bancorp not in the ordinary course of activities, a plan of merger or the proposed transaction, in order to be adopted or authorized, must be approved by the Board of Directors and by the shareholders by two-thirds of the votes cast or a majority of the voting power, whichever is less.

The Mississippi Business Corporation Act provides that a sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of assets, subject to certain exceptions, requires approval of BancorpSouth's shareholders if BancorpSouth would leave the corporation without a significant continuing business activity. If BancorpSouth retains a business activity that represented at least 25% of total assets at the end of the most recently completed fiscal year, and 25% of either income from continuing operations before taxes or revenues from continuing operations for that fiscal year, in each case of BancorpSouth and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, BancorpSouth will conclusively be deemed to have retained a significant continuing business activity. Certificates previously representing shares of PBC Common Stock shall be exchanged for certificates representing whole shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares issued in consideration therefor and Cash Consideration upon the surrender of such Certificates in accordance with Section 2.2 hereof, without any interest thereon. If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock shall be changed into a different number or class of shares by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or readjustment, or a stock dividend thereon shall be declared with a record date within said period (any such event, an Anti-Dilution Event), the Exchange Ratio and the Merger Consideration shall be adjusted to result in the same aggregate consideration being delivered to PBC's shareholders as would have been received had such Anti-Dilution Event not occurred.

(g) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, shares of PBC Common Stock which are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and with respect to which dissenters' rights shall have been properly demanded in accordance with Sections 48-23-201, et. seq. of the TBCA (PBC Dissenting Shares) shall not be converted into the right to receive, or be exchangeable for, Merger Consideration or cash in lieu of fractional shares but, instead, the holders thereof shall be entitled to payment of the appraised value of such PBC Dissenting Shares in accordance with the provisions of Sections of the TBCA; provided, however, that (i) if any holder of PBC Dissenting Shares shall subsequently deliver a written withdrawal of his demand for appraisal of such shares, or (ii) if any holder fails to establish his entitlement to dissenters' rights as provided in Sections 48-23-202, et. sec. of the TBCA, such holder or holders (as the case may be) shall forfeit the right to appraisal of such shares of PBC Common Stock and each of such shares shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted into the right to receive, and to have become exchangeable for, as of the Effective Time, Stock Consideration and/or cash in lieu of fractional shares and/or Cash Consideration, without any interest thereon, as provided in Sections 1.4(a) and 1.4(c) and Article II hereof.

(h) At the Effective Time, all shares of PBB common stock shall be canceled and shall cease to exist and no stock of BancorpSouth or BancorpSouth Bank or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

1.5 Stock Options. At the Effective Time, each option granted by PBC to purchase shares of PBC Common Stock which is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior thereto (each, a PBC Option) shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any further action by the holder thereof, cease to represent a right to acquire shares of PBC Common Stock and shall be considered an option (the New Option) issued under and subject to the appropriate stock option plan of BancorpSouth to purchase shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock to be issued in an amount and at an exercise price determined as provided below:

(a) The number of shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock to be subject to the New Option shall be equal to the number of shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock to which the holder of the PBC Option would have been entitled under Section 1.4(a) of this Agreement had the PBC Option been exercised in full immediately prior to the Effective Time and had such holder received only Stock Consideration in the Merger, provided that any fractional shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock resulting from such multiplication shall be rounded to the nearest whole share; and

(b) The exercise price per share of BancorpSouth Common Stock under the New Option shall be equal to the aggregate exercise price for the shares of PBC Common Stock otherwise purchasable under the PBC Option divided by the number of shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock issuable under the New Option pursuant to Section 1.5(a); provided that any such exercise price which would otherwise include a fraction of a cent shall be rounded to the nearest whole cent. The adjustment provided herein with respect to any PBC Options which are incentive stock options (as defined in Section 422 of the Code) shall be and is intended to be effected in a manner which is consistent with Section 424(a) of the Code and, to the extent it is not so consistent, such Section 424(a) of the Code shall override anything to the contrary contained herein. The duration of the New Option shall be the same as the original PBC Option. All New Options shall be exercisable by the holder thereof in accordance with the terms of the agreements for the PBC Options.

(c) At the Effective Time, BancorpSouth shall either adopt the PBC Option plans for the purpose of issuing New Options or, in BancorpSouth's sole discretion, issue New Options under and subject to an appropriate stock option plan of BancorpSouth. At or prior to the Effective Time, BancorpSouth shall take all corporate action necessary to reserve for issuance a sufficient number of shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock for delivery upon exercise of the New Options. At or prior to the Effective Time, BancorpSouth shall take such action as is necessary to ensure that a registration statement on Form S-8, S-4 or other applicable form is effective to cover the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock subject to the New Options.

1.6 Tax Matters. Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, it is intended that the Holding Company Merger shall qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and that this Agreement shall constitute a plan of reorganization for purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code.

(a) In order that the Holding Company Merger will not fail to satisfy the continuity of interest requirements under applicable federal income tax principles relating to reorganizations under Section 368(a) of the Code, if the aggregate value of the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Holding Company Merger, based upon the closing price of BancorpSouth Common Stock as reported on the NYSE at the end of the regular session on the business day immediately preceding the Effective Time (the Aggregate BancorpSouth Share Value Consideration), would be less than 45% of the sum of (i) the Aggregate BancorpSouth Share Value Consideration and (ii) the Aggregate Cash Value Consideration (as defined below), then BancorpSouth may, in its sole discretion, increase the Stock Consideration and decrease the Cash Consideration so that the aggregate value of the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock to be issued to the holders of PBC Common Stock in connection with the Holding Company Merger, as determined based upon the closing price of BancorpSouth Common Stock as reported on the NYSE at the end of the regular session on the business day immediately preceding the Effective Time, is equal to 45% of the sum of (i) the aggregate value of the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock to be issued to the holders of PBC Common Stock in connection with the Holding Company Merger, as determined based upon the closing price of BancorpSouth Common Stock as reported on the NYSE at the end of the regular session on the business day immediately preceding the Effective Time, and (ii) the Aggregate Cash Value Consideration. In the event that the Stock Consideration and Cash Consideration are adjusted as provided for in this Section 1.6(a), all references in this Agreement to the Stock Consideration and the Cash Consideration shall refer to the Stock Consideration and Cash Consideration as adjusted in this Section 1.6(a). For purposes of this Agreement, the Aggregate Cash Value Consideration shall be an amount equal to the sum of (x) Aggregate Cash Election Amount, (y) the product of the number of PBC Dissenting Shares (except to the extent that the holder of such PBC Dissenting Shares, as of the Closing Date, has effectively withdrawn or lost his right to dissent from the Merger under the TBCA) and the Cash Consideration and (z) any other amounts received by a holder of PBC Common Stock prior to the Merger, either in a redemption of PBC stock or in a distribution with respect to PBC stock (but only to the extent such amount is treated as other property or money received in the exchange for purposes of Section 356 of the Code, or would be so treated if the PBC shareholder also had received stock of BancorpSouth in exchange for stock owned by the shareholder in PBC).

(b) The parties agree that BancorpSouth may at any time change the method of effecting the combination of BancorpSouth and PBC or the Bank Merger, including, without limitation, by merging PBC with a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of BancorpSouth, and PBC shall cooperate in such efforts, including by entering into an appropriate amendment to this Agreement (to the extent such amendment only changes the method of effecting the business combination and does not substantively affect this Agreement or the rights and obligations of the parties or their respective shareholders hereunder); provided, however, that any such subsidiary shall become a party to, and shall agree to be bound by, the terms of this Agreement, and that any such change shall not (i) alter or change the kind or amount of Merger Consideration to be provided to holders of PBC Common Stock as provided for in this Agreement, (ii) adversely affect the rights of holders of PBC Options (hereinafter defined) or (iii) materially impede or delay consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

ARTICLE II. EXCHANGE OF SHARES

2.1 BancorpSouth to Make Shares and Cash Available. At or prior to the Effective Time, BancorpSouth shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with SunTrust Bank, Atlanta, N.A. or another bank or trust company (the Exchange Agent) selected by BancorpSouth and reasonably satisfactory to PBC, for the benefit of the holders of Certificates, for exchange in accordance with this Article II, the Cash Consideration, certificates representing the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock constituting the Stock Consideration and the cash in lieu of fractional shares (such cash and certificates for shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund) to be issued pursuant to Section 1.4 and paid pursuant to Section 2.2(a) in exchange for outstanding shares of PBC Common Stock.

2.2 Exchange of Shares; Payment of Cash Consideration.

(a) At the time of the mailing of the Proxy Statement and Prospectus described in Section 7.1 hereof, BancorpSouth will cause the Exchange Agent to send to each holder of record of shares of PBC Common Stock on the record date for the meeting of the shareholders of PBC a letter of transmittal and cash election form (collectively, the Election Form) and other appropriate materials providing for such holder, subject to the provisions of Section 1.4 hereof, to make a Stock Election, Cash Election, Mixed Election, or No Election. As of the Election Deadline (as defined below), any shares of PBC Common Stock with respect to which there shall not have been such election by submission to the Exchange Agent of an effective, properly completed Election Form shall be deemed to be No Election Shares.

(i) Any Cash Election, Stock Election or Mixed Election shall have been validly made only if the Exchange Agent shall have received an Election Form properly completed by 5:00 p.m., Central Time, on the second business day immediately preceding the meeting of shareholders of PBC described in Section 7.1 hereof (the Election Deadline). An election by a holder of shares of PBC Common Stock shall be validly made only if the Exchange Agent shall have received an Election Form properly completed and executed (with the signature or signatures thereon guaranteed if required by the Election Form) by such holder of shares of PBC Common Stock. An Election Form shall be deemed properly completed only if accompanied by one or more Certificates (or customary affidavits and, if required by BancorpSouth, indemnification regarding the loss or destruction of such Certificates or the guaranteed delivery of such Certificates) representing all shares of PBC Common Stock covered by such Election Form, together with duly executed transmittal materials included with the Election Form. BancorpSouth shall have the right to make reasonable determinations and to establish reasonable procedures (not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement) in guiding the Exchange Agent in its determination as to the validity of Election Forms and of any revision, revocation or withdrawal thereof.

(ii) Two or more holders of shares of PBC Common Stock who are determined to constructively own shares owned by each other by virtue of Section 318(a) of the Code and who so certify to BancorpSouth's satisfaction, and any single holder of shares of PBC Common Stock who holds such shares in two or more different names and who so certifies to BancorpSouth's satisfaction, may submit a joint Election Form covering the aggregate shares of PBC Common Stock owned by all such holders or by such single holder, as the case may be. For all purposes of this Agreement, each such group of holders which, and each such single holder who, submits a joint Election Form shall be treated as a single holder of shares of PBC Common Stock.

(iii) Each holder of record of shares of PBC Common Stock who holds such shares as nominee, trustee or in other representative capacities (each, a Representative) may submit multiple Election Forms, provided that such Representative certifies that each such Election Form covers all shares of PBC Common Stock held by that Representative for a particular beneficial owner.

(iv) Any holder of shares of PBC Common Stock who has made an election by submitting an Election Form to the Exchange Agent may at any time prior to the Election Deadline change such holder's election by submitting a revised Election Form, properly completed and signed, that is received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline. Any holder of shares of PBC Common Stock may at any time prior to the Election Deadline revoke such holder's election by written notice to the Exchange Agent received at any time prior to the Election Deadline.

(b) As soon as practicable after the Election Deadline (the Allocation Date), the Exchange Agent shall effectuate the allocation among the holders of shares of PBC Common Stock of rights to receive the Stock Consideration, the Cash Consideration or a combination of both the Stock Consideration and the Cash Consideration in the Merger in accordance with the terms of this Section. As more fully set forth in Section 1.4 above, the aggregate number of shares of PBC Common Stock to be converted in the Merger into the right to receive Cash Consideration may not exceed 49.0% of the outstanding shares of PBC Common Stock, and the aggregate number of shares of PBC Common Stock to be converted in the Merger into the right to receive Stock Consideration may not exceed 51.0% of the total number of outstanding shares of PBC Common Stock.

(c) No dividends or other distributions declared after the Effective Time with respect to BancorpSouth Common Stock and payable to the holders of record thereof shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate until the holder thereof shall surrender such Certificate in accordance with this Article II. After the surrender of a Certificate in accordance with this Article II, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock represented by such Certificate.

(d) If any certificate representing shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock is to be issued in a name other than that in which the Certificate surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition of the issuance thereof that the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed (or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer) and otherwise in proper form for transfer, and that the person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the issuance of a certificate representing shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or required for any other reason, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

(e) After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of PBC of the shares of PBC Common Stock which were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates representing such shares are presented for transfer to the Exchange Agent, they shall be canceled and exchanged for certificates representing shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock as provided in this Article II.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates, no dividend or distribution with respect to BancorpSouth Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of BancorpSouth. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, BancorpSouth shall pay to each former shareholder of PBC who otherwise would be entitled to receive a fractional share of BancorpSouth Common Stock an amount in cash equal to the product of (x) $22.984 and (y) the fraction of a share of BancorpSouth Common Stock which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to Article I hereof.

(g) Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of PBC for 12 months after the Effective Time shall be paid to BancorpSouth. Any shareholders of PBC who have not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to BancorpSouth for payment of their portion of the Cash Consideration and their shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock, cash in lieu of fractional shares and unpaid dividends and distributions on BancorpSouth Common Stock deliverable in respect of each share of PBC Common Stock such shareholder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement, in each case, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of BancorpSouth, PBC, the Exchange Agent or any other person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of PBC Common Stock for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

(h) In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by BancorpSouth, the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as is customarily required by BancorpSouth and Exchange Agent for other shareholders of BancorpSouth as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

ARTICLE III. DISCLOSURE SCHEDULES; STANDARDS FOR REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

3.1 Disclosure Schedules. On or prior to the date hereof, each of BancorpSouth and PBC has delivered to the other party a schedule (in the case of PBC, the PBC Disclosure Schedule, and in the case of BancorpSouth, the BancorpSouth Disclosure Schedule, and, generally, a Disclosure Schedule) setting forth, among other things, items the disclosure of which is necessary or appropriate either in response to an express disclosure requirement contained in a provision hereof or as an exception to one or more of such party's representations or warranties contained in Article IV, in the case of PBC, or Article V, in the case of BancorpSouth, or to one or more of such party's covenants contained in Article VI; provided, however, that the mere inclusion of an item in a Disclosure Schedule as an exception to a representation or warranty shall not be deemed an admission by a party that such item represents a material exception or material fact, event or circumstance or that such item has had or could be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in Section 3.2 below) with respect to either PBC or BancorpSouth, respectively.

3.2 Standards.

(a) As used in this Agreement, the term Material Adverse Effect means, with respect to PBC, (i) a change in the business or properties of PBC or its Subsidiaries which, individually or in the aggregate has resulted or is reasonably expected by BancorpSouth, to result in losses, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses, judgments or fines in an amount of $750,000 or greater; or (ii) is materially adverse to (A) the business, condition, assets, properties, rights, prospects or results of operations of PBC and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole or (B) the ability of PBC and its Subsidiaries to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby; provided that, for purposes of clauses (i) and (ii), Material Adverse Effect shall specifically exclude any adverse effect attributable to or resulting from (1) any change in banking laws, rules or regulations of general applicability or interpretations thereof by courts or governmental authorities, (2) any change in generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) or regulatory accounting principles applicable to banks or their holding companies generally, (3) any action or omission of PBC or any Subsidiary of PBC taken with the express prior written consent of BancorpSouth, (4) any expenses incurred by PBC where such expenses are contemplated by or reasonably incurred in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, (5) the fact that PBC does not meet the revenue, profit or balance sheet predictions set forth in PBC's internal projections separately delivered to BancorpSouth (provided that this exception shall not excuse any breach of a representation, warranty or covenant that results in such failure to meet projections), (6) any termination or resignation of employment by any employee of PBC or PBB as a result of the pendency of the Merger, including any termination arising as a result of the employment package (including title, level of responsibility, location of employment or compensation) offered to such employees by BancorpSouth or BancorpSouth Bank, or (7) any changes in general economic conditions or changes affecting the banking industry generally, including adverse changes in the banking or financial markets (provided such changes do not affect PBC in a disproportionate manner).

(b) As used in this Agreement, the term "Material Adverse Effect" means, with respect to BancorpSouth, a material adverse effect on (i) the business, condition, assets, properties, rights, prospects or results of operations of BancorpSouth and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole or (ii) the ability of BancorpSouth and its Subsidiaries to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby; provided that Material Adverse Effect shall specifically exclude any adverse effect attributable to or resulting from (A) any change in banking laws, rules or regulations of general applicability, (B) any change in GAAP or regulatory accounting principles applicable to banks or their holding companies generally or interpretations thereof by courts or governmental authorities, (C) any action or omission of BancorpSouth or any Subsidiary of BancorpSouth taken with the express prior written consent of PBC, (D) any expenses incurred by BancorpSouth where such expenses are contemplated by or reasonably incurred in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, or (E) any changes in general economic conditions or changes affecting the banking industry generally, including adverse changes in the banking or financial markets (provided such changes do not affect BancorpSouth in a disproportionate manner). Changes in the market price of BancorpSouth Common Stock shall not be considered Material Adverse Effects or otherwise considered a material change or circumstance for any purpose.

(c) As used in this Agreement, the word "Subsidiary" when used with respect to any party means any corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other person, entity or organization, whether incorporated or unincorporated, with respect to which such party owns, directly or indirectly, 50% or more of the equity or ownership interests, or an amount of voting securities or ownership interests sufficient to elect at least a majority of its board of directors or other governing body.

PBC has the corporate power and authority to own or lease all of its properties and assets and to carry on its business as it is now being conducted. PBC is duly licensed or qualified to do business in each jurisdiction in which the nature of the business conducted by it or the character or location of the properties and assets owned or leased by it makes such licensing or qualification necessary, except where failure to obtain such license or qualification would not have a Material Adverse Effect on PBC. PBC is duly registered as a bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (the "BHC Act"). The Charter and Bylaws of PBC, copies of which have previously been provided to BancorpSouth, are true and correct copies of such documents as currently in effect. The Charter and Bylaws of PBB, copies of which have previously been provided to BancorpSouth, are true and correct copies of such documents as currently in effect. PBB has no Subsidiaries and does not own beneficially, directly or indirectly, any shares of any equity securities or similar interests of any person, or any interest in a partnership or joint venture of any kind.

Such minutes are not included in the regular minute books and have not been made available to BancorpSouth.

The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly and validly approved by the Board of Directors of PBC and the Board of Directors of PBB. Except for the adoption of this Agreement by the requisite vote of PBC's shareholders, no other proceedings on the part of PBC or its Subsidiaries are necessary to approve this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by PBC, and this Agreement constitutes a valid and binding obligation of PBC, enforceable against PBC in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement may be limited by general principles of equity whether applied in a court of law or a court of equity and by bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally.

(b) Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement, nor the consummation by PBC of the transactions contemplated hereby, nor compliance by PBC with any of the terms or provisions hereof or thereof, will (i) violate any provision of the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of PBC or the articles of incorporation, bylaws or similar governing documents of any of PBC's Subsidiaries, or (ii) assuming that the consents and approvals referred to in Section 4.4 hereof are duly obtained, (A) violate any statute, code, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, order, writ, decree or injunction applicable to PBC or any of its Subsidiaries, or any of their respective properties or assets, or (B) violate, conflict with, result in a breach of any provision of or the loss of any benefit under, constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default) under, result in the termination of or a right of termination or cancellation under, accelerate the performance required by, or result in the creation of any lien, pledge, security interest, charge or other encumbrance upon any of the respective properties or assets of PBC or any of its Subsidiaries under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, deed of trust, license, lease, agreement or other instrument or obligation to which PBC or any of its Subsidiaries is a party, or by which they or any of their respective properties or assets may be bound or affected unless, with respect to (ii) above, such violation, conflict, or breach would not have a Material Adverse Effect on PBC.

4.4 Consents and Approvals. Except for (a) the filing of applications and notices, as applicable, with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the Federal Reserve Board), the FDIC, the Federal Trade Commission (the FTC) and the Department of Justice (DoJ), and approval of such applications and notices, (b) the filing of such applications, filings, authorizations, orders and approvals as may be required under applicable state law, (c) the filing with, and declaration of effectiveness by, the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) of a registration statement on Form S-4 (such registration statement and any post-effective amendment thereto relating to this transaction, or any other registration statement on Form S-4 used in connection with the Merger, the S-4) in which will be included as a prospectus a definitive proxy statement relating to the meeting of shareholders of PBC to be held in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein (the Proxy Statement), (d) the approval of this Agreement by the requisite vote of the shareholders of PBC, (e) the filing of the Articles of Merger with, as applicable, the Mississippi Secretary, the Tennessee Secretary, the Mississippi Department and the Tennessee Department and (f) approval for listing of BancorpSouth Common Stock to be issued in the Merger on the NYSE, no consents or approvals of or filings or registrations with any court, administrative agency or commission or other governmental authority or instrumentality (each a Governmental Entity) or with any third party are necessary in connection with (i) the execution and delivery by PBC of this Agreement and (ii) the consummation by PBC and its Subsidiaries of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby.

4.5 Reports. PBC shall identify the nature of any such limitation on access and disclosure, and the parties hereto will make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in any other agreement to the contrary, no investigation by BancorpSouth or its Representatives shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of PBC set forth herein, and the parties shall remain responsible to the extent provided herein.

(c) The parties agree that the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement, dated as of July 9, 2004, between PBC and BancorpSouth, shall survive the execution (or termination) of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect for the term thereof.

7.4 Legal Conditions to Merger. Each of BancorpSouth and PBC shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use their reasonable best efforts (a) to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable to comply promptly with all legal requirements which may be imposed on such party or its Subsidiaries with respect to the Merger and, subject to the conditions set forth in Article VIII hereof, to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (b) to obtain (and to cooperate with the other party to obtain) any consent, authorization, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any Governmental Entity and any other third party which is required to be obtained by PBC or BancorpSouth or any of their respective Subsidiaries in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and to comply with the terms and conditions of such consent, authorization, order or approval.

7.7 Employee Benefit Plans; Existing Agreements.

(a) As of the Effective Time, the employees of PBC and its Subsidiaries (the PBC Employees) shall at the discretion of BancorpSouth either continue to participate in the PBC Employee Plans or, to the extent permissible under the terms of the BancorpSouth Plans, shall become eligible to participate in BancorpSouth's employee benefit plans in which similarly situated employees of BancorpSouth or BancorpSouth Bank participate, to the same extent as similarly situated employees of BancorpSouth or BancorpSouth Bank (it being understood that inclusion of PBC Employees in BancorpSouth's employee benefit plans may occur at different times with respect to different plans)

determining eligibility, vesting or accrual of benefits under the BancorpSouth defined benefit pension plan. Such service also shall apply for purposes of satisfying any waiting periods, evidence of insurability requirements, or the application of any preexisting condition limitations. Each BancorpSouth Plan shall waive pre-existing condition limitations to the same extent waived under the applicable PBC Plan. PBC Employees shall be given credit for amounts paid under a corresponding benefit plan during the same period for purposes of applying deductibles, copayments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the BancorpSouth Plan.

(c) As of the Effective Time, except as described in Section 8.2(d) below and except as otherwise agreed, BancorpSouth shall assume and honor and shall cause the appropriate Subsidiaries of BancorpSouth to assume and to honor in accordance with their terms all employment, severance and other compensation agreements and arrangements existing prior to the execution of this Agreement which are between PBC or any of its Subsidiaries and any director, officer or employee thereof and which have been disclosed in the PBC Disclosure Schedule.

(d) BancorpSouth and PBC agree to cooperate and take all reasonable actions to effect the merger of any employee benefit plan that is intended to be qualified under section 401(a) of the Code into the appropriate tax-qualified retirement plan of BancorpSouth after the Merger is completed, so that such plan merger satisfies the requirements of section 414(l) of the Code; provided, however, that BancorpSouth shall not be obligated to effect such a merger of a plan unless such plan is fully funded under section 412 of the Code and section 302 of ERISA, to the extent applicable, and the merger would not jeopardize the tax-qualified status of any BancorpSouth Plan.

(e) Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, if requested by BancorpSouth, prior to the Effective Time, PBC shall freeze, amend or take other action with respect to any Plan (including actions related to termination of such plans immediately prior to the Effective Time) that BancorpSouth, in its sole discretion, deems advisable and not inconsistent with this Agreement, and provide all required notices to participants and appropriate governmental agencies.

(f) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, PBC shall use its best efforts to obtain the consent prior to the Merger of all holders of a PBC Option to the conversion of PBC Options into New Options, as provided under the terms of Section 1.5. Such consent shall be in writing and in a form approved by BancorpSouth.

7.8 Consents and Approvals. PBC shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all third-party consents required under PBC Contracts.

7.9 Additional Agreements. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement or to vest the Surviving Corporation with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of any of the parties to the Merger, the proper officers and directors of each party to this Agreement and their respective Subsidiaries shall take all such necessary action as may be reasonably requested by BancorpSouth.

7.10 Reasonable Best Efforts. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of BancorpSouth and PBC agrees to use its respective reasonable best efforts in good faith to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or desirable, or advisable under applicable laws, so as to permit consummation of the Merger as promptly as practicable and otherwise to enable consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and shall cooperate fully with the other party hereto to that end.

7.11 Tax-Free Qualification. Each of BancorpSouth and PBC shall use its reasonable best efforts not to, and shall use its reasonable best efforts not to permit any of its Subsidiaries to, take any action that would reasonably be expected to prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

7.12 Trust Preferred Securities. Each of BancorpSouth and PBC will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause BancorpSouth to succeed to PBC's rights, interests and obligations pursuant to the Indenture, dated as of October 29, 2002, regarding certain floating rate junior subordinated debt securities due in 2032 (the Indenture), including the execution of a supplemental indenture and other necessary documentation, getting necessary consents and obtaining any required legal opinions, and to take all necessary steps to cause the current trustee (the Predecessor Trustee) to resign and to appoint a successor trustee (the Successor Trustee) acceptable to BancorpSouth, in its sole discretion.

7.13 Indemnification of PBC Directors and Officers.

(a) In the event of any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal or administrative, including, without limitation, any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation in which any person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of this Agreement, or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, a director or officer of PBC or any of its Subsidiaries (the Indemnified Parties) is, or is threatened to be, made a party based in whole or in part on, or arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to (i) the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of PBC, any of the Subsidiaries of PBC or any of their respective predecessors or affiliates or (ii) this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby, whether in any case asserted or arising before or after the Effective Time, the parties hereto agree to cooperate and use their best efforts to defend against and respond thereto. It is understood and agreed that, after the Effective Time, BancorpSouth shall indemnify and hold harmless, subject in all respects to any limitations imposed by any statute, rule, regulation, administrative interpretation, or other law, including any procedural requirements or other conditions, each such Indemnified Party against any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses in advance of the final disposition of any claim, suit, proceeding or investigation to each Indemnified Party), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any such threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation. In the event of any such threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (whether asserted or arising before or after the Effective Time), the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel reasonably satisfactory to them after consultation with BancorpSouth; provided, however, that (1) BancorpSouth shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and, upon such assumption, BancorpSouth shall not be liable to any Indemnified Party for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by any Indemnified Party in connection with the defense thereof, except that if BancorpSouth elects not to assume such defense or if counsel for the Indemnified Parties reasonably advises that there are issues which raise conflicts of interest between BancorpSouth and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel reasonably satisfactory to them after consultation with BancorpSouth, and BancorpSouth shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties, (2) BancorpSouth shall in all cases be obligated pursuant to this paragraph to pay for only one firm of counsel for all Indemnified Parties (unless an ethical conflict of interest arises for such firm of counsel in representing all Indemnified Parties), (3) BancorpSouth shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) and (4) BancorpSouth shall have no obligation hereunder to any Indemnified Party if that indemnification of such Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated hereby is prohibited by any statute, rule, regulation, administrative interpretation, or other law. Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim Indemnification under this Section 7.13, upon learning of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, shall promptly notify BancorpSouth thereof; provided that the failure to so notify shall not affect the obligations of BancorpSouth under this Section 7.13 except to the extent such failure to notify materially prejudices BancorpSouth. BancorpSouth's obligations under this Section 7.13 shall continue in full force and effect without time limit from and after the Effective Time.

(b) In the event BancorpSouth or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger, or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person, then, and in each such case, to the extent necessary, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of BancorpSouth assume the obligations set forth in this Section.

(c) The provisions of this Section 7.13 are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives.

- (5) Interest means interest from the effective date of the corporate action that gave rise to the shareholder's right to dissent until the date of payment, at the average auction rate paid on United States treasury bills with a maturity of six (6) months (or the closest maturity thereto) as of the auction date for such treasury bills closest to such effective date;
- (6) Record shareholder means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation; and

[Acts 1986, ch. 887, § 13.01.]

48-23-102. Right to dissent.

(a) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

(1) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party:

(A) If shareholder approval is required for the merger by § 48-21-104 or the charter and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger; or

(B) If the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under § 48-21-105;

sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one (1) year after the date of sale;

(4) An amendment of the charter that materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenter's shares because it:

(A) Alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares;

(B) Creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase, of the shares;

(C) Alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities;

(D) Excludes or limits the right of the shares to vote on any matter, or to cumulate votes, other than a limitation by dilution through issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights; or

(E) Reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share, if the fractional share is to be acquired for cash under § 48-16-104; or

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), no shareholder may dissent as to any shares of a security which, as of the date of the effectuation of the transaction which would otherwise give rise to dissenters' rights, is listed on an exchange registered under § 6 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or is a national market system security, as defined in rules promulgated pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

[Acts 1986, ch. 887, § 13.02.]

48-23-103. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners.

(a) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the record shareholder's name only if the record shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one (1) person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the record shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the partial dissenter dissents and the partial dissenter's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(b) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares of any one (1) or more classes held on the beneficial shareholder's behalf only if the beneficial shareholder:

(1) Submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and

(2) The corporation fails to make payment under § 48-23-206 within two (2) months after the date set for demanding payment; or

[Acts 1986, ch. 887, § 13.28.]

48-23-301. Court action.

(a) If a demand for payment under § 48-23-209 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within two (2) months after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the two-month period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

(b) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in a court of record having equity jurisdiction in the county where the corporation's principal office (or, if none in this state, its registered office) is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located.

(c) The corporation shall make all dissenters (whether or not residents of this state) whose demands remain unsettled, parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(e) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment:

(1) For the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus accrued interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation; or

The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under § 48-23-209.

(b) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable against:

(1) The corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of part 2 of this chapter; or

(2) Either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

(c) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to the dissenters who were benefited.

ANNEX C

September 16, 2004

Board of Directors
Premier Bancorp, Inc.
5217 Maryland Way
Brentwood, TN 37027

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that BancorpSouth, Inc., a Mississippi corporation (BXS) and Premier Bancorp, Inc., a Tennessee corporation (Premier) are about to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement) dated September 16, 2004, pursuant to which Premier will merge with and into BXS (the Merger). As set forth in Section 1.4(a) of the Agreement, at the Effective Time of the Merger (as defined in the Agreement) each outstanding share of Premier common stock (Premier Shares) will be converted into the right to receive per share merger consideration (the Merger Consideration) equal to a current value of $50.07 at the time of signing the Agreement, subject to adjustments as set forth in Section 1.4 of the Agreement and to the election and proration procedures for the Merger Consideration to be paid either 100% in cash, 100% in stock or a combination of stock and cash, but with the overall aggregate Merger Consideration to be paid 51% in the form of stock and 49% in the form of cash.

In connection therewith, you have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration (as defined in the Agreement) to the shareholders of Premier.

Hovde Financial LLC (Hovde), as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bidding, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. We are familiar with Premier, having acted as its financial advisor in connection with, and having participated in the negotiations leading to, the Agreement.

We were retained by Premier to act as its financial advisor in connection with the Merger. We will receive compensation from Premier in connection with our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. Premier has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

During the course of our engagement and for the purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

- (i) reviewed the Agreement;
- (ii) reviewed certain historical publicly available business and financial information concerning Premier and BXS;
- (iii) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning Premier;
- (iv) analyzed certain financial projections prepared by the management of Premier;
- (v) conducted meetings with members of the senior management of Premier for the purpose of reviewing the future prospects of Premier, including financial forecasts related to the respective businesses, earnings, assets, liabilities and the amount and timing of cost savings and revenue enhancements (the Synergies) expected to be achieved as a result of the Merger;

- (vi) reviewed historical market prices and trading volumes for BXS Common Stock;
- (vii) reviewed the terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving banks and bank holding companies that we considered relevant;
- (viii) evaluated the pro forma ownership of BXS Common Stock by Premier shareholders relative to the pro forma contribution of Premier's assets, liabilities, equity and earnings to the combined company;
- (ix) analyzed the pro forma impact of the Merger on the combined company's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios; and
- (x) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

We also took into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions as well as our knowledge of the banking industry and our general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering this opinion, we have assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and representations contained in the materials provided to us by Premier and BXS and in the discussions with the management of Premier and BXS. In that regard, we have assumed that the financial forecasts, including, without limitation, the Synergies and projections for Premier regarding monthly earnings projections, projected loan and deposit balances, under-performing and nonperforming assets and net charge-offs have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available information and judgments and estimates of Premier and BXS and that such forecasts will be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby. We are not experts in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto and have assumed that such allowances for Premier and BXS are in the aggregate adequate to cover such losses. We were not retained to and did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of Premier or BXS. In addition, we have not reviewed individual credit files nor have we made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of Premier and BXS and we were not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals.

We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement. We have further assumed that the Merger will be accounted for as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles and that it will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes. We have assumed that the Merger is, and will be, in compliance with all laws and regulations that are applicable to Premier and BXS. In rendering this opinion, we have been advised by Premier and BXS and we have assumed that there are no factors that would impede any necessary regulatory or governmental approval of the Merger and we have further assumed that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals, no restriction will be imposed on Premier or BXS that would have a material adverse effect on BXS, as the surviving corporation, or the contemplated benefits of the Merger. We have also assumed that there would not occur any change in applicable law or regulation that would cause a material adverse change in the prospects or operations of BXS as the surviving corporation after the Merger.

Our opinion is based solely upon the information available to us and the economic, market and other circumstances as they exist as of the date hereof. Events occurring and information that becomes available after the date hereof could materially affect the assumptions and analyses used in preparing this opinion. We have not undertaken to reaffirm or revise this opinion or otherwise comment upon any events occurring or information that becomes available after the date hereof, except as otherwise agreed in our engagement letter.

We are not expressing any opinion herein as to the prices at which shares of BXS Common Stock issued in the Merger may trade if and when they are issued or at any future time, nor does our opinion constitute a recommendation to any holder of a Premier Share as to how such holder should vote with respect to the Agreement at any meeting of holders of Premier Shares. As you are aware, in the course of its daily trading activities, investment funds controlled by an affiliate (as such term is defined in Regulation 12G-2 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) of Hovde and their affiliates may from time to time effect transactions and hold securities of BXS and may be long or short in such securities.

This letter is solely for the information of the Board of Directors of Premier and is not to be used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any other purpose, nor is it to be filed with, included in or referred to in whole or in part in any registration statement, proxy statement or any other document, except in each case in accordance with our prior written consent which shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that we hereby consent to the inclusion and reference to this letter in any registration statement, proxy statement, information statement or tender offer document to be delivered to the holders of Premier Shares in connection with the Merger if and only if this letter is quoted in full or attached as an exhibit to such document and this letter has not been withdrawn prior to the date of such document.

Subject to the foregoing and based on our experience as investment bankers, our activities and assumptions as described above, and other factors we have deemed relevant, we are of the opinion as of the date hereof that the Merger Consideration pursuant to the Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Premier.

Sincerely,

HOVDE FINANCIAL LLC

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

A. Restated Articles of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws.

BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation provide that it will indemnify, and upon request advance expenses to, any person (or his estate) who was or is a party to, or is threatened to be made a party to, any legal proceeding because he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of BancorpSouth, or is or was serving at the request of BancorpSouth as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership or other entity, against any liability incurred in that proceeding (a) to the full extent permitted by Section 79-4-8.51 of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, and (b) despite the fact that such person did not meet the standard of conduct set forth in Section 79-4-8.51(a) of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act or would be disqualified for indemnification under Section 79-4-8.51(d) of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, if a determination is made by a person or persons enumerated in Section 79-4-8.55(b) of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act that (i) the person seeking indemnity is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all of the relevant circumstances, and (ii) his acts or omissions did not constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct. A request for reimbursement or advancement of expenses prior to final disposition of the proceeding must be accompanied by an undertaking to repay the advances if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to indemnification and he did not meet the requisite standard of conduct, but it need not be accompanied by an affirmation that the person seeking indemnity believed he has met the standard of conduct. BancorpSouth may, to the full extent permitted by law, purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any such person against any liability which may be asserted against him.

BancorpSouth's amended and restated bylaws provide that it will indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any legal proceeding (other than a derivative action for which indemnification is described below) because he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of BancorpSouth, or is or was serving at the request of BancorpSouth as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership or other entity, against any expenses or awards actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith to the fullest extent provided in BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation and by law. BancorpSouth also will indemnify any person who was or is or is threatened to be made a party to any derivative suit with respect to BancorpSouth because that person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of BancorpSouth, or is or was serving at the request of BancorpSouth as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership or other entity, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action unless he is found to have breached his duty to BancorpSouth to discharge his duties in good faith and with the care which an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, and in a manner he reasonably believes to be in the best interests of BancorpSouth, unless, despite such finding of liability, the court determines that he is entitled to indemnity. BancorpSouth's amended and restated bylaws also provide that BancorpSouth may (i) advance to the person seeking indemnity the expenses incurred in defending a proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking that he will repay amounts advanced unless it ultimately is determined that he is entitled to be indemnified, and (ii) purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of BancorpSouth, or is or was serving at the request of BancorpSouth as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership or other entity, against any liability arising out of his acting as such, whether or not BancorpSouth would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under BancorpSouth's amended and restated bylaws.

B. Mississippi Business Corporation Act.

In addition to the foregoing provisions of BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws, officers and directors of BancorpSouth and its subsidiaries may be indemnified by BancorpSouth pursuant to Sections 79-4-8.50 through 79-4-8.59 of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act.

C. Insurance.

BancorpSouth maintains and pays premiums on an insurance policy on behalf of its officers and directors against liability asserted against or incurred by such persons in or arising from their capacity as such.

D. SEC Policy on Indemnification.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling BancorpSouth pursuant to the foregoing provisions, BancorpSouth has been informed that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Item 22. Undertakings.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement: (i) to include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information in the registration statement (notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement); (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant s annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan s annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

The Registrant undertakes that every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to the paragraph immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as part of an amendment to the Registration Statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the Prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the Registration Statement through the date of responding to the request.
