PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Michael Baker Corporation (the Company) is filing this Form 12b-25 because additional time is needed for the Company to complete its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2006, which was due today.

As previously described in our Form 8-K dated January 26, 2006, the Company is in the process of restating its financial statements for certain prior periods for certain items including the underaccrual and underpayment of non-resident Nigerian income taxes, the underaccrual and underpayment of Nigerian payroll taxes, overstated prepaid tax asset balances recorded by its majority-owned Nigerian subsidiary, incurred but not reported liability for self-insured professional liability insurance, and non-routine project accounting and other transactions.

As discussed in the Company s Form 8-K dated January 26, 2006, the previously issued consolidated financial statements of the Company for fiscal years 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2004, and its related interim consolidated financial statements for each of the quarters of 2003 and 2004 and the first quarter of 2005, should not be relied upon because of errors in those financial statements. Such financial statements will be restated.

Consequently, the Company has not been able to complete its financial statements for, among other periods, the quarter ended June 30, 2006, and the Company was not able to file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2006 by today s due date.

PART IV OTHER INFORMATION

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

- Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2005
- Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2005
- Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005
- Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2006

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As previously described in our Form 8-K dated January 26, 2006, the Company is in the process of restating its financial statements for certain prior periods and has not yet filed its Form 10-Q for the corresponding period of the last fiscal year. It is possible that the 2006 results could differ significantly from the corresponding six-month period in 2005, however, until the restatements are complete, we are not able to estimate or quantify the significance of any change in the results of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2006 from the six months ended June 30, 2005.
