Results of Operations

Sales under certain fixed-price contracts, requiring substantial performance over several periods prior to commencement of deliveries, are accounted for under the percentage-of-completion method of accounting whereby revenues are recognized based on estimates of completion prepared on a ratio of cost to total estimated cost basis. Costs include all material and direct and indirect charges related to specific contracts.

Edgar Filing: TAYLOR DEVICES INC - Form 10QSB

Adjustments to cost estimates are made periodically and any losses expected to be incurred on contracts in progress are charged to operations in the period such losses are determined. However, any profits expected on contracts in progress are recognized over the life of the contract.

For financial statement presentation purposes, the Company nets progress billings against the total costs incurred on uncompleted contracts. The asset, "costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings," represents revenues recognized in excess of amounts billed. The liability, "billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings," represents billings in excess of revenues recognized.

For the three months ended August 31, 2005 (All figures being discussed are for the three months ended August 31, 2005 as compared to the three months ended August 31, 2004.)

	Three months ended		Change
	August 31, 2005	August 31, 2004	Increase / (Decrease)	Percent Change
Net Revenue	$3,110,000	$2,451,000	$ 659,000	27%
Cost of sales	2,135,000	1,596,000	539,000	34%
Gross profit	$ 975,000	$ 855,000	$ 120,000	14%
	31%	35%

...as a percentage of net revenues

The Company's consolidated results of operations showed a 27% increase in net revenues and a 48% increase in net income to $109,000. Gross profit increased by 14%. Revenues recorded in the current period for long-term construction projects increased by 112% over the unusually low level recorded in the prior year period. These current year's projects contributed a gross profit margin of 34%, down slightly from the 38% in the prior year's period. The overall gross profit as a percentage of net revenues for the quarter was 31%, down slightly from the 35% for the same period in the prior year.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

	Three months ended		Change
	August 31, 2005	August 31, 2004	Increase / (Decrease)	Percent Change
Outside Commissions	$ 124,000	$ 104,000	$ 20,000	19%
Royalties	34,000	36,000	(2,000)	-6%
Other SG&A	591,000	553,000	38,000	7%
Total SG&A	$ 749,000	$ 693,000	$ 56,000	8%

...as a percentage of net revenues      24%                      28%

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by approximately 8% from the prior year primarily due to higher levels of commission expense, which is directly related to the level of sales for the period. Overall expenses were in line with last year.

The above factors resulted in an operating income of $226,000 for the three months ended August 31, 2005, up 39% from the $163,000 in the same period of the prior year.

Interest expense is slightly less than in the prior year due to a lower debt level in the current year. Long-term debt is being repaid as scheduled. The operating line of credit usage averaged slightly less than last year. The line of credit is used primarily to fund the production of larger projects that do not allow for advance payments or progress payments.

Capital Resources, Line of Credit and Long-Term Debt

The Company's primary liquidity relates to the working capital needs. These are primarily inventory, accounts receivable, costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings, accounts payable, accrued commissions, billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings, and debt service. The Company's primary sources of liquidity have been from operations and from bank financing.

Capital expenditures for the three months ended August 31, 2005 were $16,000 compared to $68,000 in the same period of the prior year. There are no material commitments for capital expenditures as of August 31, 2005.

The Company has a line of credit with a bank for $5,000,000. There is a $933,000 balance outstanding as of August 31, 2005. This is down from the $1,390,000 balance outstanding as of May 31, 2005. The outstanding balance on the line of credit will fluctuate as the Company's various long-term projects progress.

Principal maturities of long-term debt for the remainder of the current fiscal year and the subsequent five years are as follows: 2006 - $152,000; 2007 - $241,000; 2008 - $232,000; 2009 - $138,000; 2010 - $72,000; and 2011 - $27,000

Inventory and Maintenance Inventory

	August 31, 2005		May 31, 2005		Decrease
Raw Materials	$ 383,000		$ 404,000		$ (21,000)	-5%
Work in process	3,888,000		4,029,000		(141,000)	-3%
Finished goods	306,000		338,000		(32,000)	-9%
Inventory	4,577,000	88%	4,771,000	88%	(194,000)	-4%
Maintenance and other inventory	619,000	12%	662,000	12%	(43,000)	-6%
Total	$5,196,000	100%	$5,433,000	100%	$(237,000)	-4%
Inventory turnover	1.6		1.5

NOTE: Inventory turnover is annualized for the three-month period ended August 31, 2005.

Inventory, at $4,577,000 as of August 31, 2005, is approximately 4% lower than the prior year-end. Of this, approximately 85% is work in process, 7% is finished goods, and 8% is raw materials.

Maintenance and other inventory represent stock that is estimated to have a product life cycle in excess of twelve months. This stock represents certain items that the Company is required to maintain for service of products sold and items that are generally subject to spontaneous ordering. This inventory is particularly sensitive to technical obsolescence in the near term due to its use in industries characterized by the continuous introduction of new product lines, rapid technological advances and product obsolescence. Management of the Company has recorded an allowance for potential inventory obsolescence. The provision for potential inventory obsolescence was $45,000 for the three-month period ended August 31, 2005 and for the same period last year. The Company continues to rework slow-moving inventory, where applicable, to convert it to product to be used on customer orders.

Accounts Receivable, Costs and Estimated Earnings in Excess of Billings, and Billings in Excess of Costs and Estimated Earnings

	August 31, 2005		May 31, 2005		Increase /(Decrease)
Accounts receivable	$1,939,000		$2,719,000		$ (780,000)	-29%
Costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings	1,914,000		1,657,000		257,000	16%
Less: Billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings	-		288,000		(288,000)
Net	$3,853,000		$4,088,000		$ (235,000)	-6%

The Company combines the totals of accounts receivable, the asset "costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings", and the liability, "billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings", to determine how much cash the Company will eventually realize from revenue recorded to date. As the accounts receivable figure rises in relation to the other two figures, the Company can anticipate increased cash receipts within the ensuing 30-60 days.

Accounts receivable of $1,939,000 as of August 31, 2005 includes approximately $7,000 of amounts retained by customers on long-term construction projects. The Company expects to collect all of these amounts, including the retainage, during the next twelve months.

As noted above, the current asset, "costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings," represents revenues recognized in excess of amounts billed. Whenever possible, the Company negotiates a provision in sales contracts to allow the Company to bill and collect from the customer, payments in advance of shipments. Unfortunately, provisions such as this are often not possible in certain governmental contracts and contracts with many foreign customers. The $1,914,000 balance in this account at August 31, 2005 is a 16% increase from the prior year-end. This increase results from work commencing on several long-term construction projects that were not in process at May 31, 2005. There are no progress billings to the customer permitted on some of these projects. The Company expects to bill the entire amount during the next twelve months.

As noted above, the current liability, "billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings", represents billings to customers in excess of revenues recognized. The zero balance in this account at August 31, 2005 is a decrease from the $288,000 balance at the end of the prior year. This decrease is due to the near completion of two long-term construction projects for which the Company had previously invoiced the customers. Final delivery of product under these contracts occurred within one month of the end of the first quarter.

The Company's backlog of sales orders at August 31, 2005 is $7.8 million, up slightly from the backlog at the end of the prior year of $7.3 million. $4.0 million of the current backlog is on projects already in progress as of August 31, 2005.

Cautionary Statement

Edgar Filing: TAYLOR DEVICES INC - Form 10QSB

Accounts payable, at $709,000 as of August 31, 2005, is only slightly less than the prior year-end.

Commission expense on applicable sales orders is recognized at the time revenue is recognized. The commission is paid following receipt of payment from the customers. Accrued commissions as of August 31, 2005 are $516,000. This is slightly less than the $577,000 accrued at the prior year-end. The Company expects the current accrued amount to be paid during the next twelve months. Other current liabilities increased slightly from the prior year-end to $459,000.

The Company paid $169,000 to Developments during the three months ended August 31, 2005 to reduce the principal balance on the note payable.

Management believes that the Company's cash flows from operations and borrowing capacity under the bank line of credit will be sufficient to fund ongoing operations, capital improvements and share repurchases for the next twelve months.

The Board of Directors and Stockholders
Taylor Devices, Inc.

We have reviewed the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet of Taylor Devices, Inc. and Subsidiary as of August 31, 2005, the related condensed consolidated statements of income for the three months ended August 31, 2005 and August 31, 2004 and cash flows for the three months ended August 31, 2005 and August 31, 2004. These interim financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management.

We conducted our review in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our reviews, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying interim condensed consolidated financial statements referred to above for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We have previously audited, in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated balance sheet as of May 31, 2005, and the related consolidated statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended (not presented herein); and in our report dated July 22, 2005, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements. In our opinion, the information set forth in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet as of May 31, 2005 is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the balance sheet from which it has been derived.
