NAUTICA ENTERPRISES, INC. NOTIFIED OF WITHDRAWAL OF PROXY SOLICITATION BY BARINGTON GROUP

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, (JULY 7, 2003) - Nautica Enterprises, Inc. (NASDAQ: NAUT) today announced that it has been notified by the Barington Group that it has discontinued and withdrawn its proxy solicitation in light of the Company's announcement today that it has signed a definitive merger agreement to be acquired by VF Corporation (NYSE: VFC) for total consideration of approximately $586 million, including $17.00 per share in cash to Nautica stockholders.

Harvey Sanders, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Nautica Enterprises, Inc., commented, "We believe the transaction with VF will deliver significant value to our shareholders and look forward to completing the merger as quickly as possible."

As previously announced, Nautica Enterprises' 2003 Annual Shareholder Meeting, which had been scheduled for July 8, has been postponed and a new date will be announced shortly. The Company expects that the original record date of May 29, 2003 will remain in effect for the meeting. The Barington Group consists of a number of entities that had been participating in a proxy solicitation led by Barington Companies Equity Partners, L.P.

Nautica Enterprises, Inc., through its subsidiaries, designs, sources, markets and distributes apparel under the following brands: Nautica; Nautica Competition; Nautica Jeans Company; Earl Jean; John Varvatos; E. Magrath; and Byron Nelson. For more information about the company, please visit WWW.NAUTICA.COM

This press release contains "forward-looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on the Company's current expectations of future events and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that may cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those anticipated, estimated or projected. These factors and uncertainties include, among others: the risk as to the success of the Company's announced merger; the risk that new businesses of the Company will not be integrated successfully; the risk that the Company will experience operational difficulties with its distribution facility; the overall level of consumer spending on apparel; dependence on sales to a limited number of large department store customers; risks related to extending credit to customers; actions of existing or new competitors and changes in economic, political or health conditions in the markets where the Company sells or sources its products, including with respect to SARS; downturn or generally reduced shopping activity caused by public safety concerns; risks associated with consolidations, restructurings and other ownership changes in the retail industry; changes in trends in the market segments in which the Company competes; risks associated with uncertainty relating to the Company's ability to launch, support and implement new product lines; effects of competition; changes in the costs of raw materials, labor and advertising; the ability to secure and protect trademarks and other intellectual property rights; risks associated with the relocation of Earl Jean, Inc.; the risk that the cost of transitioning the Nautica Europe business to licensing or other key arrangements will be more than anticipated or that the Company will not be able to negotiate acceptable terms; and, the impact that any labor
