PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS July 30, 2004

VOTING RIGHTS, PROXIES AND SOLICITATION

General

We are furnishing this Proxy Statement to shareholders of Mylan Laboratories Inc., a Pennsylvania corporation (Mylan or the Company), in connection with the solicitation of proxies by our Board of Directors for use at our 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the Annual Meeting). The Annual Meeting will be held on Friday, July 30, 2004, at 10:00 a.m. Eastern time, at the Hilton Garden Inn, 1000 Corporate Drive, Canonsburg, Pennsylvania, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting. We are mailing this Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy card to shareholders on or about June 28, 2004.

Our Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on June 11, 2004 (the Record Date) as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof. As of the close of business on the Record Date, there were 268,560,330 shares of our common stock, par value $.50 per share (Common Stock), outstanding and entitled to vote. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on each matter properly brought before the Annual Meeting.

Quorum

Holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our Common Stock entitled to vote on the Record Date must be present in person or represented by proxy to constitute a quorum. Proxies marked as abstaining and proxies returned by brokers as non-votes because they have not received voting instructions from the beneficial owners of the shares will be treated as shares present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Voting

You may vote on matters to come before the meeting in three ways:

You may come to the Annual Meeting and cast your vote in person;

You may vote electronically over the Internet, by following the instructions on the enclosed proxy card; or

You may vote by signing and returning the proxy card by mail.

If you vote by using the enclosed proxy card, the individuals named on the card will vote your shares in the manner you indicate. If you do not specify voting instructions, then the proxy will be voted in accordance with recommendations of the Board of Directors, as described in this Proxy Statement. If any other matter properly comes before the Annual Meeting, the designated proxies will vote on that matter in their discretion.

If you come to the Annual Meeting to cast your vote in person and you are holding your stock in a brokerage account (street name), you will need to bring a legal proxy obtained from your broker. If you vote electronically, you should NOT return your proxy card. If you are a beneficial owner, or own your shares in street name, please contact your broker or nominee to determine whether you will be able to vote over the Internet.

We encourage you to vote by proxy even if you plan to attend the meeting, to ensure that your shares are represented at the meeting and voted as directed. Please return the card in a timely manner.

Revoking a Proxy

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted by submitting another properly-executed proxy showing a later date, by casting a new vote over the Internet, by filing a written notice of revocation with the Secretary of Mylan at the address shown on the cover page or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Votes Required

You may vote either FOR or WITHHOLD with respect to each nominee for the Board. The 11 director nominees who receive the highest number of votes will be elected to the Board. Votes of WITHHOLD and broker non-votes have no legal effect on the election of directors. Approval of any other matters to be considered by the shareholders will require the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the votes cast by all shareholders and entitled to vote. In these instances, an abstention would have the same effect as a vote against the proposal. Broker non-votes would not be counted for or against any such proposals. All votes will be tabulated by the inspectors of election, who will be representatives of the Company and will separately tabulate affirmative and negative votes, abstentions and broker non-votes.

Proxy Solicitation

As stated above, Mylan is soliciting this proxy on behalf of its Board of Directors. The Company will bear the cost of the solicitation of proxies for use at the Annual Meeting. In addition to solicitation by mail, employees of the Company may solicit proxies from shareholders by telephone, facsimile, e-mail or in person. We will ask brokerage houses and other nominees, custodians and fiduciaries to forward proxy soliciting material and our 2004 Annual Report to Shareholders to the beneficial owners of the shares of our Common Stock held of record by them, and we will reimburse these record holders for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in doing so. In addition, we have engaged Morrow & Co., Inc. to assist in soliciting proxies from brokers, banks and other nominee holders of our Common Stock at a cost of approximately $6,000 plus expenses.

Stock Split

On October 8, 2003, the Company effected a three-for-two split of its common stock. All share and per share amounts included in this Proxy Statement have been adjusted for all periods to reflect the stock split.

ITEM 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Mylan's Board of Directors currently consists of 11 members. Our directors are elected to serve for a one-year term and until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified. John C. Coury, Mylan's Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. Each of the nominees has consented to act as a director of Mylan if elected. If, however, a nominee is unavailable for election, proxy holders will vote for another nominee proposed by the Board or, as an alternative, the Board may reduce the number of directors to be elected at the Annual Meeting. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE

FOR THE ELECTION OF EACH OF THE NOMINEES NAMED ABOVE.

Meetings of the Board

In fiscal 2004, our Board met nine times. In addition to meetings of the Board, directors attended meetings of individual Board committees. In fiscal 2004, all of the directors attended at least 75% of the Board meetings and meetings of Board committees of which they were a member. In addition to board and committee meetings, directors are expected to attend the Annual Meeting. All 11 directors attended the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Board Committees

The principal standing committees of the Board include the Audit Committee, Compensation Committee and Governance and Nominating Committee.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee's responsibilities include the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the Company's independent auditor; reviewing with the independent auditor the scope of the audit plan and audit fees; and reviewing the Company's financial statements and related disclosures. The Committee met on five occasions during fiscal 2004. The Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, and the charter currently in effect is attached as Annex A to this Proxy Statement. The Committee is currently comprised of Mr. Leech (Chairman), Mr. DeLynn and

Dr. Gaisford,² all of whom are independent directors as defined in the New York Stock Exchange listing standards applicable to the Company (the NYSE rules). The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Leech is an audit committee financial expert, as that term is defined in the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). For additional information, see Report of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee establishes and regularly reviews the Company's compensation philosophy, strategy, objectives and ethics and determines the compensation payable to the Chief Executive Officer. The Committee also administers the Company's equity compensation and benefit plans. The Committee met on six occasions during fiscal 2004. The Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, and is currently comprised of Mr. DeLynn (Chairman), Ms. Cameron and Dr. Gaisford,³ all of whom are independent directors as defined in the NYSE rules. For additional information, see Report of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors.

Governance and Nominating Committee. The Governance and Nominating Committee is responsible for the nomination of candidates for the Board and the oversight of all aspects of the Company's corporate governance initiatives. The Committee met on two occasions during fiscal 2004. The Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, and the charter currently in effect is attached as Annex B to this Proxy Statement. The Committee is currently comprised of Mr. Leech (Chairman), Ms. Cameron and Dr. Gaisford,⁴ all of whom are independent directors as defined in the NYSE rules.

For purposes of identifying individuals qualified to become members of the Board, the Governance and Nominating Committee have adopted the following criteria with regard to traits, abilities and experience that the Board looks for in determining candidates for election to the Board:

Directors should be of the highest ethical character and share the values of the Company.

Directors should have personal and/or professional reputations that are consistent with the image and reputation of the Company.

Each Director should have relevant expertise and experience and be able to offer advice and guidance to the Chief Executive Officer based on that expertise and experience.

Each Director should have the ability to exercise sound business judgment.

In addition, a majority of the members of the Board should be independent, not only as that term may be defined legally or mandated by the NYSE rules, but also without the appearance of any conflict in serving as a director. For a director to be considered independent, the Board must determine that he or she does not have any material relationship, with the Company, either directly or indirectly (other than in his or her capacity as a director).

The Committee will consider nominees for director who are properly recommended by the shareholders of the Company in accordance with SEC requirements and the NYSE rules. Recommendations, which must include written materials with respect to the potential candidate, must be sent in accordance with the procedures described below under the heading Shareholder Proposals for the 2005 Annual Meeting. Shareholder nominees for director who meet the Committee's director qualifications will be considered by the Chairman of the Committee, who will present the information on the shareholder nominee to the entire Committee.

(2) As noted above, Dr. Gaisford will resign effective as of the date of the Annual Meeting. The Board intends to appoint a director to succeed him on the Committee at that time.

(3) Please see note 2.

(4) Please see note 3.

Under service benefit agreements entered into with Mylan, each of Mr. DeLynn and Dr. Gaisford is entitled to receive $18,000 annually, payable in monthly installments, for a 10-year period beginning on the date on which his service to Mylan ends. Upon his death or at his election, the aggregate amount of any unpaid benefit is payable in a lump sum, discounted to the present value at the per annum rate of 7%.

Employment Contracts and Change-in-Control Arrangements

The Company entered into employment agreements with each of the Named Executive Officers in 2002, and such agreements were modified in December 2003. Each agreement provides for the payment of a minimum base salary, as well as eligibility to receive a discretionary bonus and fringe benefits of employment as are customarily provided to senior executives of the Company. Mr. Coury's agreement also provides for a guaranteed bonus. Unless earlier terminated, extended or renewed, the agreements with Mr. Coury and Dr. O'Donnell expire in 2007, the agreements with Messrs. Borkowski and DeBone expire in 2005 and the agreement with Mr. Williams expires in 2004. Each agreement contains customary non-competition and non-solicitation provisions. The agreements generally terminate prior to the expiration date without breach by any party in the event of the death of the officer or his resignation for good reason. The Company may also terminate each agreement for cause. If an executive resigns for good reason or is discharged by the Company without cause, the executive may receive severance payments, as well as continued participation in certain compensation and employee benefit plans.

Mylan also entered into transition and succession agreements with each of the Named Executive Officers in December 2003. Under the terms of these agreements, both Mr. Coury's and Mr. Williams' employment would terminate upon a change of control, and each would receive a lump sum severance payment and the continuation of health and insurance benefits for him and his family for a three-year period. The agreements for Messrs. Borkowski and DeBone and Dr. O'Donnell provide that if such executive's employment is terminated other than for cause or if such executive terminates his employment voluntarily for good reason or for any reason within 90 days following the first anniversary of a change of control, he would receive a lump sum severance payment, as well as the continuation of health and insurance benefits for him and his family for a three-year period.

In addition, under the Salary Continuation Plan approved by the Board of Directors, the Company has entered into Retirement Benefit Agreements with Mr. DeBone and Dr. O'Donnell, which provide for fixed annual payments to these executives of $100,000 commencing upon termination of employment with Mylan. These payments are payable over a ten-year period. Upon the executive's death following his retirement or at the election of the executive, the aggregate amount of the unpaid benefit is payable in a lump sum, discounted to the present value at the per annum rate of 7%. If either executive dies prior to retirement, his beneficiaries will receive (under life insurance policies purchased by Mylan) a lump sum payment of $1,250,000.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

None of the members of our Compensation Committee has ever been an employee of Mylan, and none of our executive officers serves as a member of the board of directors or compensation committee of any entity that has one or more executive officers serving on our Board or Compensation Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The following Report of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors does not constitute soliciting material and shall not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates such information by reference.

During fiscal 2004, the Compensation Committee was comprised of three non-employee directors, Laurence S. DeLynn (Chairman), Wendy Cameron and John C. Gaisford, M.D. The purpose of the Compensation Committee is to, among other things, determine and approve Chief Executive Officer compensation and recommend Board and Board committee compensation, as well as to oversee the issuance of stock options and other awards to eligible participants and review and administer the Company's incentive and stock option plans.

For fiscal 2004, the primary elements of Mylan's compensation program consisted of base salary, short-term incentive compensation and long-term incentive compensation. The Compensation Committee believes this compensation program was a significant factor contributing to Mylan's success this past year.

The Compensation Committee's compensation policies applicable to Mylan's executive officers are to:

provide compensation to executive officers at such levels as will enable Mylan to attract and retain individuals of the highest caliber, compensate executive officers in a manner best calculated to recognize individual, group and company performances, and seek to align the interests of employees with the interests of Mylan's shareholders.

During fiscal 2004, the salaries and bonuses of executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer were governed generally by the officers' employment agreements and determined by Robert J. Coury, and were based upon various factors such as responsibilities, positions and individual performances. In its compensation decisions, the Compensation Committee also made awards under the Company's 2003 Long-Term Incentive Plan. The Compensation Committee's primary objectives when making grants under the 2003 Plan were to allow employees to participate in the success of Mylan through stock ownership, to provide a strong and direct link between employee compensation and the interests of shareholders and to encourage recipients to focus on the long-term performance of the Company. The number of shares of common stock that were the basis of awards were determined by the individual's position within the Company and his or her level of responsibility.

Robert J. Coury has been serving as Mylan's Chief Executive Officer since September 1, 2002, pursuant to the terms of an Employment Agreement. Under Mr. Coury's Employment Agreement, his base salary for service as Chief Executive Officer during fiscal 2004 was fixed at a bi-weekly rate of $42,308. Future salary adjustments will be based upon the requirements of the Employment Agreement as well as the Compensation Committee's evaluation of Mr. Coury's performance. Mr. Coury's total bonus for fiscal 2004 of $2,000,000 includes a guaranteed bonus of $1,100,000 to which he was entitled under his Employment Agreement as well as a $900,000 discretionary bonus awarded to him by the Compensation Committee, as contemplated by the Employment Agreement. In reaching its decision to award this bonus, the Compensation Committee considered subjective factors such as Mr. Coury's leadership, guidance and ethics; his establishment of policies, directives, and organizational goals to position the Company for growth; and his development of a comprehensive strategy to maximize the potential of a variety of business opportunities.

Lastly, Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), restricts the deductibility for federal income tax purposes of the compensation paid to the Chief Executive Officer and each of the four other most highly compensated executive officers of a public company for any fiscal year to the extent that such compensation for any one of them exceeds $1,000,000 and does not qualify as performance-based as defined under the Code. The Board and the Compensation Committee have taken actions intended to increase Mylan's opportunity to deduct compensation paid to executive officers for federal income tax purposes. The Compensation Committee intends to obtain the fullest compensation deduction possible without breaching Mylan's contractual commitments or sacrificing the flexibility needed to recognize and reward desired performance.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The following Report of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors does not constitute soliciting material and shall not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates such information by reference.

The Audit Committee is currently comprised of three independent directors and operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors in accordance with current rules of the New York Stock Exchange.

Management is responsible for Mylan's internal controls and the financial reporting process. The independent auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of Mylan's consolidated financial statements in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), and to issue a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

In this context, the Audit Committee has met and held discussions with management and the independent auditors regarding Mylan's audited consolidated financial statements. These discussions covered the quality, as well as the acceptability, of Mylan's financial reporting practices and the completeness and clarity of the related financial disclosures. Management represented to the Audit Committee that Mylan's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, and the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees).

Mylan's independent auditors also provided to the Audit Committee the written disclosures and letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors that firm's independence. Deloitte & Touche LLP, Mylan's independent auditors, stated in the written disclosures that in their judgment they are, in fact, independent. The Audit Committee concurred in that judgment of independence.

Based upon the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in Mylan's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2004, which was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Audit Committee also considered whether non-audit services provided to Mylan by Deloitte & Touche LLP are compatible with maintaining the independence of Deloitte & Touche LLP. The Audit Committee believes that the provision of those services in fiscal 2004 by Deloitte & Touche LLP is compatible with maintaining its independence.

BY THE AUDIT COMMITTEE:

Douglas J. Leech, Chairman

Laurence S. DeLynn

John C. Gaisford, M.D.

- (3) All other fees in fiscal 2003 related mainly to assistance in preparing for our enterprise resource planning (ERP) system initiative; all other fees in fiscal 2004 related primarily to assistance in preparing for our ERP initiative and our quality assurance and compliance system.

The Audit Committee has adopted a policy regarding pre-approval of audit, audit-related, tax and other services that the independent auditor may perform for the Company. Under the policy the Audit Committee must pre-approve on an individual basis any requests for audit, audit-related, tax and other services not covered by certain services that are pre-approved annually by the Company. The policy also prohibits the engagement of the independent auditor for non-audit related financial information systems design and implementation, for certain other services considered to have an impact on independence and for all services prohibited by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. All services performed by D&T during fiscal 2004 were pre-approved by the Audit Committee in accordance with its policy.
